

SOCIETY

CASTING a high light on the dull screen of the week's social events comes the announcement of the marriage of Miss Helene Schober of Seattle to Lieutenant Frederick Flannely, also of Seattle, on Thursday night.

Mrs. Flannely is a sister of Mrs. David Eyre of Salem, and spent a number of months here last winter as the guest of her sister. Mrs. Flannely possesses a winning personality, which captivated a host of friends during her stay in Salem. She took a prominent place in the social and dramatic activities of the season, playing the part of Dorothy Wells in the local talent play put on by the Elks last winter. "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," which drew such large and enthusiastic audiences.

The marriage took place sooner than had been planned owing to the departure of Lieutenant Flannely for North Carolina within a few days. It was a simple but charming home wedding, the ceremony being performed at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Belle Schober. Lieutenant Flannely has been stationed at American Lake, Washington.

Mrs. J. E. North, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Henry S. Poisel, for a few weeks will leave for her home in Whittier, California, Monday.

During her stay in Salem, Mrs. North has been the motif of several delightful informal affairs. Wednesday Mrs. D. M. Crouse was a dinner hostess at her home on the Liberty road, including as her guests, Mrs. Norris, Mrs. H. S. Poisel, Mrs. George E. Shaw, Miss Marion Shaw and Mrs. Tom Rederick of Vancouver.

Friday evening, Mrs. North was again the guest of honor at an evening of five hundred, when Mrs. George Wood entertained a few friends at her home on North Church street.

As a farewell attention, Mrs. Poisel will be hostess at a dinner tomorrow, complimenting her guest. Circling the table will be Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw and Mrs. George Wood, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bower, Miss Marion Shaw, Miss Helen Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Poisel.

Riverside Dip is proving a mecca and a refreshing boon to those who are tiding over a few dull weeks between a return from vacation haunts and the eagerly anticipated renewal of social activity. Various coteries of society folk wend their way to the "Dip," these warm evenings for the customary picnic lunch which is later followed by swimming or dancing.

One of these gay groups of friends formed a picnic gathering on Monday evening including Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Walton, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shieler of Harrisburg, Miss Lola Sanders of Portland, J. P. Hamilton of Portland, Miss Greta Richmond and Ivan McDaniel.

Mrs. Frank Jordan of Seattle who, with her daughter, Miss Helen Edes Jordan, is a guest at the Henry Meyers home, will be joined over the week end by Mr. Jordan, who will motor down from Seattle.

Miss Mabel Withycombe has been spending the week in Portland as the guest of Mrs. Merrill Moores.

Miss Jeannette Meredith, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Meredith, for several weeks, has left for her home in North Yakima. Miss Meredith will remain in Portland a few days visiting friends, before going on to Washington.

Miss Aline Thompson, who has been passing the week at Agate Beach as the guest of Mrs. Aschel Bush at "Little Bluffs" will return Monday evening. Miss Thompson was the inspiration for much gaiety in the nature of informal attentions during her stay at the beach.

Mrs. E. E. Waters arrived home Thursday after a two weeks outing at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton and daughter, Miss Lucella Patton, Mrs. E. E. Waters and Mrs. George Waters will motor to Portland tomorrow. They will be gone about ten days.

Mrs. John McNary and Miss Nina McNary returned today from a two weeks outing at cascades.

Even an unusual dearth of light diversion this summer cannot entirely blot out birthday festivities. In fact, it is upon the constant and faithful birthday that merriment must depend these August days for her social recreation, which is all the more necessary because of the constant demands of varied relief work on time and strength.

The warm weather decrees that even birthday gaieties must be indulged in, out of doors, preferably near the water. One of the most attractive of these birthday affairs given this summer was the picnic at Spang's landing Tuesday evening, complimenting Mrs. James Chinnock and E. O. Siecke on their natal anniversaries, both of which occurred on Tuesday.

The guests motored out early in the evening, to find a prettily appointed table, decked with golden glow and illuminated with the indispensable birthday cakes and their yellow candles. Japanese lanterns contributed to the festive effect of the scene. Swimming and other picnic diversions around a huge bonfire followed the supper.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burton Webb, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bonnell, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Siecke, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galloway and Roy Burton.

Miss Frances Dick of Portland, the charming little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dick of Portland, is being entertained by Mrs. Milton L. Meyers over the week end.

This afternoon Mrs. Meyers asked in a few intimate friends of Miss Dick for a delightful little Kensington. The small coterie of guests included Ruth Griffiths, Prudence Patterson, Margaret Stolz, Lenta Baumgartner, Katherine Hartley.

Miss Lena Quinn returned to San Francisco Thursday after a month's visit at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Quinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Moores of Portland are passing the week end with Mrs. Karl Steiner of Jefferson.

Mrs. Ada Strong left for Agate Beach today, to spend a week or more. She will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frederic Thielen. Miss Margery Marvin, who accompanied Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle and Fritz Shale to the beach in the former's car, will also be a week end guest at the Thielen cottage.

Miss Katherine Kalkes of Portland will be the guest of Mrs. William M. Staiger at her home on North Liberty street, over Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Withycombe motored to Corvallis for the week end.

Mrs. L. M. Haines accompanied her small grandson, Alter Holzman, who has been spending the summer in Salem, to Portland yesterday.

On Tuesday evening the Salem Orange club, composed of alumni and former students of O. A. C. had a very enjoyable time at Riverside Dip. Swimming was indulged in by many, after which a bonfire was made and a typical Orange club lunch was served.

The meeting was a prelude to the big picnic of the season, which is annually held at the Weeks' farm about three miles north of town on the river. This will be called inside of two weeks. Mark McCallister and L. C. Rulison were appointed a committee to take a census of the talent available for entertainment for the coming event and have sufficient authority to draft any member into the program. The president, however, has made it clear that no exemptions whatever will be granted.

Mrs. Tom Rederick of Vancouver, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. D. M. Crouse for several weeks, will be joined by her husband for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre and two children motored to Agate Beach yesterday, accompanying R. M. Hofer in his car. The Eyres will be guests of the Hofers at their cottage for the week end. Mrs. Eyre will remain for two weeks.

Miss Lida Cranston of Berkeley, California, has been the guest during the week of Mrs. H. P. Boise and Miss Margaret Cosper. When in Berkeley Miss Cranston makes her home at the residence of W. C. Gregory, who, at the outbreak of the war, was director of the Belgian commission.

The George F. Rodgers family are expected to return today from Astoria, where they have been passing a large share of the summer.

Miss Margaret Rodgers will leave within a week for the east, preparatory to entering Vassar.

Ernest Hofer and son, Laurence Hofer, drove to Marshfield today. They will remain about a week, visiting Tom Bennett of Marshfield.

C. B. Clancy returned yesterday from a two months vacation spent in Rainier National Park and the Sound country. Mr. Clancy left for Portland today on a short business trip, returning to Salem next week. He will resume charge of Reef Bros. shop the first of October.

Inasmuch as Salem society numbers several skilled and enthusiastic devotees of tennis, who have done much toward making the annual tournament at Salem an event of more than local renown, the following extract from the Oregonian, concerning the champion woman tennis player of the United States deserves at least passing notice:

"Now that she has again beaten Miss Molla Bjurstedt—she has done it so often that it seems to be a habit—Miss Mary K. Browne ranks as the best woman tennis player in the United States. Her latest victory over Miss Bjurstedt was scored in a brilliant match on the courts at Southampton, Long Island. She has conquered practically all the well known women tennis players in the United States."

"After accomplishing her latest defeat of the famous Norse tennis expert, Miss Browne announced her intention of offering her services to the Red Cross for war work. Evidently now that she has achieved a high place in the firmament of tennis stars she is anxious to do her bit for the United States."

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brophy motored to Neskevin today, where they will be week end guests of Mrs. Brophy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCorkle, who have been passing the summer at the beach in their cottage, "The Ellen."

Mrs. Frederick Flannely (Helene Schober) of Seattle, sister of Mrs. David Eyre of Salem, and popular Salem visitor, whose marriage to Lieutenant Flannely of Seattle, took place Thursday night, in the Sound city.

Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle will return Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Brophy.

Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett and Mrs. Charles E. Barbour and daughter, Miss Genevieve Barbour, arrived home Thursday from a week's motor trip to Seattle. Accompanying them from Seattle was Mrs. Loren Wise, who was returning from a visit in St. Paul, Minnesota. On their return the party took in the Columbia Highway.

Miss Ila Spaulding left Salem last night for Oakland. Miss Spaulding will spend a few days in Oakland before entering Mills Seminary, one of the fashionable preparatory schools for girls near the bay cities.

Complimenting Miss Spaulding, a breakfast and morning swim were enjoyed by the girls of the Breakfast club at Riverside Dip Thursday. The merry makers numbered Misses Ila Spaulding, Gertrude Walling, Grace Holt, Irene Curtis, Reatha Hughes, Edna Howd, Vivian Hargrove, Marybelle Rheinhardt, Ina Proctor, Ethel Frazier, Olga Gray, Ruth Schultz, Zeta and Vera Rosenquest.

Mr. and Mrs. James Elton and small daughter, Jane, who have been spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Elton's father, J. A. Churchill, will return to Astoria tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Albert of Minneapolis, Minnesota, who are the guests of Mrs. Albert's mother, Mrs. Emma Hurst, for several weeks, returned today from a few days outing at Newport.

Of interest to University of Oregon students will be the wedding of Miss Beatrice Lilly and Alva Gray, which occurred Monday evening in Portland. Miss Florence Cleveland of Salem sang just before the service.

Margaret Mason Writes on Gotham Fads and Fashions

By Margaret Mason.

There once was a schoolmaster gruff
Who delighted his pupils to cuff
He'd arise with much choler
And grab a poor scholar
But now collars and cuffs aren't so rough
Though they say in the Fall
He'll find out one and all
That the dollars will be ruff enough
Ruff stuff!

New York, Sept. 1.—It's a wee bit ruff, my dears, but it has us by the ears and a ruff neck you will have to tie this Fall if you want to be real smart and correctly dress the part for a ruffless neck 'n' it is now at all.

In the days of Good Queen Bess (though I really cannot guess why they call her good now pray can you conjecture) ruffs were worn by all the Knitting for the soldiers was the occupation for the afternoon, to the accompaniment of musical selections by Mrs. F. E. Frickey, after which dinner was served. Mrs. Armstrong was the recipient of many choice gifts. In appreciation of Mrs. Armstrong's services as matron during the summer months, the ladies of the W. C. T. U. presented her with a special gift.

The German Lutheran church was the scene of an attractive wedding Wednesday evening, when the marriage of Miss Anna Kraft and John Kuhnke took place at eight o'clock. Rev. H. W. Gross reading the ritualistic ring service in German. The bride was attended by Miss Erna Kraft and Miss Minnie Kuhnke. Standing with the bridegroom were Eric Kraft and Charles Kuhnke.

Immediately after the ceremony a large reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kraft. About eighty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Kuhnke will make their home near Rosedale.

The last of the summer seemed a fitting time for the Woman's Relief Corps to hold their picnic for the veterans of the G. A. R. and their friends. A delicious lunch was served, and many who had birthdays in July and August were remembered with a slice of a birthday cake which had been provided for them, and in many ways these people seemed to be given the perfect program consisting of patriotic music, remarks by Rev. Elliott, a solo by I. J. McAdams, and a whistling solo by Mrs. La Moine Clark, and recitations by Mrs. W. M. Siegmund served to pass the time pleasantly for those present.

The president of the corps, Mrs. Clara Gribble, feels indebted to all who helped to make this picnic a successful affair.

Mrs. C. T. Davis and daughter, Margaret, passed a few days in Salem this week visiting friends. They were en route to San Francisco, where Mrs. Davis' son Gordon is stationed.

Miss Jennie Hollister gave a farewell dinner Thursday evening for Miss Maude Hollister who left Friday morning for Malta, Mont. Covers were laid for six.

A delightful matinee line party was enjoyed Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Carl Burton Webb was hostess in honor of the eleventh wedding anniversary of Mrs. Frank Myers. Afterward the guests were served at the Sea, covers being laid for eight.

swells all the beaus as well as belles made of linen starched and pleated of fine texture.

Now I thought when just a child, though the theory now seems wild, that the reason they wore ruffs in that far day was because when Queen Bess said "Off with his" or "with her head," That the ruff would sort of help things in this way.

When the headman made the chop just below the ruff—kerflop—then the ruff around the head would make a frill like the frills we have to-day on our lamb chops when to stay there is company to dine and eat their fill.

Now these headmen you can see over-rough were bound to be while the chopped off heads were over ruff as well but I hope no one today will go off her head that way over ruffs or any other fashion spell.

In those days it is quite true that the men were ruffed up too and the greatest brains emerged from out the frill. Bill Shakespeare wrote his best, I am sure, when he was dressed in a ruff whereon he wiped his facile quill.

And when Drake and Raleigh sailed while the angry billows railed and the white and waves were rough, in linen fine, I've no doubt, they both stepped out on the deck and with a shout said: "I see you're rough, oh waves, do you see mine?"

Just fancy if today Shackleton should dress this way or Mr. Penny or old Dr. Cook. If H. G. Wells should write in a ruff he'd be a sight and I don't believe I'd buy his latest book. But 'tis needless thus to fret for the man have not as yet thrust their necks through fashion's yoke these present times. Just the women now the dears, are in ruffs up to their ears though they are quite sufficient for these rhyms.

Quite a problem for the stout, that they'll have to figure out, all this ruff wear seems to promise for the Fall. How an extra double chin is a-going to be tucked in is a thing I can't elucidate at all.

Think what quantities of lace, if you have a full moon face, it will take to make your ruff much fuller still. Yards and yards of muslin too, it will take to make into a frill, your fulsome face won't fully fill.

But whether thin or fat, it will be some art at that to learn to eat our victuals in a ruff. Spots of gravy or of soup will soon cause your ruff to droop. We have to use a stew for liquid stuff.

And how ever will we kiss? Did you ever think of this? For a stiff starched ruff 'n' no aid to osculation. For if you kiss a gent your ruff will sure get bent and that will also dent your reputation.

For thus your ruff will show like a record, don't you know, how oft you've yielded to the kiss temptation. Oh it's a going to be tough on all the loving stuff—Dan Cupid might as well take a vacation.

"Seventy-five members within the next two weeks," is now the slogan of the Dallas chorus, which is scheduled as the main attraction for the opening night of the Polk county fair, September 18. Under the direction of D. V. Puller the chorus is putting in some hard licks on special music, the Observer says.
