Record-Breaking Crowd Attended Polk Fair

(Capital Journal Special Service) Dallas, Or., Sept. 22.—The Sixth Annual Polk county fair came to a close Thursday with the largest crowd that was ever on the fair grounds. The attendance this year far exceeded that of other years and the gate receipts alone will go a long way towards paying off a number of premiums. That the fair this year was the biggest and best yet held is the opinion of every county resident who attended the three day exhibition and outsiders were also loud in their praises of the fine showing made. Miss Helen Cowgill of Oregon Agricultural College, in charge of the girl's industrial club work stated that "this is by far the best fair I have attended this year and I have seen most of them." The ideal weather conditions also helped to swell the attendance as people could come from distant parts of the county on account of the good condition of the roads. The exhibits are being moved to Salem today where they will be shown at the state fair next week.

Dallas Man in Portland Hospital. W. L. Soehren, superintendent of the Dallas Water Works System is confined in a Portland hospital where he is under the care of a specialist. Mr. Soehren recently underwent an operation and since that time has failed to recuperate as fast as he should. He is expected to return to his home in this city at an early date.

Hon. and Mrs. C. L. Hawley and daughter, Frances of McCoy were Dallas visitors this week attending the County fair.

Five ships out of 52 is a good large percentage, it is true. But the anti-bellum imagination was never satisfied with any such low score for the then untried submarine. Things are never quite so bad as when they are just going to be.

If things get much worse, the Siberians will be exiling their criminals to Russia.

The German government expresses regret over that Swedish trick, and there can be no doubt of the sincerity of the regret—that it got caught at it.
