The bands of matrimony heretofore existing between Francis O. Raltray and Archibald Raltray were severed periodically this morning at the instance of the former. The plaintiff is given the care and custody of the minor children Gertrude, Waldemar and Robert.

Mrs. J. E. Gleaser will organize classes in French, beginning October first, at her home 1150 N. 15th St. 9-29

Let us feel cheerful. A man who has been attending the state fair for the past 11 years, says it never rains on Salem day, and on the proposition that what has not happened may not happen, he figures that Wednesday the weather man will do the right thing.

The War Library booth at the state fair grounds tomorrow will be in charge of the women of the Patriotic League. Mrs. Enright is chairman of the committee and she will be assisted by the following: Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. John Maurer, Mrs. A. Fitch and Mrs. I. L. McAdams.

The thermometer of the War Liberty fund, which is expected to reach the top notch of $750 this week, is now recording funds amounting to $225. Several churches have given to the fund and the concert last evening given by Mrs. Alma Webster Powell netted $46.75. Very few children took advantage of Children's day at the grounds and the dime donations from the youngsters amounted to $2.95.

The benefit concert given through the generosity of Mrs. Alma Webster Powell at the fair grounds last evening netted the War Liberty fund $46.75. Before giving her recital Mrs. Powell told how the loves of the women in the several countries were exemplified in music and illustrated her talks by singing well known love songs from the Spanish, Hungarian, Italian and French. She will leave Wednesday for her home in New York city and later expects to sing for the soldiers in northern France.

There is an old saying that wheat is just as good as money. What's the matter with hogs? Steussloff Bros yesterday gave a check for $94.50, the figure paid an up-to-date farmer for two hogs. From all that could be learned of the transaction, it seems that the hogs were raised according to Hoyle as expounded at the O. A. C. The name of the man who raised the two hogs has been withheld, probably because he did not want to get in on the income tax that takes note of a man with an income of more than $2000 a year.
