Many Montana Men Have Failed to Respond

Butte, Mont., Sept. 27.—Desertions have made it impossible for a complete third quota, or 315 men, to leave for the cantonment at Camp Lewis, Tacoma, next week, the city exemption board admitted today. It is now too late to make another call, members of the board said.

"We have done the very best we could," one board member said. "If we cannot fill the quota next week we will send what men we can and try to make up the delinquency on the last contingent three weeks from now."

Other members of the board took the same attitude.

Twenty four hundred men have been called by the exemption board. Hundreds have failed to appear or have deserted after being called to mobilize.

MONTANA PIONEER DIES

Butte, Mont., Sept. 27.—Henry Adams, trail blazer, one of Montana's best known pioneer miners, is dead here today at the age of 75 years. He was one of the first men in the Last Chance creek stampede and made a fortune which he later lost.

And yet there are people who, when you mention the equinoctial storm, will say, "They ain't no such animal!"

Porter Killed by Recruits Has Come Back to Life

Missoula, Mont., Sept. 27.—James Harris, negro porter, whom the Butte draft contingent reported killed, is not dead. He was discharged from the Northern Pacific hospital here today.

Members of the Butte contingent jumped on Harris while the draft special was en route to Camp Lewis, Tacoma. He was taken from the train here. When the men arrived at Spokane they reported they had killed the negro.

Military authorities at Camp Lewis, Tacoma, are investigating the affair.

MITCHELL'S LEAD SMALL

New York, Sept. 26.—William M. Bennett, chairman of the Republican majority nomination, gained steadily but slowly on Mayor Mitchell today in the recount of votes cast in the primary election.

The mayor's lead over Bennett was reduced to 219 when the eleventh assembly district had been half counted. This is a net gain of 116 ballots for Bennett.

If Mr. Hoover were a vain man he would already have observed with chagrin that no babies are being named for him.

"OUTLAW LEAGUERS" MAY WIN FOR GIANTS

Four Former Federals Will Be In the Game Against White Sox

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press staff correspondent)

New York, Sept. 27.—By a routine kind of figuring it might be deduced that the forthcoming world's grapple between the Giants and the White Sox will be something of a test between the stars of the old Federal league and those of the American league.

Four former members of the "outlaw league" will be in action against the White Sox, but not a Federal grace the roster the national commission approved for the White Sox.

Fred Anderson, Benny Kauff and Bill Rariden were three of the big guns in the old circuit. Jimmy Smith also did some ball playing when Jim Gilmore was in baseball, but didn't class with the other trio.

Since last spring, this trio of Federals has done as much as any other triangle to boost the Giants into the pennant. Anderson's work has been of the relief kind, but mighty effective. Rariden has done the brunt of the catching, and Kauff's hitting almost kicked the Giants into a pennant without further help, for it has been his consistency and nerve that won crucial contests.

Comparison between Federal league players and those in the National and American leagues used to be common, but now the ex-Feds have done noble duty in the National, thereby being booked to show in competition against the Americans.

Scalpers Will Get Tamed

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Charles Comiskey, president of the White Sox, started out today to "strate the scalper."

He called on State's Attorney Hoyne, Police Chief Schuetler and Mayor Thompson to aid in putting a crimp in the boys who are trying to lay up a winter's supply of kate through bulling the market on world series tickets.

The White Sox boss was confident of the officials' co-operation, inasmuch as the scalper really is a "civic evil," he said.

The rule requiring fans to purchase tickets for three games is proving a boomerang. Thousands will be unable to see more than the first one or two games, and the management had just awakened to the fact that under the circumstances the fans just naturally will turn the coupons they can't use over to the scalpers.

Now, after the tickets have all been sold, Comiskey announces that any fan who can't attend all the games can get his money back by personally turning in the unused coupons at the gate. The question was raised today whether a man who could spare the time to turn in the coupon at the gate couldn't just as well see the game through.

Football Postponed

West Point, N. Y., Sept. 27.—The army will postpone opening of its football season. It was announced today middlebury college had declined to play Saturday and no team has agreed to take its place.

Gilbert Gets Title

Salt Lake City, Sept. 27.—Pat Gilbert of Salt Lake last night at Ogden took from Al Young of the latter city the lightweight championship of the inter-mountain states. Gilbert scored a clean knockout in the fifteenth round of a scheduled twenty round contest.

McAllister a "Has Been"

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 27.—Bob McAllister is only a shadow of his former self. Eight fans agreed today after seeing Jack Dempsey naut Bob around the ring in their four round bout last night, McAllister was far outclassed at all stages and frequently hung on to escape punishment.

Bay Player Wins

New York, Sept. 27.—Another ball-player won a moral victory over a New York baseball club, when the New York Giants announced today that the suspension placed on Charley Herzog, second baseman and captain, had been lifted.

Herzog will report to the club in Philadelphia.

have completed a vast tabulation of suspicious characters involved in munition and ship building works.

The Marine Island explosion sharpened the precautionary steps of the government and speeded up its action. A general demand by loyal and patriotic employees to be rid of alien suspects, aided in the great roundup, which began last night in New York.

Information in the hands of the government showing detailed plans formulated by German and Austrian agents for precipitating unrest in munition plants and ship yards, assisted the authorities in laying their hands on suspicious aliens.

Cleaning up Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 27.—J. J. Bradley, chief of the United States marshal's office here, today began rounding up alien enemies in Chicago who have failed to obtain permission to enter barred zones. He said about half of the 15,000 here were not registered.

Two hundred aliens had been taken to Bradley's office shortly afterwards, registered and allowed to depart.

Mayor of Chicago, "Sixth German City" Aspires to Senate

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Mayor William Hale Thompson last night announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for United States senator to succeed James Hamilton Lewis, democrat, at the primary election next September, basing his contest on the ground of giving the people of Illinois "an opportunity to vote on vital government policies, involving most precious rights of American citizens."

The announcement says: "I stand upon my record as a public official, my public addresses and my authorized public statements."

The mayor recently sued Chicago newspapers for attacks on him in connection with his stand in regard to the entrance of the United States into the European war and the draft law and his opposition to Governor Frank C. Lowden, who ordered the suppression of a peace meeting in Chicago.

Mayor Thompson has been quoted as saying that as mayor of the "sixth German city of the world" he yielded to none in patriotism, but that he "opposed the entrance of American armies into Europe and the drafting of Americans to fight on foreign soil." His statements declared that the majority of the people were with him in his stand.

Legless Newsboy Climbs to Mount Hood Summit

Portland, Dr., Sept. 27.—Joe Hardy, legless Portland newsboy, has climbed Mount Hood, according to word reaching to work reaching Portland today.

He rode as near the summit as possible on a horse and made the last lap of the trip on a small sled which was equipped with spikes to keep it from slipping back. He pulled himself up the mountain by means of a line extending down from the top.

Despite physical handicaps, Hardy made the trip up and back in the usual time.

This is a medicine that every family should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly, consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. A Berlin dispatch reports that it has been decided to melt down bronze statues for munition purposes. But what the non-Hun world is waiting for is the melting down of that wonderful wooden statue of Hindenberg.
