

For The Mother

Maternity is a woman's life that should be lived with extreme care. The safe, natural preparation, "Mother's Friend," has been prepared for over three generations, especially for expectant mothers. By its use stretching pains are avoided. The abdominal muscles relax easily when baby is born and this naturally makes for entirely less pain and danger at the crisis. Ask for a bottle at your drug store today and write for interesting free book, "Motherhood and the Baby." Simply address The Bradford Register Co., Dept. D, 340 Lamar Building, Atlanta, Ga. Do not go a single night without applying "Mother's Friend"; it is the greatest kind of help to nature.

SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

DR. AND MRS. GROVER C. BELINGER entertained informally on Tuesday evening with an artistically appointed dinner in celebration of the fifth anniversary of their wedding.

Covers for 14 were arranged about a table decked with lavender asters.

Mrs. Rudolph F. Prael and a party of Portland friends motored to Salem to attend the fair on Thursday and were the guests of Mrs. Prael's sister, Mrs. William H. Eldridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Griffin Murphy, prominent residents of Portland, were here for the state fair on Friday. Mr. Murphy is well known in Salem, having formerly lived here with his parents, who were among Salem's oldest and most prominent families.

Salem friends of Miss Genevieve Hailey, the charming young daughter of Mrs. Thomas G. Hailey, will be interested to know that she will arrive in Portland from San Francisco this week to visit her mother and to take a vacation from her studies.

The young artist has done some wonderfully interesting and original paintings of society folk in California.

Mrs. Eleanor Martin prominent society leader of the bay city also is planning to come north soon for a visit and may accompany Miss Hailey. Mrs. Martin has been active in entertaining the reserve officers of the training camp at the Presidio, and Miss Hailey has assisted her on numerous occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Terry of Portland, motored to Salem Saturday and were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton.

Mr. and Mrs. Plowden Stott were among the well known Portlanders at the races and fair on Saturday. They were guests at the Hotel Marion.

Mrs. H. H. Corey will be hostess for an informal afternoon on Thursday. Her guests will include a group of matrons who are members of the Public Service commission club, and have been gathering together for several seasons.

Roy T. Bishop was one of the party of Pendleton people here for the state fair, the latter part of the week.

The Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, will meet tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. L. S. Geer, 765 Marion street.

Of interest to college folk and also to a number of the younger contingent is the marriage of Ronald Mackenzie of Portland, who formerly was an Oregon man and is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mackenzie has claimed as his bride Miss Mildred Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry David Randall of Olex Oregon, who have large property holdings near some property owned by the bridegroom's father, Dr. Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie of Portland. It was while young Mackenzie was in the eastern part of the state looking after the business interests of some of these properties that he met and fell in love with the charming Miss Randall.

The marriage was solemnized at the Randall family home on September the twenty fourth. The couple will make their home in southern California where young Mackenzie is now located in business.

Mrs. G. W. Putnam has returned from Pendleton, where she has been visiting her daughter, Miss Margaret Putnam.

The physical examinations for the W. C. A. swimming classes will be held all day tomorrow at the association rooms. All of those who expect to take swimming or gymnasium and have not been examined are asked to report.

ly of peace when there can be no peace until the cancer which has rotted civilization in Europe is extinguished and destroyed forever—shall be silenced.

"I want to say here and now with due deliberation, that every pacifist speech in this country made at this inopportune and improper time is, in effect, traitorous. More than that, it means the needless sacrifice of many more American soldiers upon the battlefields and the expenditure of much more American treasure. Every such speech is an encouragement to the kaiser to fight harder and longer, and that means more American boys uselessly killed. The quicker we realize that, the better we shall understand what has got to be done in this war. We intend that freedom and democracy shall be made supreme throughout the world. America has to be made safe and secure for the future."

"There are two systems today which have got to be reckoned with. They cannot both live together in the civilized world. These two principles are autocracy, or arbitrary and despotic government, on the one hand, democracy, which breathes and lives because it exists upon the basis of a free people, on the other. These principles have clashed in this war.

"If the nations now at war with Germany were to make peace and leave the cause of the war still existent, it would be only a temporary truce. Civilization would again have to go through this terrible and frightful ordeal. And so it is essential now if the peace of the world is to be secured in the future, that this issue, which has been precipitated by this military autocrat, should be fought to a victorious conclusion. Either democracy must be triumphant or autocracy must rule the world."

McAdoo discussed the war preparation of the nation in detail and declared:

"The important things to do at the moment are to provide the sinews of war. What are they? Always, money. No class in this country can finance this war. Congress has decided these bonds shall be offered to all the people of the United States and this financing can be successfully done only by the co-operation of all the people."

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

benevolent attitude toward China, and the old misunderstandings probably would have continued to the end of a trans-Pacific conflict.

Viscount Ishii, one of Japan's shrewdest statesmen, however, has had the opportunity of looking America over in war time and the result has been to change practically overnight the fundamental basis of Japanese-American relations. By no possibility could the head of the Japanese mission have pledged his country to the open door in China, as far as the United States is concerned, without previous instructions from his government. It is apparent Viscount Ishii has been in intimate communication with Tokio since his arrival in the United States and his present pledge has all the authority of an official communication.

The American government has been vainly trying for years to secure from Japan just such public assurances. Count Ishii has now given. Governments operate their diplomacy by means of precedents and Viscount Ishii has established for Japan the most far reaching precedent in Oriental affairs since America first opened the question of the open door. Thus, by entering the war across the Atlantic, the United States has drawn assurances from Japan that carry a blow to jingoistic agitation for a Japanese-American clash.

second, Hal Paxton third and White Sox fourth.

Hal Paxton won the first heat. Then Lady Hui landed the next two heats, while Sue won the fourth heat. College Gent, until the fifth heat a rank outsider, captured the next three heats straight.

The 2:18 pace went to King Zolock in straight heats. Witt, driver of Daisy D., in the first two heats, aroused the suspicion of the judges when his mare trailed behind the field until near the finish of both heats and then landed #1 and place. With a warning that the appearance of the trotter in the third heat might mean suspension for life for Witt, Starter McNair took the horse away from Witt and turned her over to her owner, Charles Guyon. Her pacer in the last heat with Guyon driving was much the same as before, and after an explanation by Guyon that the mare was sick, Witt was not barred.

In the 2:22 trot Jetlock took the first heat, but Rose King outclassed him in the last two, Jetlock falling back to fourth place in the second heat and Perrio taking second.

The race which received the loudest hand from the grandstand was a one-

Court House Notes

In the suit of the Stayton Bank vs. H. N. Huntley and wife and Chas. Stahl and wife a decree was granted ordering the sale of certain mortgaged premises to pay the principal of a note for $1122 with interest from July 1915 at 8 per cent, for $56.75 taxes advanced, and for $150 attorney's fees.

Flora E. Smith has brought suit against Martin E. Smith and James G. Smith. She asks that the former be declared the half owner of a jewelry store in Silverton now run in the name of James G. Smith, for the return of a diamond ring or the payment of its value, $500, and that she be awarded the one third of Martin E. Smith's interest in the above named jewelry store. She asks further for $500 for prosecuting this suit and incidentally along with these other matters asks a divorce.

An answer was filed this morning in the suit of Winnie Springer against R. E. Lee Steiner, L. P. Griffith and F. W. Byrd. This is an action for damages for false imprisonment, the plaintiff claiming she was declared insane and imprisoned, when in fact she was perfectly sane. The answer is a denial specifically of all plaintiff's allegations except that the defendants were at the time in charge of the state asylum for the insane.
