Luxury Clothes?

Because the first cost of Kuppenheimer Clothes is sometimes a little more, we overheard a man refer to them as "luxury clothes."

If exclusive styling, the finest of wools and linings and long service are meant by the term luxury, the designation is correct.

But if the word is used to include the cost in the long run are not luxury clothes at all. They are true economy clothes. A Kuppenheimer suit will outwear a cheap suit two to one.

We offer these clothes at $22.50, $30, $35 and up. In these days you can't get quality for less. At these prices, we offer you the maximum in style fabric and fit obtainable anywhere.

To buy a second hand "Fitzner" or attempt to run down a street car, was the experience of H. H. Hamilton of Sheehy, Linn county. It seems that Mr. Hamilton bought his Ford in Portland and was hurrying home with his machine when he got tangled up with a street car yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He was driving at such a speed that he and the two other occupants of the car were thrown to the street and the front of the car pretty badly damaged. The injured ones were attended to by Dr. W. H. Byrd. The Ford was taken to the Vick garage for repairs and Mr. Hamilton and friends proceeded to Sheehy with the car. The street car was going south on Liberty and Mr. Hamilton was driving east on Court. He hit the street car on the rear vestibule.

Mr. Constable found the fruit this year to be free of brown rot and the dryers as a whole much cleaner than in former years. He reports a few new ones in the county and also several dryers that were not run as the owners found it more profitable to let others do the work.

W. L. Fuller, accompanied by his wife and son, are home from Jamestown, N. Y. where they have been spending the past year. Mr. Fuller was formerly in the printing business in Salem, but since his return has decided to locate on a ranch near Brooks. The eastern cities he says are busy places, especially where munitions are manufactured. The average manufacturer is having a hard time holding his working forces as the munitions and steel plants are offering extra high wages. Many men have been able to make $500 a month on piece work, Mr. Fuller says, and the average piece worker is pretty sure to draw down from $6 to $10 a day.

GREAT DRIVE STARTS FOR LIBERTY LOAN

Will Have to Subscribe $315,000,000 Daily for Two Weeks More

Washington, Oct. 15.—The second Liberty loan campaign today entered its closing two weeks with a "Paul Revere" message from President Wilson for a full $5,000,000,000 response that will echo throughout Germany as an index of American victory.

Tremendous efforts are necessary, officials stated, pointing to an unofficial subscription of only $700,000,000 so far. The official total is $399,654,000. Every one of the thousands of local committees has bent double tensely for a smashing effort in the final fortnight.

As an incentive for bond buyers, the treasury department announced that soldiers' insurance and dependents' allowance rest on the liberty loan subscriptions. With $315,000,000 worth of bonds required to be sold daily until October 27, new measures are being introduced to enthrall the people. The president has just proclaimed October 24 as Liberty loan day and called on the people to hold patriotic gatherings. The boy scouts launch their drive next Saturday simultaneously with "bombing" on many cities from flyers at army training camps. New orators and additional bond sellers will be thrown into the campaign.

Salem responded wonderfully to the contribution of papers and magazines for the benefit of the Red Cross. It is estimated that at least three car loads will be shipped. There seemed to be plenty of volunteers to collect the papers and everyone worked nobly Saturday. But the trying part of the work—that of separating old papers from magazines and tying them into packages found volunteers rather scarce. Hardly half a dozen assisted Mrs. Z. J. Riggs in the separating and weighing of the packages Saturday afternoon and although there was an urgent
