BORN

WRIGHT.—To Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wright, Oct. 19, 1917, a son.
He has been named Ronald Addison.
KREUSCHER.—To Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Kreuscher, of Portland, Oct. 25, 1917, a daughter.
The mother was formerly Miss Ruth White of this city.
Criminals generally take to the country roads and manage to live by begging from the generous housekeepers. A man wanted for murder committed in Portland last evening is supposed to be heading this way and police officials have been notified to look out for him. He is about 34 years old, five feet six inches in height, weight about 140 pounds, dark hair and dark eyes, resembles an Italian, hair cut short and in his clothing he may be carrying a revolver. About the best thing the housewife could do would be to notify the Salem police instead of giving him a meal. These men who are begging in the country for something to eat are generally criminals or hardened deadbeats, as there is plenty of work for any able bodied man.
Have you seen Company M in motion pictures? Now showing at the Oregon.
Although the first shipment of Christmas packets by the Red Cross must be shipped November 1, it seems that so far, there has not been a very generous response at Red Cross headquarters in the U. S. National bank building. The stores are displaying many things for the soldiers and if one happens to be in doubt as to what to send, any clerk will know what to suggest. Those who have Christmas packages ready and cannot deliver to headquarters, might telephone 1500, the Red Cross number, and the packages will be collected. The big thing is to hurry up with the packet and get it ready for the first shipment.

Herr Joseph Berkmann, of Bamp street, Ebenfeld, Germany, will not receive the letter addressed to him from Salem and mailed Oct. 22. The burial of Private Croshaw was the first in the new cemetery about a mile from Halls Ferry. Many beautiful floral offerings were sent by his comrades at Ft. Stevens and by Friends of the parents.
Hallowe'en parties are not complete without Holsum pumpkin pies, two sizes 10c and 20c, at your grocers.
Having read in the Capital Journal along with other things in the high cost of living was the advance in letter postal rates, one dear old lady living on one of Salem's rural routes told the mail carrier that she would like to buy $2 worth of stamps. Although she generally bought only 25 cents worth at a time, she felt it would be economical to invest $2 in stamps before the advance took place Nov. 2. The carrier finally convinced her that although it would cost three cents to mail a letter after Nov. 2, stamps were to be sold at the same old price.

Service That Is Guaranteed

ACCURACY in the science of optometry is quite as important as in mathematics, and skill and good judgment are as essential as in the practice of medicine.
THOROUGH TRAINING and long experience alone can assure these. The necessary equipment must also be complete.
THE SUCCESS of the work I do is evidenced by over sixteen thousand persons in Marion and Polk counties whose eyes I have examined and the commendation of most of the physicians of the city and county who do not do such work, who direct to me for examination patients whose complaints suggest possible eye strain.

GLASSES are exchanged for one year when necessary WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CHARGE. I guarantee satisfaction in every respect.

He will spend several days in our city. He is also renewing acquaintances with D. V. Wilson with whom he used to roam the prairies of Wisconsin.
Loan Pronounced Success
Washington, Oct. 27.—The second Liberty loan is a success.
A nation wide thrill at the news that the American troops are in the front line trenches at the push of the $5,000,000,000 goal, officials said tonight.
In the last 24 hours over a billion dollars in subscriptions were rolled up.
At 6 p. m., with the subscription books closing at midnight, the treasury estimated that the nation had passed the $4,500,000,000 mark.
The complete success of the campaign for $5,000,000,000 was regarded as assured. Patriotism, kindled by the news that Pershing's picked men had at last taken a crack at the Boches, was reflected from coast to coast in mounting reports of Liberty loan sales.
HIGH SCHOOL TIES CORVALLIS.
Corvallis and Salem High School football game at Corvallis today. Score, 0 to 0.
The man who loves horses and the woman who adores dogs and those who would like to take a trip through the Eden Musee of New York city, thoroughly enjoyed "The Whip" at the Liberty theatre last night. There are plenty of exciting scenes, all the way from love making to a rail road wreck and also the adventures of two girls being locked up in the Chamber of Horrors at the Eden Musee. "The Whip" is on today, closing Sunday night.
Three complaints have been filed by City Attorney Macy against persons accused of placing signs over the sidewalks without first obtaining permits. Ben Ling at the Western Union and Francis Bodenheimer who it is claimed has a sign over the sidewalk on Commercial between Court and State streets. The penalty is a fine of from $5 to $20, or imprisonment from two to ten days.
A junior high school student handed in the following report of a football game between Washington and Grant junior high. As it contains the unvarnished truth, from the viewpoint of the embryo reporter, it is printed verbatim: "Washington defeated Grant with a score of 24 to 6. Persons were hurt three times after which Nicholson took his place. Nicholson played the third quarter and then Persons took the field and made a brilliant touchdown. Jones, DeBord, Baggett and Van Orsdal played well. Grant gave Washington several yells which the latter would not return. One of Washington's men lost his shirt and Washington could not furnish him another."

Rush To Buy Bonds Gathers Force Today
The grand rush was on this afternoon at the banks to subscribe for 2d liberty bonds and the bank lobbies all resembled bargain counters. However, those who were a little late in getting in will be given one more chance this evening from 6 until 8 o'clock as all the banks will be open to receive subscriptions.
At the close of banking hours today the subscriptions were as follows:

U. S. National ..... 121,200
First National ..... 106,800
Salem Bank of Com. .... 63,600
Total ..... $519,700

WHAT WILL OREGON DO?
Portland, Or., Oct. 27.—At midnight tonight Oregon's second liberty loan campaign closes. What will the ultimate total be? In the hurry and security at Liberty loan headquarters no one can tell. Messages are all praying that in an eleventh hour outpouring of patriotism the people will rush to their banks and swing Oregon up to the required $30,000,000. To do this it will only be necessary for the counties that have not yet made their minimum quota to achieve their quota. The maximum counties and Portland will take care of the balance.
The official liberty loan total at noon was just over $21,000,000. Walla Walla county is the leading county in the state outside Portland with 100 per cent of its maximum. Lake county comes second with 83 per cent, Benton tags close behind with 71 per cent. The town of Powers, Oregon, heads the United States with five times its minimum quota and three times its maximum quota, an inspiration to the entire state.

J. W. Bolin and L. D. Waring city mail carriers are also good hustlers for Uncle Sam in another way. After business hours, they have been doing some work for the 2d Liberty bonds and so far, Mr. Bolin has received subscriptions for $3200 and Mr. Waring, for $2500, and both men are still going strong. The total subscriptions received by the post office employees amount to more than $7000.

A special car of land seekers will leave the Salem district on Monday, November 5th for Alberta. Those desirous of joining should communicate with C. W. Niemeyer, 544 State street, Salem, who has a number of excellent farms for sale on easy terms, and also one to trade for a ranch in the Willamette valley.
The funeral services of Stuart Close, the young man who died at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas, will be held next Monday at 2 o'clock from the First Baptist church. The services will be conducted by the Rev. George F. Hoyt and burial will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery. The services at the cemetery will be of a military nature with members of Via Juana in charge of A. A. Hall, commanding officer.
Harry Q. Mills, son of J. A. Mills of Salem is in Chicago studying music. In writing home, he notes the difference between the solemn and serious way of living on State street, Salem, and the making and roaring of State street, Chicago. He writes: "We used to think we were going some when we drove down State street in Salem with our old car at the rate of 20 miles an hour, but say, the people of Chicago walk that fast."
This is a hard luck story for the good housekeeper. Just as flour and bread were becoming standardized in price, comes the news that bananas, now a regular article of diet, are to advance in price. It seems the government took charge of several ships plying between New Orleans and Central America and recently called in all the remaining larger ships in the banana carrying trade to Central America and Jamaica. Hence, the smaller freight vessels cannot handle the business and although millions of bananas may spoil in Central America there will be a decided shortage of stocks in this country.
A total amount of about $10,000 worth of 2nd Liberty bonds were sold yesterday by the dozen or more workers making a city canvass under the direction of the steering committee, Walter A. Denton, W. A. Evans, and A. O. Hartmann. A committee of two went to Waldo Hills and after putting in an active day soliciting, returned in the evening with a total subscription of only $150. Mr. Denton says: "The people have too much conscience. There must be a change in the present mental condition towards the war, or there will eventually be a great loss of life and property."
