By ALINE THOMPSON

TO wind up the annual Y. W. C. A. membership campaign a delightful tea was given this afternoon at the association rooms, between the hours of 4:30 and 6 o'clock. It was a "membership tea", and during the tea hours many old and new members flocked to the attractive rooms to meet one another.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Ass I. Eoff, Mrs. Frederick H. Thompson, and Mrs. H. C. Epley.

Mrs. Fred H. Stewart had charge of the tea and the prettily appointed table was presided over by Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Mrs. Charles A. Park, directors of the Y. W. C. A.

Assisting in the serving were Mrs. George William Gray, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Mrs. John H. Scott, Miss Mabel Withycombe and Miss Grace Bea.

One of the gayest supper parties after the Country club dance Saturday night, was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Look at their apartments in the Court.

An artistic arrangement of golden fruits decked the prettily appointed table around which were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Dinmore and H. B. Tiekens of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Harry H. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Dr. and Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Mrs. Alfred Lovelace and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams, who came to Salem Saturday to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley for the opening of the Country club, returned to their home in Portland Sunday night.

Like most of the club members the Livesleys with their guests, spent the greater part of the day Sunday on the golf links.

Miss Mary Ethel Baker who has been visiting the Charles K. Spaulding family for a few days returned to her home in Eugene yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hand (Agnes McElroy) of Portland are receiving congratulations upon the advent of a son born, Friday, October the twenty sixth. The little fellow will be called Willis Frederick, the former name being in honor of his grandfather, Willis McElroy.

Dr. and Mrs. William Carlisle of Petrograd, Russia, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop since the Country club dance Saturday night, returned to Portland yesterday.

A group of young folk of Rosedale made merry Friday night at an informal party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Needham. Games were played and later the merriment was closed with refreshments.

Those participating in the festivity were Mrs. May Moore, the Misses Beryl Needham, Stella Blinston, Lesta Cook, Grace Chandler, Dorothy Taylor, Flora Turnbull, Messrs. Earl Needham, Albert Needham, Everett Stroud, Arthur Blinston, Harley Needham, Charlie Needham, Norman Alexander, Floyd Bates, Dudley Taylor, John Turnbull, Sol Taylor, Clifford Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crawford and two daughters, the Misses Beatrice and Opal Crawford, left Sunday night for Foster, Missouri, where they will spend the winter visiting relatives.

Tomorrow night a reception will be given at the Jason Lee church in honor of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ingalls.

All members of the church are invited to attend.

Plans are growing apace with the approach of the opening date for the big "Carnival of Nations" to be held at the armory Saturday, and from present indications it will stand out as the most interesting event in Salem's list of benefit functions.

The various auxiliaries of the Red Cross have been working and planning for several weeks, and from all indications the affair promises to be a huge success.

All of the allied nations will be splendidly represented, and the armory will be turned into a big carnival of fun for every one in town.

Taking Cathartics Every Day for Weeks Don't Cure Stomach Trouble

They do not eliminate the poisonous bile accretions from the system, so declares a leading Chicago stomach specialist. Often gall stones, cancer and ulcers of the stomach and intestines, auto-intoxication, yellow jaundice, appendicitis and other dangerous ailments are the consequences. Crisis is Near Washington, Oct. 30.—The turning point in the great struggle between General Cadorna's Italian forces and the invading Teutons on the plains of North Italy will come within a week, official Rome cables declared today. It will take Cadorna at least six or seven days to withdraw to the Tagliamento line and consolidate his forces there, the cables say. By that time heavy reinforcements from the allies, both in men and munitions, are expected to check the Huns.

To prevent organized preparation for a turn on the Teutons, however, von Mackensen is forcing his troops day and night. Kaiser Wilhelm is expected to join Emperor Karl at the front immediately to urge further haste. All dispatches indicate Germany is playing her last trump card in an effort to force an end of the war through Italy.

It is officially declared here that political conditions in Italy are improving under the crisis. The leading Italian newspapers are calm, the cables show.

"It is too early to describe the result of the struggle," says the Ida Nazionale. "It is now Italy's duty and honor to sustain this big offensive. And she is doing so with perfect confidence that she will be able to show herself worthy of her destiny, and the confidence of her allies."

Italy's cabinet, crisis, official cables said, has been virtually settled under demands for instant action to repel the Hun invaders. Sonnino will be retained as minister of foreign affairs, with Bissolatti and Nitti holding important portfolios under Prime Minister Orlando.

ITALIANS FIGHT

ITALY STILL CONFIDENT

By John H. Hearley
(United Press staff correspondent)
Rome, Oct. 30.—All Italy is confident the military situation will clear in a satisfactory fashion within the next two or three days. Complete confidence was expressed today in General Cadorna's plans for a stand which will halt the great Germanic invasion.

Austria has been forced to promise Trieste to Germany as the price for the Prussian aid in the drive, according to well authenticated Swiss reports received here.

"Our enemies are probably playing their last card," commented the newspaper Tribuna today. "A battle which is developing and which may occur on the Friuli plain may be decisive for the whole continent."

"Even if the center and the Julian wing are compelled to withdraw, this will have no final consequences," said the Popolo d'Italia.

"We are steadfast and ready to reject with scorn any attitude creating difficulties with the directing powers," said the Observatore Romano.

May Change Course of War

London, Oct. 30.—Italy's invasion may change the whole war plan of the allies. The tremendous success gained by the Mackensen war machine is spurring the allies to the greatest efforts to help their ally, two of whose arms its now seem to have been broken by the blows of the Teutonic forces.

As evidencing effect of the Italian debacle on the general war plans of the entente, the greatest significance was attached today to an article in the Pall Mall Gazette which that newspaper emphasized as from authoritative sources.

"At this moment of the utmost gravity to the whole alliance," the article declared, "it is a test of strength and ability to strike together. It is no longer a question of major and minor fronts—the front in which the danger is greatest and where the advantages of a speedy, definite smashing return blow can produce the best results."

"The whole war is in the balance. The decisive moment should be seized without fear, delay or reservation."

General Cadorna is expected to make his stand on the Tagliamento line. Until that front is reached London does not expect any other than news of sweeping German successes. Today military experts were prepared to hear of the Italian evacuation of Udine.

The main apprehension here was that if the Isonzo front has completely advanced, it will be an exceedingly difficult matter to delay the German advance sufficiently to prepare the Tagliamento line for the tremendous blow it is believed this front must withstand. Before the "last stand" is reached, however, it is likely the effect of strong allied resistance may be felt.

Not one newspaper today minimized the danger of the Italian situation. All agreed the German victory means several months' continuation of the war.

Best information from Italian, as well as Swiss sources, put the number of Mackensen's invading troops at 500,000. Practically every one of these—certainly all the German troops—were drawn from the Russian front. So were most of the thousands of guns with which the Teutons literally blazed their way forward.

The German activity around Roma recently is now explained as a heavy effort to draw attention there to make the allies believe that a concentration of German forces for a land drive on Petrograd was in prospect.

The German artillery concentration was over a front of about twenty miles according to German newspaper correspondents. Its intensity has not been approached heretofore on the Italian line. Not only that, but the Germans turned loose thousands of tanks of a type of poison gas entirely new to the Italians and which the Italian gas masks did not properly filter.

Italy has apparently checked the rapid progress of the German armies on the Venetian plains, but they were still advancing today, taking more Italian villages.

the new cabinet. Entente military men here make no attempt to conceal general chagrin felt at allied misjudgment of Italy's needs and Germany's strength.

It is now too late for this country to send munitions needed by Italy, but France and England are expected to get vast supplies to Cadorna immediately. The twenty five ships turned over to Italy by the shipping board when the great Teuton drive started cannot begin to deliver their cargoes within a month, officials say.

NOTRE DAME TO PLAY WEST POINT SATURDAY

Looks Bright For Army—Some Other Big Games Are Commented On

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 30.—On the plains of West Point, they'll take an afternoon off Saturday and put on the big service exhibition of the year. Notre Dame's husky football eleven will be the opponents of Elmer Oliphant that afternoon and army's hardest test is certain to develop in the first big contest between east and west this season.

East and west tangles in this football year are going to be skimpy. With the traditional big games out of it, casting for all-American material is going to be heavily endowed with consideration of western favorites. The coming game should be productive of a great deal of comparative study.

Notre Dame fell before Nebraska and then smothered the heavy South Dakota eleven. Michigan walloped Nebraska. Aerial attack has even been the forte of Notre Dame, but the fact that Nebraska was able to call a halt on these tactics speaks well for the army's chances. If anything, the army's versatile style of play should be even more effective against the Indiana eleven than was Nebraska. For the Cadets always have had some few shucks at open tactics themselves. And, in Oliphant, they have one of the greatest line smashers.

The following Saturday, Michigan, given credit for being the greatest Michigan bone crusher in recent years will visit Philadelphia to play Pennsylvania university. Thus, two of the week's finest will be in action on eastern fields within two weeks Pittsburgh already has been among those present with disastrous results appended to the outcome for the opposition.

No Change in Basket Ball.
New York, Oct. 30.—The war will have no effect on playing rules this winter in the intercollegiate basketball league. Delegates from Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Cornell, Columbia and Dartmouth decided at a meeting here not to allow freshmen players on five in the league.

Rowland to Manage White Sox.
Chicago, Oct. 30.—EXTRA! President Comiskey announces there will be no change in the White Sox management next year.

This startling information was elicited from the Old Roman today, following his return from a ten days sojourn in the wilds of Wisconsin, where he was host to the Woodland Birds.

Comiskey admitted that even if it did take Clarence Rowland six games to wallop the Giants in the world's series, he was going to give the "lush-cr" another chance next season.

The White Sox boss also said the team would train again in Mineral Wells, Tex., providing the natives there coax a little grass to grow on their bald-headed diamond. Otherwise, he intimated San Antonio will be given the opportunity to entertain his club next spring.

New York and Boston fans will rejoice at the news that Comiskey has definitely turned down a proposition to take a joint exhibition trip with either the Giants or Braves during spring training.

COUNT VON HARTLING BECOMES CHANCELLOR OF GERMAN EMPIRE

Dr. Georges Michaelis Has Been Shifted to Post of Prime Minister, Report

London, Oct. 30.—Count von Hertling has been named German chancellor and the present chancellor, Dr. Georges Michaelis, has been shifted to prime minister of Prussia, according to an Amsterdam dispatch by the Wireless Press today.

Count von Hertling is at present premier of Bavaria. Recent dispatches have mentioned him repeatedly as being under consideration as German premier. He is now in Berlin, having arrived for a conference with the kaiser on Sunday.

Von Hertling is a pan-German and junker supreme. He is one of the oldest statesmen and has repeatedly given evidence of arrogant contempt for all government for the people.

Dr. Michaelis, by virtue of his present office as chancellor, has also been "minister president," or premier, of Prussia. If the above dispatch is confirmed, the change simply means that Michaelis is demoted from his place as a German statesman, but will retain his job in the Prussian ministry.

Large Recessions In Wall Street Today

New York, Oct. 30.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

A substantial accumulation of selling orders over-night and lack of buying power to meet them readily caused further recessions of large proportions in today's stock market. At midday the trading died down and a definite stiffening tendency developed, after losses had run from one to six points in both the industrial and railroad departments. Prices gradually climbed back toward the Monday closing level, but business was sluggish to a degree and pointed to a scarcity of supply rather than to buying initiative.

Despite anxiety over the Italian situation and hesitation which invariably precedes the quarterly meeting of the United States Steel directors, scheduled for today, after the close of the market, sentiment in Wall Street was materially better than yesterday.

William Howard Taft could have been a much better president, but his support of the administration of the man who knocked his presidential eye out shows he could not be a better patriot.

A DRESSY LOOKING SMOCK—It is a pity that so many women consider the smock a strictly home or sport garment, for it has infinite possibilities as a graceful street or "dress up" garment if executed in fabrics suitable for street or dressy occasions. The design here shown would be lovely executed in silk, satin or soft velvet, with pockets and yoke decoration of rich embroidery, and collar and sleeve facings of a vivid contrasting color. For home wear, any cotton material could be used, with gay cretonne trimming.
