A farmer driving his auto down the hill going north on Commercial street apparently was so pre-occupied in figuring on the high price of farm products that he did not hear the warning bell of the Oregon Electric. The result was that the auto ran into the moving train, fortunately not damaging either the auto or injuring its occupants.

Jazz dance, jitty dance, jazz dance, Moose hall, jazz dance Sat. night. The glad new day it at the door, Hear Chandler of Portland, Or.

The body of William Foley who died at his home in Portland was brought to Salem today for burial at the Hayesville cemetery. A Roman Catholic priest accompanied the body from Portland. The funeral services were held in Portland this morning. He was 31 years old and is survived by a wife. He was a member of the Railroad Trainmen and the Loyal Order of Moose.

Special jitty dance Moose hall Sat. night. Admission 10c.

God has promised a glorious day. Hear Chandler at Moose hall Nov. 4, 3 p. m.

Should one happen to have on hand a supply of postal cards, the investment is not a total loss. All that is now necessary to make the card travel in the mails is just to stick on a one-cent stamp. Today the purple stamp is the right thing for letters not weighing more than one ounce, coming back after an absence of thirty years or more.

Dance at Cotillion hall Sat. eve.

Season ticket reservation for the lyceum course tomorrow, armory, 8 a. m.

Salem will serve breakfast to about 250 men on their way to Camp Lewis Monday morning, according to a wire received by William Gabel, chairman of the Canteen committee of the Red Cross. Albany will serve three troop trains tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday, the men numbering about 1132.

For the purpose of facilitating matters in the way of handling patients, Dr. O. L. Scott, with offices in the U. S. National bank building, has recently acquired one of the Palmer Hyle adjusting tables, manufactured by the Palmer School of Chiropractic.

The Oregon has arranged to show only the biggest productions obtainable, which will be shown at every change in the week. The entire output of Arctcraft, Paramount and Metro have been contracted which the average picture fan knows is the biggest and best. In most cities and towns you will pay 20 to 50c for the same show and the people of Salem should gladly pay only the extra war tax for production of this kind.

In regard to the price of beans: The best intimation that has come is that the government will soon announce the price it will pay but the jobber can do as he pleases, provided there is not a suspicion of too much profit or hoarding of food supplies. It is thought that Uncle Sam will pay 11-1/2 for the hand-picked Michigan beans; 11 cents for the best California small white and probably about 10 cents for the Oregon bean. Of course, just at present it is anyone's guess.

Announcement is made that Bishop Sumner of the Episcopal church will be married January 1, 1918 to Miss Myrtle Mitchell of Negaunee, Michigan. The ceremony will be solemnized by the Right Rev. C. P. Anderson, Bishop of Chicago and the ceremony will take place in the cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul, Chicago, where Bishop Sumner was ordained to the priesthood. Bishop Sumner is well known in Salem having visited several times and officiating at the services of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

There were big things doing in the political line in October one year ago and it costs money to mail thousands of political pamphlets and instructions to voters. For this reason the receipts of the Salem postoffice were larger for October of one year ago than this year. The figures for the month just past are as follows: Receipts from stamps sold, $5098.30; receipts from stamps sold to district offices, $564.39; from second class matter, $123.88; from third and fourth class matter, $85.74; from box rent $161.29; total $6875.60. One year ago for the month of October when the political pot was boiling, the receipts were $11,295.23.

Since the women are now voting and taking so active a part in the affairs of the world, there has been the opinion that the women would be the first to adapt themselves to changing conditions from the standpoint of the government's necessity. But now comes word from those who have been handling conservation cards, that it is the woman who is displaying hostility to even receiving suggestions from the national food commission. The pledge cards in the front window of the home will soon

PERSONALS

A. M. Dalrymple of MacLeay was in the city yesterday. George H. Minty was a Portland visitor Thursday, registered at the Palace hotel.

Dr. E. E. Fisher is home from Chicago this morning, where he attended the Clinical Congress of Surgeons of North America.

Mrs. Ella Watt, supreme instructor of the United Artisans for Oregon, is in the city for a few days.

George Hills of Salem was in Portland yesterday registered at the Perkins.

The suit of J. E. Payne against E. S. Martin is on trial before Justice Webster this afternoon. The action is brought to recover a balance alleged to be due on a bill of $29.55 for plowing done for defendant. There is no jury and the decision will be up to his honor, the judge.

A. E. Clark, bandmaster at the Oregon State penitentiary will put on a minstrel show at Aumsville on the evening of Saturday, Nov. 10. The show is to be given by the public school at Aumsville to raise funds to buy a piano. Mr. Clarke is an experienced show man and musician.

John Smith who escaped from the prison along with five others in August 1915, while working in the flax fields, has been arrested at Omaha and an official will be sent at once to return him to the prison.

Mr. J. E. Dean and daughter and Mrs. R. E. Cooper and two sons are in the city and will probably remain for several months. They are from South Dakota and were looking for a climate where the weather was not mixed up with blizzards and twenty below zero. Hence they came to the Willamette valley for the winter.

Members of the Elk lodge who attended the session last evening were well pleased with the singing and acting of Mrs. Blanche Burritt of Portland, the vaudeville artist. Every number including the encores were enthusiastically applauded. Miss Kathryn Wren, as accompanist added greatly to the effectiveness of the songstress.

Klarkowsky's famous and celebrated jazz orchestra will give a Thanksgiving dance at the armory Thanksgiving eve, November 28. Besides the pleasure of dancing, there will be the anticipated pleasure of drawing the lucky number that will entitle someone to carry home a real Thanksgiving turkey. The turkey is guaranteed to weigh 15 pounds and the band will play the genuine jazz music.

New books at the city public library cover a variety of subjects. For instance the reader will find all sorts of new ones on food conservation. Among the new books is, "History of the Medieval Art," and a couple of books for the student, entitled, "Electrical Equipment," and "Wiring for Light and Power." Those interested in church work may call for "Education in Religion and Morals" and "The Bible as Good Reading." And there is even a book on fortune telling by cards.

The work of paving Washington street from Liberty to Fir streets was completed last evening. The work has been under way for a couple of months, the grading being a slow job on account of the number of boulders most of which required blasting in order to get them small enough to be handled. The street however will not be open for traffic for a week or two, as the paving is concrete which requires time to "set."
