OLD BILL BOOZE THROWS UP SPONGE

By George Martin (United Press Staff Correspondent) Washington, Nov. 1.—'Old Bill Booze' went splashing out of Wash- ington two hours ahead of his 12:01 a. m. schedule today in a disgracefully quiet and orderly manner. The nation's capital is dry for the first time in history.

All of the bulbous-nosed old boy's friends awakened this morning, it at all, thoroughly ashamed of him. Twenty of the capital's most sincere drinkers were all that could get hysterical enough to be arrested. The police department was frankly disappointed.

More than one veteran, flabbergasted and grieved at being served a smidging of gin and a sniff of French vermouth for a dry martini, gasped, choked, glared and went home—and—at 10 p. m. Every erstwhile walking libation lover in Washington agrees today that when things have reached the point where a man can't get decently gay on "last night" celebrations because there isn't enough to "go round" it's nearly time to quit anyhow.

The "dry" boys today are very happy. They say that while the saloon business departed during the night, taking with it $500,000 a year in taxes, $15,000,000 in cash receipts, 2,000 white collar jobs and 900 saloon porterships, it's all right and everything will be "lovely."

Senator Shepherd, father of the district dry law, and here all the way from Texas to show booze the door, said the $15,000,000 will be more than replaced by savings bank accounts and clothes and food for women and children. The 2,000 jobless have gone to war work for the government or sought solace and sheekles elsewhere.

The first annual open golf tournament, the first play will be held at the Ilihu Country club next Sunday, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning. Teams have been invited from the golf clubs of Pendleton, Medford, Eugene, the Portland Golf club and the Waverly club of Portland.

While the Pendleton and Medford clubs may not be able to send teams, there is the assurance that representative teams from the other clubs invited will be on hand to compete for the two cups offered.

The first play is an open to all, while for the second cup, members of the Portland clubs will be excluded. Fred Thielson is chairman of the tournament committee, assisted by Chauncey Bishop and Arthur Hultehusen.

Now that the country club house has been completed, there is every evidence that the social life of the city will center more and more at the club house and grounds.

Mount Angel, Or., Nov. 2.—A masquerade ball was given at the Parish hall Tuesday evening. About 80 people were masked, Indians, Chianmen, cavaliers of the 18th century, Milkmaids, Clowns, paper dolls, old fashioned ladies, Scotch Highlanders and even Uncle Sam and Santa Claus were there. The grand mare was led by a bride and groom. Huge baskets of apples and cookies were passed and everyone aged it was an immensely enjoyable evening.

Notice to Smokers

On account of the new revenue bill which increases the tax on cigars, and the greatly increased cost of leaf tobacco, boxes and labor, it is necessary for us to raise the wholesale cost of LaCorona Cigars to a figure where the retailer must sell them for 10 cents straight.

This increase takes effect today. We guarantee to maintain the high standard of quality which has made the LaCorona the leading 10 Cent Cigar, and solicit your continued patronage.

of the Eastern Star auxiliary, Mrs. F. E. Shaefer, chairman. English plum pudding will be the attraction here and the ladies will all talk with the proper English pronunciation.

India will be represented by the ladies of the First M. E. church auxiliary, Mrs. John H. McNary, chairman. Buns and other things good to eat and English tea will be served. The costumes are of India.

The Italian booth is in charge of St. Joseph's auxiliary, Mrs. A. A. Mielke, chairman. Spaghetti will be served for ten cents and it may be taken with the fingers in true Italian style. A little Italian girl in costume will sing and dance.

The ladies of the First Christian church, Mrs. C. J. Olmstead, chairman, will have charge of a booth representing Belgium. They will show a vegetable market and sell several things in the way of eatables.

France will be represented by the women of the Ilihu club, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, chairman. They will appear in the latest French costumes and will serve French delicacies. Parlez vous Francais, wee, wee.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will care for the Colonial booth. Coffee and tea will be served and the minut will be danced by several boys and girls, all in costume. Mrs. J. G. Heltzel is chairman of this auxiliary.

It will cost only five cents to kiss the Blarney stone and only a dime to wish in the wishing well of Ireland. It is the Nemo auxiliary that will be in charge of the Ireland booth, serving big baked potatoes and other dishes suggestive of the Emerald Isle. Mrs. H. H. Olinger is chairman of this auxiliary.

Of course the Scotch booth will be represented by the Presbyterian auxiliary, Mrs. H. J. Bean, chairman. Scotch bread of the genuine kind will be served here. Haida will be the prevailing decorations.

The United States or the Uncle Sam booth will be in care of the Woman's Relief Corps auxiliary, Mrs. F. B. Southwick, chairman. They will serve genuine Boston baked beans, brown bread and American staple food. There will also be a tableaux.

The Honor Girls will have the honor of representing Holland and they will come dressed in the real Holland costumes. Mrs. C. E. Bases is chairman of this auxiliary. They will sell aprons.

The Salem Hospital will be represented and will have a booth of its own, showing the needs of such a hospital and calling attention to the fact that at present, Salem has the worst hospital facilities of any city of its size in the northwest.

Japan with its "real Japanese girls" and others costumed in the colors of the Orient, will be represented by the Three Links auxiliary. Mrs. U. S. Dotson, chairman. Tea and rice and other foods suggestive of the other side of the Pacific will be served.

The Egyptian booth will be in care of the Woman's Club auxiliary. Mrs. A. H. Dodd, chairman. Here is where ladies will tell fortunes for ten cents a tell.

The Scandinavian booth will have Mrs. W. E. Anderson in charge. The big attraction of this booth will be the singing of Mrs. D. A. Olson of Silverton. She has been well named "The Silverton Nightingale."

And there will be a circus, in charge of the Junior auxiliary, Miss Mabel Withycombe, chairman. These young ladies will live in a tent and there will be a shooting gallery and pink lemonade.

The State Hospital auxiliary, with Mrs. F. E. Cornell, chairman, have a regular show entitled, "The Carnival Comedy Company". Entrancing singing and dancing girls will perform on a real platform. And above all, there is Madam Fatima, the Armenian dancer who will dance in an Armenian costume. The show is said to be worth at least 50 cents, but for this occasion only, the price of admission has been reduced to the sum of only one dime.

The Argentine booth is in charge of the Pythian Sisters auxiliary. Mrs. W. R. Summerville, chairman. Orange water with home made cookies will be served and also the old reliable ice cream cones. Miss Elizabeth Levy, the violinist, will play.

The Welsh booth, Mrs. A. L. Johnson in charge, will place on exhibit Welsh novelties and relics. There will be singing by a quartette in charge of Prof. T. S. Roberts.

Willamette University auxiliary, Miss Beatrice Walton, chairman will show all kinds of college pennants.

At times during the carnival there will be music by a trio, Miss Catharine Carson on the harp, Miss Mary Shostle violin and Henry Lee on the cello.
