

ANY TIRE

Gives More Miles on Firestone Rims

FIRESTONE Rims are another example of Firestone leadership. If all cars were equipped with Firestone Rims, motorists would save millions of dollars a year. Tires now worn out unevenly and prematurely on squeaking, wobbly rims would give more miles of service and infinitely more satisfaction to owners.

Only Rim Made by Tire Maker

Firestone long ago realized that a good Rim was essential to tire satisfaction. The market was searched and none was found. So Firestone went into the Rim business that car owners might have a 100 per cent rim. Time has proven that tire men can build the best Rim.

Changed His Name to Get Into Army Is Killed by Gas

Tacoma, Nov. 8.—Ernest Rawlins, a Tacoma, has been killed on the battlefield of France in an enemy gas attack. Word to this effect came to Rawlins' sister, Mrs. E. A. Anderson, today, just as she was packing a box of cakes to send to him, and reveals a dramatic story of a Boer war veteran who assumed a false name in order to get into the Canadian army, after having been rejected once at Vancouver. When he heard that his brother had been killed at the front, Rawlins went to eastern Canada and succeeded in enlisting under the name of Edward McKeenan. Mrs. Anderson received a letter from her brother a few days ago, in which he asked her to send him "some of those fine cookies you make." She was complying with this request when word came of his death.

Certain Cure for Croup
Mrs. Rose Middleton of Greenville, Ill., has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."

TWO HUNGRY STRIKERS STICK TO IT 72 HOURS MAY BE FED FORCIBLY

Women Object to Food Conservation and Diet of Pork, Coffee and Cabbage

Washington, (Nov. 8.)—The hunger striking woman's party militants, Alice Paul and Rose Winslow, entered the seventy second hour of their starvation fight today. So far as known jail officials have not yet kept their threat of forcible feeding.

While party leaders bombarded the district commissioners with letters and demands, arrangements were made for a great picketing demonstration before the white house on Saturday.

The non-militant National Woman suffrage association has arranged for a delegation of newly enfranchised New York women, flanked by non-voters from Ohio and Indiana, to meet the president tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Paul and Miss Winslow, in the first protracted hunger strike in this country's history, are held incommunicado in the district jail here. Jail officials refuse information regarding their condition, although sister militants declare Miss Paul must be very weak from lack of food.

The strike is "a matter of eggs and milk," said woman's party headquarters. Miss Paul claims the other suffrage prisoners in the jail are being starved and broken in health by the bread coffee pork and cabbage diet.

Mrs. William Kent, wife of the ex-congressman from California, wrote a scathing denunciation of jail officials to Commissioner Gardner.

Suffragists are outside the jail trying to speak to Miss Paul through the barred windows. Since she spoke to her sister, Miss Helen Paul, the woman's party leader has not been heard from.

Jail Superintendent Zinkham said: "If these women don't eat, it's their own fault. I have nothing else to say. When I am ready to talk, I'll talk."

Father Buck Will Leave This Week for Salem

A large congregation attended services at the Catholic church Sunday, the occasion being a farewell to Rev. Father Buck, who leaves Forest Grove to take up the duties as pastor of Salem and Catholic chaplain to the various state institutions at the capital. Father Buck sang the high mass and the choir was augmented by members from the Cornelius choir, directed by Mrs. Lucy Sous, Rev. Father Van Clarenbeck of Verbano, preached the sermon which was able and fitting. He reviewed some of the work the retiring pastor has done in the eight years since he came to Forest Grove as pastor, the building of the three churches, at Cornelius, Forest Grove and Gaston respectively, speaking of the spiritual growth also which has been most gratifying, and then mentioned the love of the people for their pastor which has always been in evidence. This love, he said, had been shown by the presenting of a handsome gold chalice from Forest Grove, a well filled purse from Cornelius, and a fine silk umbrella from the altar boys.

Not only do the Catholics regret the removal of Father Buck, but his hosts of non-Catholic friends as well, while appreciating the honor the promotion has conferred upon him, are sincerely sorry to have him leave; for Father Buck has not been narrow in his circle of kindness. From whatever quarter the cry has come, he has been ready to respond with charity for the needy and repentant, sympathy for the afflicted and consolation for the bereaved.

ANOTHER LOST DOG.

Gervais, Or., Route 2, Nov. 5, 1917.
Capital Journal:
Would you care to favor some one, who has lost a dog, by printing an ad in your paper gratis, unless the owners appear to pay for it, and your trouble. White with large black spots on his back, and tan spots around his head. A hunting dog, I think. Somebody's pet. Came to a home near Wacanda on October 28th, the owner can be informed by inquiring at the Journal office, paying for the ad and trouble, etc. Of course I do not wish to pay for the ad. It is all up to you. If you care to, some one might be glad to reward you. The dog is staying at my neighbor's, send the owner to me and I will be glad to pay you. I have not been appointed yet—Washington County News-Times.

Service in France Blots Out Record

Portland, Or., Nov. 8.—Blotting out a penitentiary record with a smear of German blood, C. H. Draucker, escaped convict, will return to Oregon and ask for a pardon, he announced in a letter received here today by J. W. Minto, former warden of the state prison.

"I had a booking at your hotel for from one to ten years," Draucker writes. "I left rather suddenly and went to Canada. I enlisted in the artillery and came overseas. Was in France seven and one-half months and was gassed at Lens. Am now in convalescent hospital."

"I am a reformed man now and expect a pardon from the state of Oregon. I have done my bit and am entitled to a pardon. I have killed a great many Germans."

He adds he suffered more in France than in the Oregon state prison.

Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nigger, Misses Gertrude, Hilda and Alice Heyden, Carl Heyden, John Nigger, Kasper Nigger, Emma and Ruth Nigger, Mrs. Elsie Simpkins, Master Kermit Simpkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. The Orange club will be held in the auditorium of the public library.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized on Saturday night when Miss Martha Heyden became the bride of Henry J. Nigger at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Heyden, near Livesley, Rev. A. Hawthorne performing the ceremony.

The bride's sister, Miss Gertrude Heyden, was maid of honor, and John Nigger, a brother of the groom was best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Ethel Hall Frazier, Mrs. A. Hawthorne sang during the ceremony and later Mrs. H. B. Carpenter sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was gowned in white satin combined with silk lace.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

Mrs. Nigger is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Heyden, and has been active in church work, having for several years been a teacher in the primary Sunday school.

The groom has farming interests in Polk county where he and his bride will make their future home.
