CARD OF THANKS

We most sincerely thank all who assisted in the funeral of Mrs. Mabel Reynolds, our late wife and sister, and especially would we thank the management and attendants at the state hospital for the extreme kindness shown during sickness, and also we appreciate the many beautiful floral offerings of friends.—P. W. Reynolds, LaVerna Finlay.

The Woodmen of the World will hold a stag social this evening at their lodge rooms in the Derby building. To a certain extent the social is for the purpose of reminding members that now is the time of year to attend lodge and also of the fact that the lodge will have something doing this winter of interest to all. The meeting tonight is for members and visiting brothers. Refreshments will be served.

Joseph Fliegel, aged 63 years, died at his home in Portland yesterday. He is survived by four children, Mrs. A. J. Thorsvig and Marie Fliegel, of Portland and Joseph and Rudolph Fliegel of this city. The funeral was held at Portland this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Joseph Fliegel is the circulation manager of the Capital Journal, and was present when his father passed away.

Several days ago while traveling in his auto from Madison to E street going south, Henry Vandervort was overtaken by the speed cop who figured out that according to is speedometer, Mr. Vandervort was hitting it up to the tune of 32 miles an hour, all of which was contrary to the by-laws and constitution of the city of Salem as defined in the traffic ordinances. A complaint was filed charging Mr. Vandervort with breaking the speed law and he was invited to appear either in person or by his attorney and explain to the chief.

The mere fact that no housekeeper has not been called on to sign the food administration's pledge card is no excuse for not having one on display, said a prominent food administration advocate this morning. Through solicitation an especially with the help of the school children, an effort was made to place every housekeeper on record as either for or against the government. However, those who have the right spirit and would like to pledge cards to display may get one by going to the Commercial club where after signing the pledge, they will be given a card. The housekeeper is either for or against, and there isn't any middle of the road.

McElroy's Dance Postponed Until November 17th

McElroy's popular Jazz band will not put the "pop" in Salem tomorrow night, as was formerly advertised, but has been postponed until a week from Saturday, November 17th, owing to the remodeling of the armory, of which the balcony has been declared unsafe. However, Mr. McElroy declares he has a number of new dance stunts up his sleeve and that on Saturday, November 17th, he intends to give the people of Salem one of the best dances of the season with music by one of the best Jazz bands on the coast.

More Complicated

San Francisco, Nov. 9.—Attempts at settlement of the telephone strike became vastly more complicated today when a telegram was received from W. F. Delaney of Seattle, representing striking northwestern employees of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, was announced, flatly refusing to heed the appeal of Mediator Verner Z. Reed or the order of the international officers to return to work.
