ONLY ONE REAL GAME LEFT FOR THIS SEASON

Expert Says This Is Contest Between Cornell and Pennsylvania

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press staff correspondent)
New York, Nov. 19.—There is only one real bright spot in the remainder of the eastern football season, and that is the coming contest between Cornell and Pennsylvania on Thanksgiving day. Cornell's chances, according to the dopesters, have faded into nothing since Pennsylvania overturned the dope and mothered Michigan Saturday.

The probability of a real football champion being reared in the troubles of football this fall is not unlikely now. Georgia Technical's great team still runs along undefeated. Pittsburg also is undefeated. There are two other teams with unblemished records—Stevens and Williams. They are not counted, however, so strong as the southern machine nor Glenn Warner's powerful eleven. Their seasons have closed, while Tech and Pitt have other games to get out of their systems.

It is not likely now that defeat will visit either of these eleven, for their remaining opponents have little to give them hope. Tech's crushing defeat of Carlisle was one of Saturday's features. In the south there is a strong inclination and willingness to send the pride of Georgia against Pittsburg in a post-season contest. At Pittsburg such a move is being frowned upon. It may be yet that such a thing can be brought about for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Bears Were No Match for Oregon's Fighters

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Nov. 19.—Hugo Bezdek's University of Oregon young gridiron warriors stepped on California's tail Saturday on Kincaid field and stopped the onward march of the Berkeley giants to the Pacific Coast intercollegiate conference championship, defeating the Bears 21 to 0.

It was one of those wild and woolly pass games, in which Bill Steers, Oregon's great field general, staged the aerial toss whenever it was deemed necessary to make yardage. Oregon made its first two scores in the second period, and just to show the 2500 fans that the initial scores were no flukes the Oregonians shook the bottle well for the Californians and repeated the dose in the third quarter with another touchdown, which Steers converted into a goal.

Bears Outweigh Oregonians.
California sauntered onto the field at 2:15 o'clock. It was 15 minutes later when the Oregon rooters made known the appearance of the Oregon warriors. The fans felt sorry for Oregon's mid-gets when compared to the towering giants of California. Maison, the great little Oregon end, resembled a dwarf when opposed to Richardson, California kicking star; but the difference in size of the teams was offset by the fighting and peppery methods of Oregon's eleven, which battered the Californians during the entire four quarters of the battle.

Game Was Scoreless.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 19.—Outplaying their opponents, but lacking the punch to score, the Washington football team held Oregon Agricultural College to a scoreless tie today in one of the hardest-fought games ever seen on University field. Three times Washington was close enough to score, while Oregon threatened once at the final whistle, when Lodell's place kick from the 40-yard line went wild. The visitors excelled in forward passing.

Washington hurriedly rushed the Aggies off their feet in the first quarter, when they made first down five times and worked to ball to the seven yard line. The Aggies held for downs and guard punted out of danger. Washington's backs, Dailey, Murphy, Gardner and Williams, tore through tackle and guard and around the ends for four, six and eight yards with little trouble in this period. Newman and Lodell, around whom Oregon centered their offense in the first period, were unable to make yardage after the first minute of play.

Showdown on Boxing

New York, Nov. 19.—The showdown on boxing in New York is expected to come today with the appearance of officials of the Broadway Sporting club in a magistrate's court. The Brooklyn boxing club staged three ten round bouts Saturday night. For members only. Police and detectives were present and took the names of the principals and promoters. Their evidence, it is said, will amount to a statement that the bouts were held.
