BUSINESSMEN ARE AGAINST ORDINANCE

Commercial Street Will Oppose Change In Regulations by Petition

The parking of automobiles on Commercial street between State and Chemeketa is entirely satisfactory to the business men on the two blocks, according to a petition circulated yesterday directed to the honorable city council.

In fact, it was an unanimous vote of all the business men on each side of the street that the city fathers should just forget all about the ordinance and let things stand as they are.

The Commercial street merchants are not troubling themselves about what is going to happen to the parking of cars on State street. The petition is just for the two blocks on Commercial included in the proposed ordinance forbidding the parking of autos during business hours, and reads as follows:

"We the undersigned merchants and business men engaged in business on either side of Commercial street between State and Chemeketa respectfully petition your honorable body to amend the proposed traffic ordinance so as to permit the parking of autos on either side of Commercial street between State and Commercial."

Beginning with the U. S. National Bank on the west side of Commercial at State street, the signatures to the petition are as follows: David W. Fyre, G. W. Johnson & Co., Pomeroy & Wallace, J. H. Bonesteel, John Loper, Fletcher & Byrd, S. C. Stone, A. E. Van Saut, Dwight Misner, People's Secondhand Store, The Tire Hospital, J. A. Patterson, J. R. Busick Grocery.

Schrank, Kwong Fook & Co., Thomson's Sample Store, Rostein & Greenbaum, Lot L. Pearce & Son, W. H. Welsh, C. M. Lockwood, Ray Farmer Hardware Co., J. L. Stockton, Beskenhamer & Covey Bakery, W. B. Judge Bingham opened court here again this morning and is hearing the arguments in the suit of Smith versus Smith, a divorce case in which Silverton parties are endeavoring to settle their marital troubles. Apparently the divorce is relying on an agreement made by the parties some time ago as a bar to further proceedings in the way of property settlements.

In the suit of A. C. Mulford against George Hewton and others, an application for change of venue to Morrow county has been filed. It is based on the fact that all the defendants reside in that county and that it should be tried there on account of the convenience of parties and witnesses.

A marriage license was issued today to Chas. T. Matherly and Lena Cooper, both of this county.

And just by way of keeping in trim Central Oregon will soon stage its annual rabbit drive, the state as usual, being expected to head the list when the final returns are in.
