$1,000—DEAD OR ALIVE!

Yes, you have guessed it the first time. It is William S. Hart whose picture adorns a notice tacked to many trees near Los Angeles offering $1,000 for his capture dead or alive. He evidently has committed a serious crime, and his capture is confidently anticipated shortly. However, the $1,000, which will be turned over to the lucky one, will no doubt be steep money, in that the notices are merely "propaganda" for the new Ince-Aircraft photoplay, "The Silent Man," starring the popular western actor, and in which "Big Bill" is a fugitive from the law.

AMERICAN WAR CROPS PROMISING

Washington, Dec. 19.—America's war crops for next year will break all records, under favorable circumstances according to today's agriculture department report showing winter wheat and rye acreage planted this fall.

The area sown to winter wheat is 42,170,000 acres, which is four per cent more than the acreage last year. Condition of winter wheat on December 1 was 79.3, against 85.7 and 87.7 in 1916 and 1915, respectively, and a ten year average of 89.3. Rye acreage planted this fall is 6,119,000, which is 36.5 per cent more than last year. Condition of rye on December 1 was 84.1, against 88.8 and 91.5 in 1916 and 1915, respectively, and a ten year average of 92.2.

TELEGRAPH TABLOIDS

Chicago.—Carl Benz, German subject arrested for illegally wearing a United States army uniform, declared he tore his pants and had to wear the uniform until they were mended. He formerly was in the army.

Washington.—John Flowers didn't know his own age, and, fearing he might be a slacker, registered and is now in the national army at Camp Dodge. His wife has learned from county records that he is forty.

Oakland, Cal.—Alleging her husband told her she "wouldn't go out with him and get tanked he would get some one who would," Lillian D. Dieckman sued George Dieckman for divorce.

San Francisco.—Led by a friend, Herbert Clark, walked into the army recruiting station and applied for enlistment. He is totally blind, but thinks he can teach blind soldiers returning from the front.

San Francisco.—When a cobbler lost Miss Laura Ferrer's leather pumps she sued him for $50 damages, $5 for the pumps and $25 for the "tender associations" attached to them. The court barred "tender association" damages.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Minnesota women may be called upon for the supreme war sacrifice—that of dressing like every other woman. Women of the state defense council met today to discuss uniform dresses to conserve material.

New York.—Hotel bell boys have taken up knitting. They started it at the Biltmore, where all hands knit for the army between calls.

New York.—Teaching of German kultur in private schools here is threatened. Education board officials heard about the plot and are probing.

Rome.—Italy has done away with the German Christmas tree idea this year. Italian wounded and kiddies will fish for presents in "St. Patrick's well" instead of taking them off trees.

China Involved In Proposed Hindu Revolt

San Francisco, Dec. 19.—China was to have had a part in the proposed Hindu revolution if Germany and revolutionary leaders had their way, according to letters seized in New York, which were in evidence in the Hindu plot trial here today.

In these letters Dr. C. K. Chakravarty, Berlin's agent for Hindu affairs in New York, proposed to negotiate a secret treaty between Germany and China, through the influence of W. T. Wang, former secretary to ex-President Li Yuan Hung of China. China was to agree to encourage the Hindu revolutionists, assist in smuggling arms to them and "help as she can, secretly and in accord with her own safety." Germany, in return, would agree to take China's part in case any power attacked her.

CAMOUFLAGE

Two cups peanut butter, 2-3 cup powdered sugar, 3 or 4 tablespoons to taste cocoa or melted unsweetened chocolate, 1-2 teaspoon vanilla, 1-2 cup corn syrup to moisten, a few grains of salt. Mix all together to a flexible paste, mold into a loaf, let dry a little, then cut into squares.

One cup peanut butter, 1-3 cup maple syrup, 2 tablespoons powdered sugar, a few grains salt. Roll small pieces in powdered sugar, or place between halves of English Walnuts. This mixture may be used as a filler for dates and figs.

making window glass and done by skilled Belgian glass blowers. They started up the seventh of this month. Most of the men have been idle for the past six months but when they do work they get big money.

Manness is a nice country town situated on the west bank of the Manness river, 10 miles above Toledo, and has three separate electric roads and two steam roads and excellent country roads. In the past eight years the town has nearly doubled in population, added water works and lots of good paved streets, but to me there is no place like Salem. The Journal comes regularly although the war news is a week old and also Abe Martin jokes, yet I eagerly look for the town digest. Thank you in advance for your kindness for past favors, I remain yours ever, —LUTHER MYERS.

GEORGE PERIOLAT

One of the famous leading California moving picture stars tells what he thinks of Chiropractic in the following sentences:

"I consider chiropractic the greatest science in existence. It has done for me what other methods have failed to do. My personal advice to all in and out of my profession is to try chiropractic."

Sincerely,
GEO. E. PERIOLAT.

George E. Periolat, character actor as "Luke" the Gypsy in "Diamond from the Sky," American Film Co., Santa Barbara, Cal.;

Valeska Surratt and Bessie Love also are strong supporters of Chiropractic and if the readers are interested, I will get their opinions in writing also.

We can only judge the good from the bad, help and harm from experiences of others. If people of fame recommend Chiropractic to sufferers, it is the duty of all to at least give Chiropractic a fair trial.

I have helped many in Marion county. Let me help you. Only Palmer School of Chiropractic Methods used.

Loggers' Strike Impends In Tillamook Camps

Labor Commissioner Hoff received a telegram from the loggers at Tillamook saying a strike was impending there and requesting him to come over and do what he could to prevent it. The loggers stated they were patriotic, realized that strikes should not be called at this time, and stated they would do all possible to prevent one at Tillamook. At the same time they stated the employers were treating them in such a manner that it had to cease or a strike would be a necessity. They claim they are arbitrarily docked time and wages for the least trifles, and without cause. Commissioner Hoff left on the 7:15 Oregon Electric for Portland and expects to reach Tillamook tonight unless the floods prevent.

IN THE LAND OF THE MIDNIGHT SUN.

A pretty tale of the north country tells how our pleasant custom of kissing under the mistletoe had its origin.

Baldur, the Apollo of the North, that the favorite of the gods, was thoroughly hated by Loki, because of the fact that he (Baldur) was invulnerable; he could not be harmed by any force of fire, earth, air or water. So the wicked Loki conceived the plan of ending Baldur's existence by killing him with a dart made from mistletoe wood. As a sign of reparation, the plant was thenceforth dedicated to Frigg, mother of Baldur, so long as it did not touch the earth, Loki's empire. In Frigg's hands the mistletoe became an emblem of love; and everyone who passed under it received a kiss, to show it was no longer an instrument of death and annihilation. This is why it is suspended in all homes during the season of peace, amity and good will.

Of Scandinavian rather than Druidical origin, as is thought by many, is the Yule log custom, occurring as it does exactly six months between the Midsummers Fire. These are lighted out of doors in all parts of the country at the festival of the summer solstice. To their winter celebration the Scandinavians gave the name of Yule and lighted great bonfires in honor of their god, Thor. The bringing in of a ponderous block of wood from the forest, and placing it on the hearth of the Baronial hall was a ceremony honored and observed on Christmas day. In some parts of the country the Yule log is not allowed to burn quite away, but the burnt ends are carefully gathered and placed in the clefts of fruit trees, to insure a good crop the coming season.

Farm machinery is the artillery of agriculture. In what condition will your "field pieces" be for the spring drive?

As an example of the accuracy and attention to detail that prevail in the pictures directed by J. Stuart Blackton is the fact that all of the costumes from that of the "extra" with the smallest part to the stars, are made especially for each picture. In "The Judgment House," a picturization of the novel by Sir Gilbert Parker, of the time of the picture is during the Boer war. Despite the fact that this is approximately a "modern" picture, Commodore Blackton would not be satisfied with modern costumes. Fashion books of the period were hunted up and all the costumes copied from them. Violet Heming, the leading woman, wears several very stunning gowns which, however, when closely studied, resemble very little the fashions of today. "The Judgment House" is to appear at the Oregon theater on Sunday and Monday.

With Our Boys at the Front

Oregon Soldier Writes From Fighting Line

Some may think our boys are not fighting yet but following are extracts of a letter received by Miss Pearl Cooper from an Oregon soldier which will be seen that they are:

Some-Where in France, Nov. 21. Dear friend: Your most welcome letter of Sept. 27 at hand and I will answer or at least make a pretense. You say you don't suppose we are in active service. Well if you had been in my place the last month you would have been running red. But then I'm a Sammie and proud of it. French life is exciting and to send the kaiser a "whizzer" and watch him try to find us. But the greatest of all is to see an air battle. We see all kinds of headwork maneuvers there. It is a wonderful sight to witness at night. A fourth of July fire works isn't it.

You must be some tatter to get first prize at state fair. Our gowns have not fatted yokes but we wear them just the same. It is getting real chilly here in sunny France just now.

You asked how long we were in coming here. Not very long and as it is against the rules to write anything about military courses I can't say just how long we were out or where we landed. I'll tell you all when I come home, of which I am sure going to do as there is nothing to worry over.

Say you are some joint about as good as I (only better). What do you think of a regular poet?

We are standing ready here in France waiting for the Germans to take their chance.

And with a willing hand to lend We'll fight a fight until the end.

And when to the U. S. we return To the mothers hearts that wait and yearn We came over to see the kaiser wish I could have the privilege of walking them around for a day with a gun on their shoulder, doing squads right and left, and I'll bet they would soon get about as fat as the millionaires out in knickerbockers doing what I suppose they call hard work and I sure wish I could have the privilege of walking them
