Mr. Drager spent about two weeks studying the California fruit and market situation, going from there to the middle states. He reports most of the California crop marketed at the present time. He finds the eastern markets slow, which is true of the market situation everywhere in general.

ATTORNEY IS FINED.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—George F. Vanderveer, of Seattle, Wash., chief counsel for the I. W. W., paid a $100 fine today for juggling a big automatic pistol into the federal building during the recent arraignment of I. W. W. for alleged violation of the espionage act.

Vanderveer told Municipal Judge Wells that he had read so much about I. W. W. being kidnapped, tarred and feathered and otherwise man-handled that he carried the gun as a preventative. He explained, however, that taking the gun into the federal building was unintentional.

MARSHFIELD BOY DROWNS.

Marshfield, Or., Dec. 26.—Roy Clark, aged 10, was drowned and his brother Melville Clark, aged 7, narrowly escaped death last evening when a rowboat in which they were riding on the bay capsized.

W. A. Reid, jumped into the water in an effort to save the older boy, but was not in time. Efforts of physicians to resuscitate him were without avail. The smaller boy got close to shore and was rescued. The father is B. G. Clark, an engineer.

FIXING OF SILVER PRICES BY THE GOVERNMENT

Washington, Dec. 26.—Fixing of silver prices under government agreement with the producers is imminent, Director of the Mint Baker stated today. Announcement is expected within a week. The agreement will follow extensive conferences with silver producers.

Under it, the government will be assured of all the silver it needs for war and other purposes at its own price. The arrangements contemplate also purchase of all silver by the government to be re-sold to private retailers at cost.

CALIFORNIA BUILDERS MEET WITH McNAB

San Francisco, Dec. 26.—Managers of all shipping plants on San Francisco bay met today with Gavin McNab, acting for the federal shipping board, to determine the shipping tonnage San Francisco can deliver to the government during 1918. The meeting was called after Chairman Hurley of the shipping board wired McNab asking for shipping building estimates.

Seattle, the message said, has promised 600,000 tons of steel and 400,000 tons of wooden vessels during the next 12 months.

Funeral services of the late Thomas Gleason were held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Bigdon chapel, Rev. F. T. Porter conducting the services. The body was sent to Dallas on the 1:40 train for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Waterman of Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hendricks of Lincoln, and Mrs. Katherine Upmeyer of Astoria, were guests yesterday at the home of A. Underhill home, 879 South 12th street. Mr. and Mrs. Waterman are visitors over the holidays.

Chas. Woodruff of Portland, was a Christmas guest at the C. D. Purdy home, 960 Mill street. Mr. Woodruff is an old friend of T. G. Albert, the two having attended school together in the boyhood years in Iowa. They had not seen each other for about 45 years.

Manager McDaniel of the Commercial club has received a request from Town Development, a magazine published in New York, for an article on the promotion of the flax industry in the valley. The publication has an extensive circulation and the opportunity thus offered means the securing of some valuable publicity.

The burial place beautiful. Here all is peace, no tipsy headstones, no mounds of mud, no sunken graves, no snakes or worms or vermin, no weedy evidence of neglect. The body is placed in a smooth, white, heavy dry, seamless, quiet, reverent and beautiful. This is civilization's final tribute to its dead. This is Mount Crest Abbey Mausoleum. Tombs $225 up. Phone manager 1066W.

The antics of old Jup Fluv. Is causing some anxiety as to whether we are to have a repetition of what we had last week in the high water line. A heavy rain fell throughout last night and continued over this forenoon with slightly diminished volume. The Willamette stood around 17.5 at noon and was steadily rising. South Mill creek is reported to have risen ten inches during the night and was rising today. Much surface water is reported in the south and north sections of the city.

The Salem police department desires to call attention to city ordinance No. 290, prohibiting owners or drivers of horses or mules to leave the animals standing during winter months for a period longer than two hours, day or night, unless they are blanketed, and hitched on as dry standing ground as possible. A number of complaints have recently been made, and the police department wishes to call the attention of the public to this ordinance before any action is taken. The minimum penalty is $5.00 and the maximum $50.

Every man, woman, boy and girl in Salem is invited to pay a New Year's call to the library between two and five in the afternoon. This is not an opportunity to exchange books, but to see the library and talk with the librarians and hear a Victrola concert on one of the best machines the Imperial Furniture store has to offer. This is one day in the year when parents and children can come together to enjoy the library.

The Commercial club has made arrangements with the Southern Pacific for the operation of a way-car between the city and West Salem. The car will leave here at 5 a. m. in the day and will be spotted in West Salem at the shed of the Falls City-Salem Lumber company. The farmers may bring their cream, produce, etc., to the car during the day, load it into the car, and about 5 o'clock each afternoon the car will be brought over the S. P. freight depot at this place where the merchants and those to whom the produce is consigned, may procure it. The car going back each morning will carry merchandise, supplies, etc., from the merchants to the farmers and the farmers may get the same from the car during the day while it is standing on the switch in West Salem. The Commercial club took this action to relieve as far as possible the inconvenience caused by the closing of the bridge across the river to traffic.

Special meeting of Salem lodge No. 4, A. F. & A. M., this evening. Work in the M. M. degree. Visiting brethren welcome.

B. H. Ling, manager of the local Western Union office, and wife are spending the holidays at Newport. E. A. Swayze of Portland is relieving Mr. Ling.

The funeral of the late Dr. Elmer Y. Chase was held this morning from the Webb & Clough chapel, Rev. Robt. S. Gill having charge of the services. Interment was in the Lee Mission cemetery.

United States National Bank boys and girls pig club will meet at the Commercial club rooms, Saturday, December 29 at 1:30. Members are requested to attend and bring as many of their young friends as possible, and also their teachers.

Funeral services of the late Thomas Gleason were held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Bigdon chapel, Rev. F. T. Porter conducting the services. The body was sent to Dallas on the 1:40 train for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Waterman of Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hendricks of Lincoln, and Mrs. Katherine Upmeyer of Astoria, were guests yesterday at the home of A. Underhill home, 879 South 12th street. Mr. and Mrs. Waterman are visitors over the holidays.

Action In Disbarment Brought Against Hi Gill

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 26.—Disbarment complaints against Mayor Hiram C. Gill, and his law partners, Herbert B. Hoyt, H. S. Frye and James C. Raley, were today filed by Attorney General W. V. Tanner and Assistant Attorney General Thomas M. Murphine.

The state officials left the complaints at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the office of Sheriff John Stringer, to be served upon each member of the law firm.

The charges against the firm of Gill, Hoyt, Frye and Raley grow out of the practices of the Merchants Protective association, for whom it was the legal representatives. The principal cause of the complaint is due to the fact that the mayor, who is head of the police department of the city, permitted his name to be used on stationery of the association when it sought clients among the tenderloin habitues.

The disbarment case will be tried under the 1917 law by the state law examining board, from whose decision an appeal can be had to the supreme court.

MAY REFUSE DEMANDS.

San Francisco, Dec. 26.—The Western Pacific, Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads today completed their answers to the demands for wage increases made the first of the month by the brotherhoods of conductors and trainmen. The answers, it is understood, are unfavorable and will suggest arbitration. They will be delivered Monday night to meetings of the local brotherhoods.

WILSON WORN OUT.

Washington, Dec. 26.—The strain of mediation trips in the interest of preventing strikes, has worn Secretary of Labor Wilson until he has been forced to take a rest in his home here. Complicated with a touch of the gripple this has kept the secretary from active work for nearly three weeks.

SOLDIER RAN AMUCK

Bainn Rouge, La., Dec. 26.—At a Christmas celebration at Plant Road, near here last night, William White ran amuck, officials made known today.

Declaring he "had to go to war any way, I might just as well start killing now," White shot and killed his wife, fired at several others, and was in turn killed by Albert Gardner, according to the officers.

FAOUS RESORT BURNS.

Callis, Cal., Dec. 26.—Pebble Beach Lodge, fashionable summer hotel on Monterey's Secretan Mile Drive, was completely destroyed early today by fire. The fire originated in the hotel kitchen.

GENERAL BLISS TO STAY

Washington, Dec. 26.—General Bliss, chief of staff, will be retained in that position after December 31, on which date he retires for age, Secretary of War Baker announced this afternoon.

Cleveland, Ohio.—Beginning Wednesday, the local railway will keep the penny usually rebated on transfers. They'll save $840,000 a year on it.

CHIENGO—"Hear ye! Hear ye!"

The old town crier, 1776 model, fared forth on his rounds last night, crying the hour and announcing "all's well." It was just a lightless night pretension in the loop district.

Tomato growers feel that they are behind the times in some respects so they are talking of organizing in order to catch up.
