

SOCIETY and CLUBS

THE festivities of the week centered around New Year's day with the usual, unique custom of watching the Old Year slip away and the New one appear. The new vista was characterized by a whirl of watch parties, teas, theater parties, receptions and dances. Many chose this happy season as an appropriate time to solemnize their nuptial vows. Owing to the radical changes in all phases of life during the past few months, there will be a marked difference in society circles in the new year. Many of the artificial customs will die gradually. Clubs and organizations which have hitherto spent their entire time for amusement only will now devote much to Red Cross work. The pleasures and merry gatherings will not cease but merely change to gratify the practical needs of the time.

One of the happy surprises that society circles delight in so much is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth E. Boyer of Salem to Harry E. Rice of Chicago, which will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Boyer, at 453 North Winter street on January 27.

Miss Boyer is planning to follow a lovely custom by choosing her parents' twenty-sixth wedding anniversary as the time when her bridal knot will be tied. The lovely sentiment is still further carried out in the fact that the ceremony will be performed at the same hour of day, four o'clock, that it was for her parents.

As the anniversary occurs on Sunday this year, the wedding of Miss Boyer and Mr. Rice will be a quiet, home affair with only the immediate relatives attending. Miss Boyer, who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Boyer, has spent most of her life in Salem, she was a graduate with the class of 1912 from Salem high school. Miss Boyer was a popular student of Willamette University during the first part of her college course, while she went to the University of California at Berkeley to finish. After doing graduate work there, she was engaged in social service work in Oakland and San Francisco. Mr. Rice also attended Willamette University, but later he went to the University of Chicago where he specialized in chemistry and was graduated in 1916.

After being graduated there, Mr. Rice accepted a position in the chemical department of the Sherwin Williams dye plant in Chicago. Later he was promoted to the position of research chemist in the laboratory of the dye plant.

The wedding was originally planned for early spring but this is the only time Mr. Rice could come west owing to the nature of his work. He is subject to call at any time for chemical work for the government, being on the reserve list of chemists at Washington under the direction of the bureau of mines.

"Maplethorpe," the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Emory in the Waldo Hills, was the scene of a delightful stepping party Friday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated with Oregon grape, mistletoe and Christmas bells. The drawing room and dining room were thrown open for dancing while the east parlor was arranged with tables for cards.

This is the first of a series of stepping parties to be given by the "Willamette Woman's club." Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by club members. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lou Haberley, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haberley, Mr. and Mrs. G. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. J. Upson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riches, Mr. and Mrs. Will Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Wilks, Mr. and Mrs. Wilks, Sr., from Tillamook, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pooler, Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Geer, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. O'Leary, Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Mrs. Matilda Hunt Lillend, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byr, Mr. and Mrs. John Small, Mr. and Mrs. Constock, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Course, the Misses Gladys and Evelyn Emery, Marie Haberley, Mildred Haberley, Helen Currie, Ruth Finley, Gladys Davenport, Lois and Winnie Riches, Miss Lorena Pooler and Miss Morley, Miss Messers, Harry Bowers, George Course, Loid Haberley, Karl Haberley, Harry Riches, Frank Riches, Oral Egan, Cecil Sargent from U. S. A. Marines, John Currie, Jr., Laurence Pooler, John Marder, Mr. Currie and Albert Marder.

One of the largest and most delightful functions of the week was the reception given at the home of President and Mrs. Carl G. Doney, on 1116 State street, by the Salem Willamette Alumni association. This is an organization of the graduates of Willamette University living in Salem at the present time. Miss Helen Pearce is president of the association. The reception was given New Year's afternoon from three until six. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Ray Smith and Miss Helen Pearce, while Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. Morton Peck and Mrs. Gustav Ebsen assisted in receiving in the rooms. President and Mrs. Carl G. Doney and Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves stood in the receiving line. During the afternoon delightful music was given by Miss Lucille Emmons, Mrs. A. W. Walton and Miss Grace Smith. In the dining room tea and water were served. Centering the table was a broad bowl of dainty white Laurestina. Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Roy Shields, Mrs. A. N. Moore and Miss Laura Heist poured, while Miss Margaret Graham assisted in the serving. Throughout the rooms the Laurestina was used in an effective manner. During the afternoon about one hundred guests called, including trustee and faculty members, students and friends of the university.

A very pretty home wedding occurred Monday December 31, at high noon, when Miss Gladys A. Luthy became the bride of Howard P. Jewett, at the home of the former's parents, 2507 Fairgrounds road. Dr. Carl G. Doney read the impressive ring ceremony which united them. Preceding the ceremony Harold Jory sang, "I Love You," followed by the wedding march played by Miss Gertrude Eakin. The decorations were done in pink and green. A large arch was draped with amalia and on either side hung baskets of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left over the Oregon Electric, going to Albany and then to Sweet Home where Mr. Jewett will continue his work as principal of the high school at that place.

Mrs. Jewett attended Willamette university one year and was a graduate of Monmouth normal school. For the last three years she has been teaching in the city schools. Mr. Jewett was graduated in the class of '16 from Willamette university. He was a popular student, being president of the student body during his senior year. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Luthy, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jewett, Dr. and Mrs. Carl G. Doney, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dunlap and son Ray, Mrs. Luren, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clark, Mrs. Ethel McCoy and children, Vida, Ethel, Mawrice and Margaret; Miss Marie Luthy, Mrs. Jane Kelley, Miss Christabel Jewett, Horace Jewett, Miss Gertrude Eakin, Miss Ruth Ludge, Miss Mildred Trindle, Mrs. Peter Luthy, Miss Anna Luthy, Mr. and Mrs. DuRette and daughter Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Miss Dolle Smith, Harold Eakin, all of Salem. The out of town guests were Miss Alma Jewett of Boise, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jory of Enterprise, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Zimmerman, Miss Dori Zimmerman, Don Zimmerman, Miss Helen Johnson of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Mendell and children, Lawrence of Lincoln, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Jewett and children of Eureka, Mont.

Mrs. William Carlyle has been invited to speak before the Salem Women's club on Saturday, January the twelfth. Mrs. Carlyle was with her husband, Dr. Carlyle, while he practiced dentistry in Russia. Owing to war conditions they left Russia and came to Salem of which Dr. Carlyle was formerly a resident.

The meeting Saturday will be especially attractive as Mrs. Carlyle will speak of her impressions and experiences in the land of revolutions. The gathering will be held in the rooms of the club at the Commercial club rooms.

One of the delightful events of the week was the reception Monday, New Year's eve, at the home of Supt. John W. Todd on Bellevue street in honor of Mrs. Dora B. Schilke of La Grande. Mrs. Schilke is state president of the Parent Teachers association and the Mother's Congress, two organizations which work hand in hand. The committee in charge had arranged a very interesting program of music. Those appearing on the program were Prof. John Todd, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. La Moine Clark, Miss Mabel Marcus and Miss Lena Dotson. State Superintendent Churchill gave an informal talk and Mrs. Schilke told of importance of the organization to the parents and teachers. After the program, tea and war wafers were served in the dining room. Centering the dining table was a miniature Christmas tree, glistening with tiny bright ornaments, and red carnations and greens were effectively used in the room.

Mrs. C. C. Clark, assisted by Mrs. U. S. Dotson, had charge of the dining room. A large number of townspeople and teachers as well as many county school superintendents who were in Salem attended this pleasant affair.

The country home of H. Ristow on Garden road was the scene of a joyous party recently, when the birthday of Miss Emma Ristow was celebrated. The rooms were decked with masses of greenery, brightened with sprigs of holly. The guests, about twenty friends of Miss Ristow, came for dinner and then spent the evening in a gay manner playing informal games.

One of the many watchnight parties was the one given by Miss H. Schultz at her sister's, Mrs. A. Hisecho's, on 14th street. The evening was spent in a jolly manner playing lively games and telling mysterious stories. At the crucial moment the clock struck to announce that 1917 had slipped away. The hostess served dainty refreshments during the evening. Those present were the Misses Trede Albers, Hattie Wendland, Gertrude Berkholtz, Helen Hartung, Emma Ristow, Edna Meyer and Lena Krenka and Messrs. Arthur and Ernest Hoffman, Carl Akerf, E. Schaeffer, Walter Windland and Albert Kraft, Arthur Wendland and Mr. Wagner of Portland.

A quiet, home wedding was solemnized this week, when Miss Frances Gittens became the bride of Paul Brown. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Edward Gittens on North Cottage street, with Rev. Gittens officiating. The bride was most attractive in a gown of soft cream colored silk, trimmed with filmy lace. The gown was doubly appropriate because of the charming sentiment attached to it. It was the same gown that Miss Gittens was attired in, when she was crowned the Queen of May two years ago at Willamette University. The bride was unattended, and everything was carried out in an extremely simple manner. After the marriage, to which only the nearest relatives were invited, a wedding collation was served. The couple left for Portland where they separated to resume their respective positions. The bride was a popular student at Willamette university, graduating in the class of 1916. When a junior in college she played the leading part in the class play entitled "An American Citizen." Since leaving college she has been teaching English in the high school at Culver, Oregon. Mr. Brown is a graduate from Monmouth normal school and attended Willamette university in 1916, being a member of the football team. At present he is principal of the public school at Rufus, Washington.

A pleasant informal evening was spent last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Poisel on South Commercial street. Holly and ferns were used in the room in a simple, but pretty manner. Four tables were arranged for the guests, who enjoyed the evening in many lively games of "500," after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Laffler, Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Bower, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Volk, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cradlebaugh and the Misses Minnie Downing, Marian Shaw, Helen Wood and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Poisel.

The pretty, but quiet wedding of Miss Ella Shoen to Harry Gilliam was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. C. Miller at 1284 North Commercial street, Monday evening at seven thirty with Rev. G. Koehler officiating.

The house was beautifully decorated in Oregon grape and red carnations. The bride, becomingly dressed in pale blue silk chiton with a bodice of silver lace, was attended by Miss Blanche Tewksbury. The groom was attended by Elmer Schoen, the bride's nephew.

The beautiful wedding march was played by Mrs. A. Matson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schoen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schoen, Elmer Schoen, Miss Blanche Tewksbury, Paul Gronke, Mr. and Mrs. A. Matson, Miss Myrtle Herdline, C. Blundell, A. Moffitt and Ella Moffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Theodor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Berndtson and daughter Anna, Mr. and Mrs. Cononberg, Mr. and Mrs. Persons and Mrs. Herdline.

Mrs. M. M. Chapman and Mrs. W. A. Cosick will be hostesses to the Thursday afternoon club January the tenth, at the home of Mrs. Chapman on 638 N. Church street.

Heal Skin Diseases

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. A little Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 50c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases. Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress. The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

The Disadvantages of Ill Health

There is nothing unpleasant about spinal adjustments. The time required is very short—just a minute or two—as often each week as the Chiropractor judges to be necessary. You will be more easily able to see your way clear to success after your spine is in good order, for that will eliminate the pressure on the spinal nerves. The result will be health.

"Will Chiropractic be of any help to me?" This is the first thought that arises in your mind after you have tried nearly everything else in an endeavor to obtain relief from suffering. In answer to this question I would say that the percentage is very greatly in your favor. There are some cases, of course, wherein no permanent relief can be offered; any honest Chiropractor will readily admit this. Remember that practically every "disease" ever known has been encountered by some Chiropractor in his practice, and, with very few exceptions, has yielded to spinal adjustments. If you feel that you must use medicine along with the adjustments, there is little to be done for you, simply because you refuse to give your Chiropractor an even chance to fight for you. You block his efforts to help you. Oil and water will never mix—Chiropractic and medicine won't, either. In your line of business, if you wish to have certain results accomplished, you wouldn't insist upon two men with diametrically opposed ideas doing that work for you. Then why, in a matter more serious to you than any business can ever be—your health—why employ two forms as far apart as the poles of the earth? Stick to either one; be as conscientious with your Chiropractor as he is with you. If his knowledge and use of his science is right, he will give you indisputable proof—proof that cannot fail to convince you—regained health.

An ounce of "stick-to-it-iveness" is worth a ton of "dope"—give your Chiropractor enough time to accomplish the results you look for. Stay with him until he tells you your spine is in good condition.

Another one of those military weddings, which fate has decreed to be so popular occurred last Sunday evening when Lieutenant F. W. Walton of Camp Lewis and Miss Gladys B. Rodgers were married. The wedding took place at Tacoma at the home of a friend of the groom. The ring ceremony was used with Dr. Delmar H. Tremble, pastor of First Methodist church, Tacoma, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Barton of Salem stood up with them. The bride was charmingly dressed in a gown of rose colored tulle becomingly trimmed with the same shade of Georgette. She carried a beautiful bouquet of delicate tinted rose buds. After the ceremony was performed a wedding dinner was served at the Tacoma hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Walton were classmates at the Oregon Agricultural college from which they were graduated last June. Mrs. Walton came to Salem from her home in Gardena, California, Friday evening and while here was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Barton at 598 North 17th street. Mrs. Barton, who is the sister of Lieutenant Walton, entertained at a luncheon and dinner in honor of Mrs. Walton Saturday.

Lieutenant Walton received his commission as the first training camp at the Presidio this summer and is now stationed at Camp Lewis in the 363d infantry. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Walton on 705 North 17th street. In the fall of 1913 he came from New York to attend O. A. C. and since then has been pursuing the extension course there until he left last spring for the Presidio. Mrs. Walton will remain at Tacoma while her husband remains in Camp Lewis.

One of the prominent out of town visitors this week was Mrs. Dora B. Schilke of La Grande. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Carleton at 1040 Union street. Being the president of the State Parent Teachers association she addressed the meeting of the county superintendents Monday afternoon. On Monday evening a reception was given in her honor.

As Mrs. Schilke is also past grand worthy matron of the Eastern Star for Oregon, she assisted in the installation of officers of the local organization New Year's night. Later in the week she left for Corvallis where she attended the convention held there this week.

The Breakfast club girls were entertained at a charming party New Year's night by Miss Marie Chittenden. The party was given at the home of Miss Chittenden's grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Sayre, 1259 Chemeketa street. The affair was in the form of a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Zita Rosenquist who is to be married sometime this month. The rooms were artistically decorated with dainty ferns and beautiful bowls of pink and white carnations. The berry of girls enjoyed the forepart of the evening talking and knitting while they spent the latter in dancing. Dainty refreshments were afterwards served by the hostess. The members of the club who participated in this jolly affair are Zita Rosenquist, Reatha Hughes, Edna Howd, Irene Curtis, Ruth Schultz, Olga Gray, Ethel Frazier, Marybelle Reinhardt, Barbara Steiner, Grace Holt, Ella Spaulding and the hostess, Marie Chittenden.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. O. Goitra at her home on 725 Court street, with Mrs. A. E. Hunt the president presiding. The leader for the afternoon was Mrs. M. C. Findley and special music was given by Miss Ruth Fields and Mrs. R. W. Walton.

Many of the society folk, and lovers of good music of Salem, will go to Portland next week to enjoy the eight brilliant operas given by the San Carlo Opera company at the Auditorium during the week.

At Any Drug Store

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jory formerly of Salem, have been visiting friends and relatives in Salem this week. Mr. Jory is principal of the high school at Enterprise.

Miss Gladys Carson, a teacher from Independence, has been visiting her parents at 299 North Winter street.

One of the gay New Year eve parties was the dance given by Mrs. Romeo Gouley and Miss W. Howard Kamp at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Gouley. Mrs. Gouley had converted the porch into an enchanting fairy land of greenery by artistically using fir boughs. Here the guests danced the Old Year out in a lively manner. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served to the twenty four guests.

Miss Barbara Steiner, daughter of Dr. R. E. Steiner, left this week for Seattle to resume her work at the University of Oregon.

Miss Gladys Carson is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. John Carson, Miss Carson has charge of the Elkins rural center school, where Monmouth students do practice teaching.

An event of much interest was the engagement for Miss Marie Annette Hofer to Lieutenant Thomas Everett May which was announced this week. Miss Hofer was formerly a popular girl in society circles but is now teaching in Pasadena, California. Lieutenant May, a very popular student at O. A. C., was captain of the foot ball team. At present he is stationed at Camp Lewis, Tacoma. They will not be married until his return.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rinchert celebrated their thirty first wedding anniversary recently at their home near
