THREE BIG MEETINGS NECESSARY TO HOLD OUTPOURING OF PUBLIC

Canadian Officers Given Record-Breaking Reception in Salem

No event, and it was that, in the history of Salem has awakened so profound an interest and such universal attention as the coming yesterday of three Canadians, veterans of the war, who having been invalided home from inability to do further service on account of wounds, are still "doing their bit" by awakening America to the fact that she must do her utmost at all times, and that it must be the aim of every citizen to do those things that will help win the war, and thus regardless of private affairs, the rights of the individual must be secondary to those of the country and the desire for private gain must be made subservient to a greed for victory for the nation.

The party consisting of Lieutenant Colonel MacMillan, Major B. K. Edwards and Captain E. J. Cook arrived yesterday morning, and spoke at the armory at 2 o'clock. Long before that hour the big auditorium was filled, the doors and corridors were turned away. Owing to this expression of desire to hear the message those battle scarred men fresh from the front had to deliver, the local management realized another crowd would be disappointed at the meeting billed for 8 o'clock unless some other arrangement was made and so the First Methodist church was secured for an overflow meeting, and later still another meeting was arranged for at the Grand Opera house.

At the armory, although the speaking was billed for 8 o'clock the room was half filled an hour before that time and those who "came early at 7:30" found the armory packed. The audience was entertained with music until the arrival of the veterans headed by Governor Withycombe and as they came through the main door it rose with a cheer that was continued until Manager Bruce Dennis of the state council of defense came to the front and greeted the men. He spoke briefly and was followed by a selection by the chorus under the direction of William McGilchrist, Sr. Governor Withycombe spoke briefly and introduced Lieutenant Colonel MacMillan. In the meanwhile his companions were sent one to address the meeting at the opera house and the other that at the Methodist church. Colonel MacMillan said he was not a public speaker, and his delivery showed it was a new role to him. It was perhaps due to this fact that his talk proved the more interesting and effective, for it was a simple tale told in simple words of the terrible barbarities, the untold and untellable suffering, that followed the invasion of Belgium by the Prussian hordes mad with the lust for war, and educated to the point where cruelty was considered a necessary adjunct of bravery, and terrorism a strong and permissible weapon in subverting a neutral country.

His description of his and his regiment's course following the call to arms was told simply. He was asked by his colonel "if he would go with him to Europe," and though engaged in packing salmon and in the midst of the season, he took but a few moments to decide that his duty was to his country before everything else and his answer was "yes." He added: "It was pretty hard to get away for besides my business there was a baby at our house. But three days old."

GERMAN-SWISS BORDER CLOSED FOR A MONTH

Belief is Expressed That Troops Are Being Moved to Western Front

Berne, Jan. 10.—Closing of the German-Swiss and German-Holland frontiers for a month, just as announced by the Germans, was taken today to preange extensive troop transfers. No travelers or merchandise during the next month will be allowed to cross the borders.

Presumably it means the switch of Teutonic troops from the Italian to the west front.

Shake Up in Navy. London, Jan. 10.—England's long expected admiralty shake up was to be announced in full today. Preliminary statements declared the whole naval policy hereafter will be administered by a general staff, divided into three general divisions—governing home waters, overseas and trade protection.

Only Artillery Duels. Paris, Jan. 10.—Artillery activities around Vauxhall were all the French war office reported today.

London, Jan. 10.—Slight hostile artillery in the neighborhood of Gonnelien was all Field Marshal Haig reported from the British front today.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful at Once

Immediate!—Yes! Certain! That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this moistening cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yet really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowledge's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents.

State Must Pay For Premiums on Bonds

Attorney General Brown today in answer to an inquiry of Secretary of State Olcott passed upon the matter of the state paying the premiums on the bonds of state officials. It seems the legislature of 1917 in amending the laws intentionally or otherwise, inserted in the new law this clause: "Any state officer, or officer of a public board or commission within the state, required by law to give a bond for the faithful performance of his duties shall be allowed such reasonable sum paid a security company for becoming surety on his bond, not exceeding one half of one per centum on account of such bond, and premium shall be paid out of the proper state or commission funds."

PRISONERS IN GERMANY.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Two men of the torpedo destroyer Jacob Jones are held prisoners in Germany. A dispatch to the navy department from the Red Cross today gave their names as: Albert De Mellow, a seaman of the second class, and John Francis Murphy, ship's cook of the first class.

DeMellow's father, Antonio V. De Mellow, resides at New Bedford, Mass. Murphy's mother is Mrs. Julia Murphy, Newport, R. I. when it passed me, and the second time when I passed it. He was cheerful and smiling, optimistic, and apparently did not regret the service or the sacrifice that had left him a hopeless cripple. He urged Americans to make any sacrifice necessary, and to begin now, and to make them with cheerfulness and smiling faces. There is nothing too good for the boys who are fighting our battles, and when you are asked to make sacrifices, just remember how small and trifling they are making and making uncomplainingly. He also made a heart to heart talk to the cadets who occupied front seats. It was an event for Salem and one that will have far reaching effects, and the brave Canadians who have given us so much, and who even yet find a way to help the cause, will have a warm spot in the hearts of Salem people for all time.

The grand jury yesterday returned three true bills, one against Claude Dugan for larceny, and two against Raymond Naybisco who says his true name is Hanson Warburis, each for larceny. The latter pleaded not guilty to both charges.

Claude Dugan made a splendid record this week in the way of getting speedy returns. He stole an auto and other things near Salem Monday, was arrested at Halsey Thursday with the goods in his possession, was brought back to Salem and indicted Wednesday, and was sentenced from one to ten years in the state prison and Thursday afternoon was delivered to Warden Murphy at the prison.
