LIBERTY NEXT WEEK--"THE BARRIER"

SOCIETY
By CAROL S. DIBBLE

An item of decided interest in these times, when the friend of here and yesterday, without previous warning, suddenly becomes the friend of "some where in France," was lately received by Salem acquaintances from Miss Lydia Gell of Springfield, Oregon. Miss Gell, who, as a Red Cross nurse, gave several lectures on Elementary Hygiene and Home Care of the sick in Salem last summer, is now doing hospital work with so many others across the waters. Her address sounds much like those of our own boys at various training camps abroad, and brings a realization of how close to the center of affairs, Miss Gell's present location must be. It reads: "No. 1 (Presbyterian U. S. A.) General Hospital, British Expeditionary Forces, France."

Miss Florence Cleveland, secretary of the Young Woman's Christian association, will spend the week end at Camp Lewis, attending to some official business. She left last night for Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop are spending several weeks in Pendleton, where they are the guests of their son, Roy Bishop and family. Before returning home Mr. and Mrs. Bishop will go to Hood River for a short stay.

Mrs. R. T. Wales of Knab, Washington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. Patterson at her home, 2315 South Cottage street. She expects to be in Salem during the month of January.

Walter A. Denton spent yesterday in Portland.

Mrs. F. L. Purvine, who underwent an operation at the Deaconess hospital, Wednesday morning, is reported to be doing nicely, and will soon be able to receive her friends.

Daniel J. Fry, Jr. and Fritz Slado, two well known residents of Salem, are spending a few days in town at the Multnomah hotel.—Oregonian.

Mrs. Roy Shields has visiting her, at her home on North Fifth street, her brother, H. C. Patty of Amity, Oregon.

At the meeting of the North Salem Women's club held yesterday, about thirty books were brought in as the final contribution of the club towards the soldiers' libraries. Mrs. Guy Smith will take charge of the books contributed by the North Salem club and turn them over to the local library, from where they will be distributed to the various training camps.

It was also voted that the club donate five dollars from its treasury for the Scholarship Loan Fund for girls, which fund receives its support from all Federated clubs. The remainder of the afternoon was passed in sewing for the Red Cross.

The Miteh chapter of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. B. Macy on Thirteenth street. This chapter is composed of the young matrons of the church and is devoting its time to missionary study. Mrs. Merlin Harding is president of the club.

Mrs. Jerry P. King left yesterday for Toppensville, Washington.

An enjoyable "500" party was given recently at the home of Mrs. Clyde E. Johnson on Chemeketa street. The rooms were gay with an array of car-nations and poinsettias. Assisting Mrs. Johnson was Mrs. Frank Ward.

Four tables of cards were circled by the players, who were: Mr. and Mrs. Miller Bevier, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roma Hunter and daughter, Miss Mabel Hunter, Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Mrs. Cal Patton, Charles T. Pomeroy and Dr. M. E. Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson. Card honors were captured by Mr. Ward.

BAKER'S COCOA
has great food value

THE food value of cocoa has been proven by centuries of use, and dietitians and physicians the world over are enthusiastic in their endorsements of it. It is said to contain more nourishment than beef, in a more readily assimilated form. The choice, however, should be a high-grade cocoa—"Baker's" of course.

It is delicious, too

Any Sickness Leaves Weakness

Even a simple cold strips and reduces your resistive powers to allow other sickness. Only food—not alcohol or drugs—creates the rich blood which distributes strength to the body, and the concentrated medicinal food in makes the blood rich and stimulates its circulation while its tonic virtue enlivens the appetite and aids nutrition to reestablish your strength quickly and permanently. If you are rundown, anemic or nervous, by all means get Scott's Emulsion. It builds because it is a food—not a stimulant.

in the field—and this although the latter will have, after all, to carry the heaviest part of the burden.

"The value of President Wilson's speech lies in the fact that it reaffirms the common aims of the democratic people of the United States with their allies on this side of the water making common cause with Premier Lloyd-George's statement.

"Regarding Russia, it expresses on the whole the mind not only of America but of Britain. The people of this country have nothing but the most kindly feelings for the Russian people. It is our wish as well as President Wilson's that order will come out of the existing chaos as speedily as possible, so that the Russian people may enjoy orderly democratic rule.

"It is our wish, as well as his, that the western provinces of Russia should not become the appanage of Prussian militarism.

"It is our wish, as well as his, that in the future democracy should be carried on in the light of day, so that every people will know to what they are being committed.

"It is our wish, as well as his, that countries in the future live under terms enabling an exchange of goods to mutual advantage and that compulsory military service be no longer a blight on civilization.

"In short, it is our wish, so well as his, that the nations, great and small, live their own way and develop according to their own bent.

"In short, it is our wish, as well as his, that the nations, great and small, should be restored and compensated for and that other small countries which have been ravaged by militarism should be restored to full territorial, economic and political existence.

"We are in this war together—the free peoples of the west and the free peoples of Europe. We on this side are carrying a great burden and we want help speedily and effectively.

"My message to the industrial workers of the United States be that they should carry on the building of ships and the equipping of armies by which these armies may be made effective in Europe."

FRANK ELLSWORTH DROWNS AT MILL CITY

Companions Unable to Help Him—Leaves Wife and Three Children

Frank Ellsworth, who lives near Lyons, was accidentally drowned at Mill City on Tuesday of this week and to date his body has not been recovered. At the time of the accident Mr. Ellsworth was repairing a flume under the mill; in reaching for a plank to use in his work he lost his balance and fell into the water, which at that place was exceptionally swift and deep. His fellow workmen had no time to throw him and could only stand by and see him drown. He leaves a wife and three children who are almost prostrated by the accident. Mr. Ellsworth worked for the S. P. at Lyons and for the Hammond Lumber company as well, at odd times. He was 45 years old.

Mrs. Mable Crabtree is now employed at the Stayton Hotel. Wm. Petzel is in Portland on business connected with the Brown-Petzel Lumber company.

Word was received here this week of the death of Mrs. B. A. Churchill in California. Mr. Churchill was at one time superintendent of the Woolen Mills here. During their stay in Stayton, the Churchills made many friends who will be grieved to learn of Mrs. Churchill's death.

Willard Goodman is in Pendleton looking for a location. Mrs. Goodman will join him later.

Mrs. Wm. Mendel and children are visiting in Salem this week.

Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp entertained on Wednesday evening, the members of the Brode Club and an enjoyable time is reported.

John Crabtree has gone to Eastern Oregon.

C. E. Taylor has commenced the erection of a residence on the ditch at the foot of Third street on the ground where the Electric Light company's office formerly stood.

John Thomas, of the Brown-Petzel Lumber company, is in Portland this week on business.

Marsters May Run For U. S. Senator

Friends of A. C. Marsters, of Roseburg, president of the state fair board, say he will soon announce his candidacy for the republican nomination for U. S. senator. When Senator Lane died Marsters was mentioned as his possible successor by appointment, and since that time he has been urged by his friends to enter the contest. He has also received a number of petitions requesting him to make the race. Mr. Marsters has been a member of the state fair board for a number of years and a few days ago was elected its president to succeed W. H. Savage, of Corvallis. It is also stated that State Senator Huston, of Portland is still a possibility as a candidate. This would make the race between four, but the lists are still open and there may be others willing to enliven the primary election by going before the voters for the senatorial nomination.

Buy Thrift Stamps—Sentence

Bend, Or., Jan. 11.—Charles Steinfeld of Redmond must buy $1 worth of war savings stamps weekly for the duration of the war or go to jail. This was the sentence imposed by a justice of the peace before whom the youth was brought on a charge of desecrating the American flag.

Want Eight Hour Day

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 11.—Initiative petitions to have the eight hour day question placed before Washington's voters, is on file. The socialist party is said to be back of the measure which seeks to have the eight hour day universal for all classes of workers.

WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.

Fern, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with back-ache and dragging down pains so badly that at times I could not be on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different medicines without any benefit and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I got up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to a factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. ANNA METERIANO, 36 West 10th St., Fern, Ind.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
