California Plants Were Closed by Garfield

San Francisco, Jan. 19.—A dozen California plants were closed by the government today as part of the national coal conservation program announced by Fuel Administrator Garfield.

That California, previously excluded from Garfield's order closing industries for five days, may soon be affected, was believed by many. Under the first order to affect California industries, plants manufacturing boxboard, paper board, pulpboard and any boards made from white waste paper or rags can burn no fuel oil, coke, coal or petroleum products. This order was issued by A. E. Schwabacker, California fuel administrator.

It will be effective from Saturday morning to Monday morning until further notice. The California Paper Board company and the Graham Mills are the largest concerns affected here.

The California Paper and Board company, with headquarters here, has plants at Los Angeles, Antioch, Cal., and at Sumner, Wash. It was stated at the offices of the company that all of these closed today. Whether several hundred persons affected will be paid for time off has not been decided, it was said.

The Crown-Willamette plant here was also affected by the order.

Those Married Since May 17 Not Exempt

Washington, Jan. 21.—Men of draft age married since May 18, 1917, should not be exempted from selective service, Provost Marshal General Crowder announced today.

He instructed government agents to appeal to district boards all classes in which local boards have granted dependency exemption to men married after May 18.

At the same time, Crowder ruled that no draft registrants will be permitted to enlist in the armies of the allies, pending call to this country's flag.

SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DIBBLE

Coming as a decided surprise to their friends was the news of the marriage of Miss Mabel E. James to Frank D. Bowman, Saturday evening at Eugene. The ceremony took place at the Methodist church of that city, Rev. George H. Parkinson officiating.

The young couple left immediately afterwards for Long Beach, California, where they will spend their honeymoon. Both the bride and bridegroom are well known in Salem. Mrs. Bowman being an active member of the First Methodist church, and Mr. Bowman a member of the Leslie M. E. church.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. H. C. Epley opened her home to the members of the Local Woman's class of the First Christian church with Mrs. Stone, Mrs. De Groot, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Cave and Mrs. Hendrick as additional hostesses. Some time was spent with a business meeting an interesting program following, including a solo by Miss Bernita McKinney; reading by Mrs. Porter; solo, Miss Gladys Hill.

About sixty guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of these hostesses and while delicious refreshments were being served, participated in a game furnished by Mrs. Richards who had charge of the program.

The Superfluity Shop will be with us again this week, such has been the constant demand for the wide assortment of salable articles, displayed on its shelves. Not only has the latest wares, such as clothing, but the response to contributions for the Shop was equally gratifying. The proceeds will continue to be devoted to the Armenian fund for several days.

The need for shoes of all kinds, is still urgent, with added inquiries for men's clothing.

As a result of the larger cities, the Superfluity Shop in the center, just now, around which the day's program of the busy lady of affairs revolves. Even the minor social interests, which, despite the crowded moments of the foreground to a certain extent, as offering a necessary relaxation from strenuous relief activities, are temporarily shelved, and precious time and thought concentrated on making the Superfluity shops successful ventures. Without a doubt, future records will characterize the Superfluity shop as a unique institution arising, mushroom fashion, in response to the peculiar needs of the times, which, contrary to the habits of most novel undertakings, did not soon cease to be novel, but kept the anticipation of its patrons constant alert, as to what this huge surprise packet would reveal tomorrow.

Of interest to musical circles in Salem is the following comment from the musical columns of the Oregonian: "The Ladies' Glee club of the Willamette university, Salem, will give its Salem concert on the evening of January 28, according to an announcement made by Dr. Chace, the director. The club made a decided hit both here and at Albany last year and efforts are being made to secure another engagement at the latter place. Mrs. A. A. Schramm has been selected as the official accompanist.

"There are 19 members in the club, as follows: First sopranos, Lela McCadden, Alene Dunbar, Margaret Wibble, Lois Cooley, Mariel Steeves and Alberta Gaudier; second sopranos, Grace Sherwood, Evadne McCully, Louise Benson, Irene Cotton and Florence Skirley; first altos, Venita McKinney, Maude McLean, Carolyn Stelling and Velma Baker; second altos, Esther Anderson, Mildred Howarth, Evelyn DeLong and Beatrice Dunnette."

NON-PARTISAN MOVE STARTED IN OREGON

Grangers, Farmers and Labor Outline Action at Meeting Held in Portland

Portland, Or., Jan. 21.—Immediate organization of a non-partisan league in this state was decided upon at an executive meeting of between 30 and 40 members of the State Federation of Labor, the Grange and the Farmers' Union at the Multnomah hotel Saturday. Whether the proposed organization shall be affiliated with the national non-partisan league or shall merely be patterned after the North Dakota league was left to a special committee consisting of C. E. Spence, master of the Grange; Hector Macpherson, of the Oregon Agricultural college; E. J. Stack, secretary State Federation of Labor; J. A. Smith, of the Farmers' Union, and C. L. McKenna of Portland.

This committee was also constituted the executive committee of the embryo organization formed Saturday and which is without official designation as yet other than the "convention of Oregon citizens called to consider progressive legislation." Its members are authorized to outline a plan of organization and submit its report and recommendations to another meeting of the assembly. This will probably be done within the next 30 days.

Recommendations are Approved

At its preliminary meeting Saturday which was held behind closed doors after newspaper reporters and all others not qualified delegates had been excluded, the convention unanimously adopted the report of its legislative committee and declared in favor of the establishment of a one-house legislature of not to exceed 30 members, utilization of the state's natural resources and public utilities for the common good, establishment of an effective state marketing system, incorporation of the anti-injunction features of the Sherman anti-trust law into a state statute and compulsory compensation, applying to all gainful occupations.

J. D. Brown of this city, president of the Farmers' Union, was elected president of the convention. Other officers chosen were: C. M. Rynerson of Portland, secretary; C. E. Spence, master of State Grange, first vice president; M. M. Burton, member legislative committee of State Grange, second vice president, and O. R. Hartwig, president State Federation of Labor, third vice president.

TO HAVE PERFECT SKIN THROUGHOUT THE WINTER

These days the face and hands need special care and attention. Strong winds, quick changes of temperature from indoors to outdoors, are severe on the skin. Their despoiling effects are best overcome by the application of pure merozilized wax. This keeps skin and pores in a cleanly condition, the complexion beautifully white and spotless. Cracked, reddened, blotchy and roughened cuticle are actually absorbed by it. One ounce of merozilized wax, obtainable at any drug store, is sufficient to completely renovate a weather beaten complexion. It is used like cold cream, allowed to remain on over night and washed off in the morning.

As the skin tends to expand in a warm atmosphere, cheeks and chin to sag and wrinkles to form, a good astringent lotion should be used by the woman who keeps pretty much indoors these days. Dissolve one ounce powdered sorbolite in one half pint witch hazel. Bathe the face in this morning or before going out for theater or social affair. It is a remarkable skin tightener and wrinkle eraser.

A committee consisting of G. E. Sanderson, State Senator Pierce and J. A. Smith, was adopted by the convention: "Whereas, we are engaged in a war which we believe is a death struggle to maintain the principles of liberty under which we have lived happy and prosperous lives and which we feel will decide for the world whether the nations shall live under democracy or autocracy;

"Resolved, that we consider the winning of the war the all important work, that we pledge our lives, our fortunes, the lives of our sons, and our sacred honor to fight for victory.

"Resolved, that we oppose the use of money and labor on any work that does not have its immediate purpose the winning of the war; and be it further

"Resolved, that while the war is going on, and for all time thereafter, that it is our duty to keep our eyes on the money, so that we may not rob our people of the fruits of their honest labor."

Among the more prominent men attending Saturday's gathering and participating in its deliberations were: J. D. Brown, O. R. Hartwig, C. E. Spence, E. J. Stack, C. M. Rynerson, A. W. Lawrence; State Senator Walter Brock, Dr. C. J. Smith, Colonel Robert A. Miller, M. M. Burton, C. L. McKenna, J. A. Smith, Professor Hector Macpherson and Professor O. H. Goldman, both of Corvallis.

"porkless" days per week and at least one "porkless" meal each day.

This announcement was made a few days ago by Federal Food Administrator W. B. Ayer, by direct order of the U. S. food administrator, Herbert C. Hoover, who telegraphed that this regulation would apply throughout Oregon, Washington, Idaho, California, Nevada and Arizona until March 13, on account of the accumulation in those states of cattle and sheep meat which cannot be moved eastward until that date because of traffic congestion.

"Following out its policy of making no unnecessary restrictions or causing any unavoidable hardship, the food administration has removed all restrictions on beef, veal, mutton and lamb until March 13," said T. W. Stenloff, county food administrator. "after which date the former regulations will probably be in force again. But as hog products are most needed at the front, special restrictions have been put upon pork, and the administration wishes these regulations strictly observed. Ham, bacon and salt pork, for obvious reasons, are the best and most convenient meats for the use of the armies, and for that reason we must conserve hog products, especially Tuesdays and Saturdays are the official porkless days, and we are asked to observe at least one porkless meal a day. Patriotic people who want to do all they can to help the food administration in its important work will be able to do much better than this, particularly since all restrictions have been removed from the other meats until March 13."

GOING BACK TO SERVICE

Some merchandise used to wear too long to suit the purchaser when style was more important than wearing quality.

That was before the United States entered the war. Now, however, the Government is urging that Freak Styles, which are subject to frequent changes, should be avoided and that merchandise which will wear a long time be selected with a view of economizing so that we may win the war.

Merchandise is changing from style to service very rapidly.

Of course there will always be a certain element of style to consider but our Government suggests that conservative styles should prevail until the close of the war.

Unless you have kept posted upon conditions existing in factory districts, you cannot realize what a shortage there will be as soon as stocks now on hand are exhausted.

Most merchants have large reserve stocks and are earnestly trying to protect their customers against the heavy advances which must come soon, as retail prices are actually below wholesale prices in a great many lines.

YOU Can Help Merchants Keep Prices Down

By being reasonable in your demands for service.

PAY CASH for Everything You Buy

Don't ask to have small packages delivered.

Don't complain about slight imperfections in merchandise which are almost unavoidable under present conditions, because there is an unusual demand and factories are short of help and raw material and are operating only about 60 per cent of their capacity and the Government needs demand half of their output.

Every unreasonable demand you make upon a merchant adds to the expense of doing business, which means higher prices.
