STEWART FOR BANK EXAMINER NAMED BY STATE BANKING BOARD

Governor Withycombe As Expected Voives His Opposition to Sargent's Selection

The resignation of S. G. Sargent as superintendent of banks was accepted today at a meeting of the state banking board and Charles H. Stewart, who has been assistant superintendent for the last four years, was named as acting superintendent. Mr. Sargent's resignation takes effect at noon tomorrow, at which time he will begin his new work as examiner for the federal reserve bank at San Francisco. Mr. Stewart's appointment as acting superintendent is only temporary as only two members of the state banking board were present at today's meeting and a superintendent will not be elected until State Treasurer Kay, the third member of the board, returns from the east. Governor Withycombe and Secretary of State Olcott were the two members of the board present today.

ALLIES PREPARE DRIVE WITH GREAT ARMY IN BALKAN REGION

Expect Greece to Add Four Hundred Thousand Men Next Spring Washington, Feb. 4.—More than 1,200,000 allied troops will be available by March 31 for the impending drive to break Germany's backbone in the Balkans, it was learned officially today. Greece, the intenable factor in the allies' plans thus far, will be able to muster four hundred thousand fighting men at Salonika within the next two months, the cables declared. Athens cables received here today state that the mobilization of eleven classes, ordered by Imperial edict, is proceeding rapidly. More than 100,000 men will answer the call, Greek military officials said, adding that 120,000 trained and equipped Greek troops are now at the Salonika front.

SURGEON MURDERED WITHOUT WARNING AT UNION IRON WORKS

San Francisco, Feb. 4.—Dr. W. E. Buell, head surgeon of the Union Iron Works here was murdered at noon today by an unidentified man who walked into the receiving room of the Union Iron Works hospital and shot the physician down without warning. The slayer then turned his revolver upon himself, inflicting a wound which will probably prove fatal. Dr. Buell died before he could be taken to the operating room of the hospital. The assailant was rushed to the Potrero hospital and is dying there. He made every effort to conceal his identity, having destroyed all papers and identification marks about his clothing before entering the Union Iron Works hospital. That the murder had been carefully pre-arranged was indicated by a blood soaked note found written in Italian found in the slayer's pocket. This was partially deciphered by detectives. It read: "I am glad, what I am about to do" "The name and other writing were obscured by blood. The shooting occurred at noon in the waiting room of the Iron Works hospital. The slayer appeared at the hospital at 10 o'clock and said he wished to see Dr. Buell. The doctor was very busy at the time and the man waited in an ante room for two hours, refusing to see any other physician. As Dr. Buell entered the waiting room the man rose, took a revolver from his pocket and fired. The bullet entered the breast just above the heart. Dr. Buell collapsed on the floor and died without uttering a word. The man then placed the barrel of his revolver against his head and fired just as hospital attendants rushed in. A near panic followed in the hospital but order was quickly restored. The slayer, although conscious, refused to make any statement. Iron Works officials are completely mystified as to the motive which prompted the murder. So far as is known, not a word passed between Dr. Buell and the assailant before the shots were fired. Attendants who were in an adjoining room did not hear a sound after Dr. Buell entered the ante room until the first shot startled them. This was not more than thirty seconds after the surgeon had met the man.

SALEM MAN CURED OF CANCER

To the People of Salem: I suffered from cancer on the end of my nose for three years and was told it was incurable. I went to Dr. S. C. Stone for treatment. He applied a paste for four days and then a simple ointment. In a few days the cancer fell out and the place healed over and is now sound and well. —JOHN McDONALD. South Church St., Salem, Oregon.
