

GRAVELLY'S
CELEBRATED
Real Chewing Plug
Keeps Strictly for its Chewing Quality

Before the invention of our Patent Air Proof Pouch Many Dealers Could Not Keep the Flavor and Freshness in REAL GRAVELLY PLUG TOBACCO. Now the Patent Pouch Keeps it Fresh and Clean and Good. A Little Chew of Gravelly is Enough and Lasts Longer than a big chew of ordinary plug.

P. J. Gravelly, Tobacco Co. Danvers, N. H.

YOU OUGHT TO THANK THAT TRAFFIC COP FOR HOLDING THE CROWD BACK IT GIVES YOU A CHANCE TO READ THE GOOD NEWS ON MY BILLBOARD, IT'S A FREE EDUCATION IN TOBACCO.

LOOK FOR THE PROTECTION SEAL—IT IS NOT REAL GRAVELLY WITHOUT THIS SEAL

CHUCK WARD HOPE OF DODGER TEAM

Young Second Baseman Expected Greatly to Strengthen Aggregation

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 6.—With young Chuck Ward at second base the Dodgers will enter the 1918 season with just that much of a jump on their prospects at the beginning of the 1917 pennant campaign.

Champions when the last season opened, the Dodgers, nevertheless, did not look like pennant winners. For one thing the Giants had been strengthened to such an extent that they were practically certain winners. Again, there was not color in the Brooklyn club's make-up.

There is no color now to the Dodgers. They form just a good baseball machine, a first division team this year, the chances are, but not pennant possibilities in any sense of the phrase.

In Al Mannaux the Dodgers have acquired one of the acknowledged young stars of the game. Ward, who is there who can say that Mannaux really was laying off last year, because he wanted to and not because his arm had lost its cunning? Further, in the loss of Cadore, Sherrod Smith and Edward Pfeffer to the army the pitching staff has been hit so hard as to make Mannaux's acquisition practically negligible. It will fall upon Mannaux, Rubo Margard, and Clarence Mitchell to carry the brunt of the season's work among the pitchers. They are capable, but not fit for the duty of pitching a club to a pennant.

Jake Daubert is a weak point in the Dodger infield. Daubert has been credited with being a star for so long that it is a generally accepted fact he is just that. He is a fair ball player, and a little over-rated to that. In the deal which brought Ward to the Dodgers and sent Cutshaw to Pittsburgh the Dodgers profited for they obtained a fine young player in exchange for a veteran whose usefulness was becoming practically nil. The infield, then, probably will be made up as it was last year, with Olson at shortstop and O'Rourke at third base.

The Dodger outfield was weakened some by the loss of Casey Stengel, but the Dodgers still have in Hickman, Myers and Wheat one of the fine outfields of baseball. Jimmy Johnston, also, is present for substitute duty.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LATE CHAMPION

Large Concourse of Mourners Follow Sullivan's Body to Grave

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Boston, Mass., Feb. 6.—With the little St. Paul's church, Roxbury, crowded with mourning survivors of the passed age of pugilism, funeral services were held today for John L. Sullivan, who died Saturday at his home near Abington. In the throng that packed the church corridors and followed in a solemn procession behind the huge mahogany casket was at least one man who had braved the Sullivan fist, but who had lived to mourn his death. He was Jake Kilrain.

The Rev. Frederick J. Allehin was celebrant at solemn high mass. Assisting him in the services were the Rev. John Lyons, pastor of the Abington church which John L. attended and the Rev. William A. Connor.

Last night saw no diminution in the crowd of men, women and children who wanted to take a last look at doughty old John L. Most of the visitors to the Roxbury home of Mrs. Annie E. Lennon sister of the former fighter, were persons who had known him.

Sullivan sleeps now in Calvary cemetery by the side of his father and mother. A grave was dug for the old warrior in the shadow of the evergreens and on a slight slope where the sun will greet it every morning.

Boston's silk and Boston's cotton rubbed shoulders in old St. Paul's Catholic church as the building was jammed at the greatest tribute paid a sporting man. Not in this country, nor any other did a man renowned as a boxer ever go to his burial grounds with such a following as John L. Sullivan.

The body of the old fighter was taken from the home of his sister, Mrs. Annie E. Lennon. Three streets near the house were jammed. People came in automobiles; they came in wagons and buggies, and they came on foot. For blocks away from the house the streets were lined with automobiles and other conveyances. Police lines finally were formed.

From the house to the church is only a short distance. Friends of the old fighter, and of the family followed the coffin on foot over the icy streets and through the biting weather. At the church another crowd was waiting. Police had cleared a path before the coffin could be taken from the hearse to the door.

Over the entrance a huge service flag with its many stars forming a cross of black on the background of white and red, flapped in the frigid gale that whipped around the corners.

Inside the church the crowd was motley. Red faced, rough laborers took their seats alongside fur-coated brokers, lawyers and doctors and bowed their heads as solemn high mass was said for the warrior. The smell of burning incense, the intonations of the priests and the silver notes of four women singers gave a strange atmosphere to the passing of the famous gladiator. The beautiful service of the Roman Catholic church and its solemnity brought many a sob from women in the audience.

James J. Corbett was not among those present. The man who conquered Sul-

SILVERTON MAN IS IN AN AUTO CRASH

His Machine Overtakes Hotel Bus In Portland, Killing Small Child

Portland, Or., Feb. 6.—Erma Louise Graham, 4 years old, was killed instantly; her sister, Pauline, aged 2 1/2 years was injured, and Miss Margaret Graham, aunt of the babies, sustained a lacerated hand in the overturning of the Oregon hotel bus at Sixth and Everett streets in a collision with an automobile driven by Irl B. Lyons, a plumber at Silverton, Or., at 5:30 o'clock last night.

The father of the babies is W. A. Graham of Dallas, whose wife disappeared September 7, 1917, with E. R. Viers of Portland. It was believed that the couple were drowned by the sinking of a small boat off Garibaldi, Or., but later it was virtually established they were not, but had probably eloped.

Bus Headed South
Miss Graham was taking the babies to Hood River, Or., where they were to be left with relatives. She had just arrived at the Union station from Dallas, and took the bus to the Oregon hotel.

The bus was headed south on Sixth street, with C. A. Elliott of the Vernon hotel, at the wheel. Mr. Lyons was driving west on Everett street.

The bus was overtaken by the collision. Miss Graham and the children were sitting on the left hand side of the vehicle, which turned on its right side.

Death Comes Quickly
All were thrown violently across the bus. Erma Louise struck the window with her head, crashed through the glass, and sustained crushing injuries about the head when the heavy car jammed her against the pavement. She died before internees from the Emergency hospital arrived.

Mr. Elliott, who was driving the bus at Sixth and Davis streets last December, had a floral horseshoe with the explanation that he could not come personally. Jake Kilrain, however was there. Dan Dwyer, another famous old relic of early prize ring days, also was there. There were many others of lesser renown. Former Mayor Curley of Boston and others high in political life in this section paid a last tribute.

"Yank" Sullivan, another old timer, followed the body of his old friend to its last resting place.

Stunned by the loss of the man he loved, Billy Kelly, the 14-year old orphan who lived with John L., was a pathetic figure when he followed close behind the hearse.

You can not afford to have the "Sniffles"

DR. KING'S NEW Discovery
for Coughs & Colds

makes it unnecessary for you to be annoyed by that dragging cold in the head. When your eyes begin to water, when you become feverish and when you begin to sneeze, take Dr. King's New Discovery—the popular remedy for 50 years. Knock that congestion, break up that hacking cough—give Dr. King's New Discovery a chance to put you in good shape. Buy it at your druggist.

An Active Liver Means Health
If you want good health, a clear complexion and freedom from Dizziness, Constipation, Biliousness, Headaches and Indigestion, take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They drive out fermenting and undigested foods and give quick relief. All druggists.

ber when the car ran down and killed a man named Johnson, says that he was nearly across the intersection of the streets when the other machine caught his car squarely. Elliott was on the right hand side of Lyons' machine and had the right of way.

Ball Fined
Lyons was arrested by Motorcycle Patrolmen Gouldstone and Crane, and Patrolmen Redkald and Schuppius and charged with failure to observe the traffic law giving the right of way to a machine approaching from the right side of a street intersection. His bail was fixed at $1000, which he had been unable to furnish at a late hour.

Pauline Graham sustained a lacerated hand and a bruise on the head. Her injuries are not considered serious. Miss Graham sustained cuts from glass, one piece of which was removed from her hand at the Emergency hospital. She was almost prostrated from the shock of the baby's death.

RHEUMATIC PAINS
Quickly Eased By Penetrating Hamlin's Wizard Oil

A safe and harmless preparation to relieve the pains of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lame Back and Lumbago is Hamlin's Wizard Oil. It penetrates quickly, drives out soreness, and limbers up stiff aching joints and muscles.

You will find almost daily uses for it in cases of sudden mishaps or accidents such as sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as reliable, too, for carache, toothache, cramp and colic.

Get it from druggists for 30 cents. If not satisfied return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever constipated or have sick headache? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills, 30 cents. Guaranteed.

JOB PRINTING THAT
Gives you satisfaction—and Rates you can afford to pay—

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL

FAMOUS WAR HEROES WHO HAVE DONE THEIR BIT, BUT HAVE GONE BACK GLADLY TO DO EVEN MORE

Major W. A. Bishop, V. C., D. S. O. and Major Niven, D. S. O. and M. C., are two of the most distinguished officers of the original "Princess Pats" (Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry) now in service, should inspire every Britisher and Canadian of military age for war service. Major Niven has probably seen more continuous service at the front in France than any other officer. He has hammered the Germans and been hammered by them for three years, and yet, after a short rest, he has gone back to help lead the glorious "Princess Pats" to new victories. At the second battle of Ypres detachments to the right and left of his men were forced back because of heavy casualties, and Niven was ordered to retreat.

"I played it like a game of poker," the major said modestly, in describing the situation. "I had only a pair of dirty deuces, but I didn't think the other fellow knew it, so I bluff him and refused to let him call me." Although almost surrounded, he held out until dark when reinforcements came. For this plucky, bull-dog defence, and for a similar achievement when he held out with only forty men, Major Niven received the distinguished service star and the Military Cross. In referring to the German gas-out system and its effect upon the German morale, the major says he observed that the Germans "don't like to come out where the noise is."

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

Advertised February 5, 1918—Burley, Mr. Jack; Brooks, Mr. V.; Barnard, Mrs. A. S.; Carlton, Mrs. Frank L.; Carr, Mr. Chas.; Case, E. C.; Central Garage, Cook, Mr. Ivan; Dorr, Miss Hazel; Gardner, Miss Hazel; Lindakay, N. A.; McClallen, Mrs. F. L.; Marley, Mr. C. E.; Mason, Mrs. Sarah; Maxwell, Mrs. Lula; Miller, Mrs. Joe; Mitchell, Miss Velma; Parker, Mr. Joe; Post, Miss Helen; Scott, Mrs. Jessie; Smith, D. B.; Turner, Elmer; Warner, Mrs. S. E.; Wilson, Master Kenneth; Williams, Mr. Arthur.

AUGUST HUCKESTEIN,
Postmaster.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT

(Continued from page one)

it was declared, and violent fighting is under way in that vicinity.

Viborg is situated on an arm of the Gulf of Linnand, 100 miles northwest of Petrograd.

German Ultimatum.
Zurich, Feb. 6.—Germany favors issuance of an ultimatum to the Russian maximalists, demanding immediate acceptance of the Teutonic peace terms—and in case of refusal will march on may appeal any rate decision to the president and that the president shall have the power to order an investigation by the interstate commerce commission of any injustices reported to him.

RETURNS RAILROADS

(Continued from page one)

The bills probably will be delayed in both houses by the present display of oratory, but both Chairman Smith and Chairman Sims today or tomorrow will ask unanimous consent for early consideration.

Peace With Annexations Opposed In Germany

Amsterdam, Feb. 6.—The general strike of workers of the central powers showed the world they did not want a peace with annexations. Wilhelm Dittmann, socialist member of the German reichstag declared during his court martial Monday, it was learned here today.

"The strike broke out because the prolonged state of siege makes war unbearable," asserted Dittmann, "and on account of the agitation by the Fatherlanders and Pan-Germans. The strike had only a demonstrative value, in showing the world we workers only want a peace with no annexations."

RESUMING WORK

Zurich, Feb. 6.—"Of the 300,000 workers striking in Berne in on Friday, 139,000 have resumed work," Wolff's Agency declared today.

Peace With Annexations Opposed In Germany

Amsterdam, Feb. 6.—The general strike of workers of the central powers showed the world they did not want a peace with annexations. Wilhelm Dittmann, socialist member of the German reichstag declared during his court martial Monday, it was learned here today.

"The strike broke out because the prolonged state of siege makes war unbearable," asserted Dittmann, "and on account of the agitation by the Fatherlanders and Pan-Germans. The strike had only a demonstrative value, in showing the world we workers only want a peace with no annexations."

Peace With Annexations Opposed In Germany

Amsterdam, Feb. 6.—The general strike of workers of the central powers showed the world they did not want a peace with annexations. Wilhelm Dittmann, socialist member of the German reichstag declared during his court martial Monday, it was learned here today.

"The strike broke out because the prolonged state of siege makes war unbearable," asserted Dittmann, "and on account of the agitation by the Fatherlanders and Pan-Germans. The strike had only a demonstrative value, in showing the world we workers only want a peace with no annexations."

Aumsville News

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Aumsville, Feb. 6.—Miss Ethel McDonald spent the week end in Salem, visiting relatives.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Speer, February 1st, a boy to be called Robert Eldon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murphy of Salem spent the week end at the home of their daughter, Mrs. S. S. Swank. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Birdie Tyler of Buell, Idaho, who will make an extended visit in the valley.

C. M. Miller spent Sunday with his family in this city. Mr. Miller is associated with his brothers in a saw mill near Selo, and when their contracts are filled there, will probably move the mill to this vicinity.

Mrs. T. W. Johnson will leave today to look after business interests in Bidde. She will remain several weeks.

J. B. Roelke of this vicinity has a position as bookkeeper at the Oregon City paper mills.

Matt Reed, who was severely injured in an automobile accident, on the Columbia river highway last week, is able to be out again.

About $200 worth of war saving stamps have been purchased by the pupils of the school.

RAILROAD BILL REPORTED

Washington, Feb. 6.—The railroad bill, after being redrafted so that it practically conforms to the senate bill was reported out favorably by the house interstate commerce committee this afternoon.

The house bill limits federal control to two years after peace is signed; gives the rate fixing power to the interstate commerce commission and makes as the basis of compensation on the net operating income for the last three years.

LOAN TO BELGIUM

Washington, Feb. 6.—Another loan to Belgium of $3,500,000 was announced today. This makes the total loan to Belgium $73,400,000.

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY

Washington, Feb. 6.—Another loan to Belgium of $3,500,000 was announced today. This makes the total loan to Belgium $73,400,000.

CHUCK WARD HOPE OF DODGER TEAM

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 6.—With young Chuck Ward at second base the Dodgers will enter the 1918 season with just that much of a jump on their prospects at the beginning of the 1917 pennant campaign.

Champions when the last season opened, the Dodgers, nevertheless, did not look like pennant winners. For one thing the Giants had been strengthened to such an extent that they were practically certain winners. Again, there was not color in the Brooklyn club's make-up.

There is no color now to the Dodgers. They form just a good baseball machine, a first division team this year, the chances are, but not pennant possibilities in any sense of the phrase.

In Al Mannaux the Dodgers have acquired one of the acknowledged young stars of the game. Ward, who is there who can say that Mannaux really was laying off last year, because he wanted to and not because his arm had lost its cunning? Further, in the loss of Cadore, Sherrod Smith and Edward Pfeffer to the army the pitching staff has been hit so hard as to make Mannaux's acquisition practically negligible. It will fall upon Mannaux, Rubo Margard, and Clarence Mitchell to carry the brunt of the season's work among the pitchers. They are capable, but not fit for the duty of pitching a club to a pennant.

Jake Daubert is a weak point in the Dodger infield. Daubert has been credited with being a star for so long that it is a generally accepted fact he is just that. He is a fair ball player, and a little over-rated to that. In the deal which brought Ward to the Dodgers and sent Cutshaw to Pittsburgh the Dodgers profited for they obtained a fine young player in exchange for a veteran whose usefulness was becoming practically nil. The infield, then, probably will be made up as it was last year, with Olson at shortstop and O'Rourke at third base.

The Dodger outfield was weakened some by the loss of Casey Stengel, but the Dodgers still have in Hickman, Myers and Wheat one of the fine outfields of baseball. Jimmy Johnston, also, is present for substitute duty.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR LATE CHAMPION

By H. C. Hamilton
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Boston, Mass., Feb. 6.—With the little St. Paul's church, Roxbury, crowded with mourning survivors of the passed age of pugilism, funeral services were held today for John L. Sullivan, who died Saturday at his home near Abington. In the throng that packed the church corridors and followed in a solemn procession behind the huge mahogany casket was at least one man who had braved the Sullivan fist, but who had lived to mourn his death. He was Jake Kilrain.

The Rev. Frederick J. Allehin was celebrant at solemn high mass. Assisting him in the services were the Rev. John Lyons, pastor of the Abington church which John L. attended and the Rev. William A. Connor.

Last night saw no diminution in the crowd of men, women and children who wanted to take a last look at doughty old John L. Most of the visitors to the Roxbury home of Mrs. Annie E. Lennon sister of the former fighter, were persons who had known him.

Sullivan sleeps now in Calvary cemetery by the side of his father and mother. A grave was dug for the old warrior in the shadow of the evergreens and on a slight slope where the sun will greet it every morning.

Boston's silk and Boston's cotton rubbed shoulders in old St. Paul's Catholic church as the building was jammed at the greatest tribute paid a sporting man. Not in this country, nor any other did a man renowned as a boxer ever go to his burial grounds with such a following as John L. Sullivan.

The body of the old fighter was taken from the home of his sister, Mrs. Annie E. Lennon. Three streets near the house were jammed. People came in automobiles; they came in wagons and buggies, and they came on foot. For blocks away from the house the streets were lined with automobiles and other conveyances. Police lines finally were formed.

From the house to the church is only a short distance. Friends of the old fighter, and of the family followed the coffin on foot over the icy streets and through the biting weather. At the church another crowd was waiting. Police had cleared a path before the coffin could be taken from the hearse to the door.

Over the entrance a huge service flag with its many stars forming a cross of black on the background of white and red, flapped in the frigid gale that whipped around the corners.

Inside the church the crowd was motley. Red faced, rough laborers took their seats alongside fur-coated brokers, lawyers and doctors and bowed their heads as solemn high mass was said for the warrior. The smell of burning incense, the intonations of the priests and the silver notes of four women singers gave a strange atmosphere to the passing of the famous gladiator. The beautiful service of the Roman Catholic church and its solemnity brought many a sob from women in the audience.

James J. Corbett was not among those present. The man who conquered Sul-

SILVERTON MAN IS IN AN AUTO CRASH

Portland, Or., Feb. 6.—Erma Louise Graham, 4 years old, was killed instantly; her sister, Pauline, aged 2 1/2 years was injured, and Miss Margaret Graham, aunt of the babies, sustained a lacerated hand in the overturning of the Oregon hotel bus at Sixth and Everett streets in a collision with an automobile driven by Irl B. Lyons, a plumber at Silverton, Or., at 5:30 o'clock last night.

The father of the babies is W. A. Graham of Dallas, whose wife disappeared September 7, 1917, with E. R. Viers of Portland. It was believed that the couple were drowned by the sinking of a small boat off Garibaldi, Or., but later it was virtually established they were not, but had probably eloped.

Bus Headed South
Miss Graham was taking the babies to Hood River, Or., where they were to be left with relatives. She had just arrived at the Union station from Dallas, and took the bus to the Oregon hotel.

The bus was headed south on Sixth street, with C. A. Elliott of the Vernon hotel, at the wheel. Mr. Lyons was driving west on Everett street.

The bus was overtaken by the collision. Miss Graham and the children were sitting on the left hand side of the vehicle, which turned on its right side.

Death Comes Quickly
All were thrown violently across the bus. Erma Louise struck the window with her head, crashed through the glass, and sustained crushing injuries about the head when the heavy car jammed her against the pavement. She died before internees from the Emergency hospital arrived.

Mr. Elliott, who was driving the bus at Sixth and Davis streets last December, had a floral horseshoe with the explanation that he could not come personally. Jake Kilrain, however was there. Dan Dwyer, another famous old relic of early prize ring days, also was there. There were many others of lesser renown. Former Mayor Curley of Boston and others high in political life in this section paid a last tribute.

"Yank" Sullivan, another old timer, followed the body of his old friend to its last resting place.

Stunned by the loss of the man he loved, Billy Kelly, the 14-year old orphan who lived with John L., was a pathetic figure when he followed close behind the hearse.

RETURNS RAILROADS

(Continued from page one)

may appeal any rate decision to the president and that the president shall have the power to order an investigation by the interstate commerce commission of any injustices reported to him.

The bills probably will be delayed in both houses by the present display of oratory, but both Chairman Smith and Chairman Sims today or tomorrow will ask unanimous consent for early consideration.

Peace With Annexations Opposed In Germany

Amsterdam, Feb. 6.—The general strike of workers of the central powers showed the world they did not want a peace with annexations. Wilhelm Dittmann, socialist member of the German reichstag declared during his court martial Monday, it was learned here today.

"The strike broke out because the prolonged state of siege makes war unbearable," asserted Dittmann, "and on account of the agitation by the Fatherlanders and Pan-Germans. The strike had only a demonstrative value, in showing the world we workers only want a peace with no annexations."

RESUMING WORK

Zurich, Feb. 6.—"Of the 300,000 workers striking in Berne in on Friday, 139,000 have resumed work," Wolff's Agency declared today.

Peace With Annexations Opposed In Germany

Amsterdam, Feb. 6.—The general strike of workers of the central powers showed the world they did not want a peace with annexations. Wilhelm Dittmann, socialist member of the German reichstag declared during his court martial Monday, it was learned here today.

"The strike broke out because the prolonged state of siege makes war unbearable," asserted Dittmann, "and on account of the agitation by the Fatherlanders and Pan-Germans. The strike had only a demonstrative value, in showing the world we workers only want a peace with no annexations."

Aumsville News

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Aumsville, Feb. 6.—Miss Ethel McDonald spent the week end in Salem, visiting relatives.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Speer, February 1st, a boy to be called Robert Eldon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murphy of Salem spent the week end at the home of their daughter, Mrs. S. S. Swank. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Birdie Tyler of Buell, Idaho, who will make an extended visit in the valley.

C. M. Miller spent Sunday with his family in this city. Mr. Miller is associated with his brothers in a saw mill near Selo, and when their contracts are filled there, will probably move the mill to this vicinity.

Mrs. T. W. Johnson will leave today to look after business interests in Bidde. She will remain several weeks.

J. B. Roelke of this vicinity has a position as bookkeeper at the Oregon City paper mills.

Matt Reed, who was severely injured in an automobile accident, on the Columbia river highway last week, is able to be out again.

About $200 worth of war saving stamps have been purchased by the pupils of the school.

RAILROAD BILL REPORTED

Washington, Feb. 6.—The railroad bill, after being redrafted so that it practically conforms to the senate bill was reported out favorably by the house interstate commerce committee this afternoon.

The house bill limits federal control to two years after peace is signed; gives the rate fixing power to the interstate commerce commission and makes as the basis of compensation on the net operating income for the last three years.

LOAN TO BELGIUM

Washington, Feb. 6.—Another loan to Belgium of $3,500,000 was announced today. This makes the total loan to Belgium $73,400,000.

Farmres' Butchers, Dealers and Trappers ATTENTION

The Fur market is booming daily and very scarce on the present business fields of today. We are the largest buyers of RAW FURS, HIDES and TALLOW in the SECTION. That merchandise is High in Price way sell them as near as a person might say give them away for HALF NOTHING. We pay you the very best Market Prices; we treat you fair and square. And it don't make a bit of difference whether you are present here personally or not, you get the same service, the very same deals. No confidential prices, one to all. That's how we gain our reputation, that's how we grow.

Same that middleman's deals, get the profits yourself. TRY US. Our present quotations on Raw Hides is:

COW HIDES	17c to 22c per lb.
BULL HIDES	16c to 19 1/2c per lb.
CALF HIDES	24c to 34c per lb.
HORSE HIDES	$6.50 to $7.25 for full lengths.
TALLOW	13 1/2c to 17c per lb.
MUSKRATS FURS ARE WORTH	45c to $1.60
SKUNKS	$2.25 to $6.50
MINKS	$3.50 to $11.00
WEASELS	85c to $2.00
RED FOX	$9.00 to $30.00
WOLF	$6.50 to $17.00

We also buy many other kinds of Raw Furs such as Beaver, Bear, Raccoon, etc. Prices range according to colors and the different Grades of Furs.

Sheep pelts as to the value of wool and size of pelts The best way to ship raw hides and tallow is by freight.

The best way to ship raw furs and sheep pelts is by express or insured P. P.

Save this Advertisement, have this address ready and handy at all times and ship them to us. Get the price, get that value for them.

Prices subject to change without notice.

THE NORTHWESTERN HIDE & FUR CO.
OF HANCOCK, MICHIGAN