Arrested For Part To Assist German Raiders

San Francisco, Feb. 9.—Rolf Bartel, assistant storekeeper at Lane hospital and William B. Leeber, expert electrician, were arrested here today on presidential warrants charging connection with the sensational plots to furnish munitions and other supplies to German raiders off the South American coast. They are alleged to have been prominent in the plot, the discovery of which resulted in the seizure and internment of the steamer Cordova at Callao, Peru.

Deputy United States Marshal Bohm arrested the men. Papers and letters declared to be of value in the government's spy hunt are alleged to have been found. Shortly after these arrests, Gustave Wilde, cashier in a local cafe, was arrested on a presidential warrant as an undesirable alien. The exact nature of the evidence against him is not known. According to government agents Leeder and Bartel came here from South America in February 1917. Both have been under surveillance for several weeks. Both are said to have been officers on the Cordova.

and prizes were provided for those guessing the greatest number. Mrs. E. C. McKinney and Mrs. A. J. Davidson tied for the ladies' prize, the former winning on the draw, while Mr. Frank Davey captured the men's prize. A door prize was also awarded by drawing of numbers and it fell to Miss Gertrude Hartman. This and the costume prizes consisted of packages of Hooverizing breakfast food and the others were charming wall pictures. The fine program was rendered, consisting of singing of America by all present, a violin solo, by Miss May T. Schoettle, character sketches by Albert and Tinfiedel Schindler, song by Miss Frances O'Brien, patriotic recruit singing by Joseph and John Albrich, short reading by Frank Davey, farce "An Evening Kiss," by Sacred Heart Academy pupils, some lively tunes on "the bones," by Mr. Hill, singing of several old-time songs by the audience, including "Annie Laurie," "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," and "Captain Jinks," a vaudeville sketch by the Schindler brothers and an enthusiastic rendition of the Star Spangled Banner by the audience. This was followed by an old-time dance with Wm. H. Egan and Mr. Hill as "fiddlers" for the occasion. Coffee and sandwiches were served. Mr. Davey presided and Miss Shepherd was the accomplished pianist. Mrs. J. E. Heenan, Mrs. T. M. Barr, and Mrs. Frank Davey were the committee in charge, to whom a large share of the success of the affair was due.

One of the very pleasant affairs of the week was that given by the principal of the junior high school Paul Irvine at his home 604 Ferry street, Thursday evening in honor of the graduating class of the school. The members of the faculty and Superintendent and Mrs. John W. Todd were among the guests. Several musical selections were enjoyed, during the evening, Miss Maude Joy Bealls and Superintendent Todd giving a number of vocal solos, and the faculty quartette also contributing to the impromptu program. The faculty ladies assisted in serving refreshments.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Lorraine Poland, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Poland of Salem, to Edward J. Walsh, Jr., of Portland was announced this week. The wedding took place Wednesday at Tucson, Arizona. The young couple will make their residence at San Carlos, Arizona, the bridegroom being engaged in government work in Salem, where she possesses a large circle of friends. During the last year she has been serving in the capacity of private secretary to the W. P. Fuller company. Mr. Walsh comes from a well known Portland family, it is a member of the Multnomah Athletic club, and a graduate of the law school at the University of Oregon.

In honor of their retiring orator, Mrs. Sylvia Schupp, the Royal Neighbors held a reception in their lodge rooms recently. A pleasant afternoon was spent in work and visiting. At 6 o'clock dinner was served to about 40. The tables were decorated with pussy willow and wood ferns. Much credit was due the committee, Mesdames Schott, Neyhaas, and Reinhold.

A few friends gathered at the home of Miss Esther Miller for a delightful dinner party Wednesday evening, given in honor of her cousin, Miss Jessie Buell. Covers were laid for eight. The table was done in old rose and silver. The evening was passed with games and music. These participating were Miss Jessie Buell, Miss Grace Hill, Blanche Hill, Miss Helen Gardner, Miss Freda Close, Miss Corn Close and Miss Esther Miller.

A violin and piano recital featuring the pupils of Miss Joy Turner, was enjoyed by about one hundred guests last night, at Miss Turner's residence, 335 North Capitol street.

The ladies of St. Joseph's Catholic church were the organizers of a decidedly enjoyable affair Friday evening at their hall on Chemeketa street. It took the form of a "Village party," with the "Hard times" feature made prominent and the drollery of costumes worn by men and women caused ceaseless merriment. There were prizes given for the lady and gentleman most "appropriately" costumed for the occasion, which were awarded to Mrs. G. E. Schuneman and John Dezan. Numerous old pictures and photos of well known members of local families were tacked around the walls

JIM BARRY BEATEN

San Francisco, Feb. 9.—Jim Barry proved no match for K. O. Kravosky in their four round bout at Dreamland last night and Kravosky gained the decision easily.

FOWLER'S HOPES ENDED

LATE HOP NOTES.

It is reported that contracts have been signed up in California for more than 2000 bales of 1918 hops at 15 and 16 cents. Very few Oregon contracts are reported at any figure. A few orders from the East have been received by Portland hop dealers for spot hops, but at a cent or two under the price at which growers are willing to sell.

Among the recent hop sales reported is that of 25 bales by D. A. Keil to Tom Shortell at about 16 1/2 cents. Herman Smidt not long ago sold 37 bales from his Needy yard and another lot from his Carus yard at a price not made public. It is said the final purchasers were Seavey and Livesey.—Aurora Observer.

COLUMBIA GRANGE INDORSES KERR GRAB.

Globe, Oregon, Feb. 9.—At the last meeting of the Pomona Grange of Columbia county, the matter of the resolutions adopted by the Pomona Grange of Marion county were taken up and discussed together with the newspaper articles from that county in reference to the Agricultural College. It was agreed that the entire propaganda was of spiteful origin, without any foundation in fact and a contemptible twisting of events and circumstances calculated to bring injury to the state's leading institution of learning. The following resolutions were adopted:

Be It Resolved, that Pomona Grange of Columbia county, Oregon, do hereby express our utmost confidence in Dr. Kerr and the Board of Regents of the Oregon Agricultural college, and Be It Further Resolved, that we condemn the malicious and uncalled for recent action of the Marion county Pomona Grange in their disloyal and scurrilous attack and criticism of said Board of Regents and the president of the Oregon Agricultural college, and Be It Further Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the press of the state and to the president of said board of regents.

Turner Parent-Teachers' Association Program

(Capital Journal Special Service) Turner, Feb. 9.—One of the best school programs of the winter was given Friday evening by the parent-teacher association. The teachers certainly deserve an honorable mention for doing a lot of drilling and rehearsing together with the extra amount of school work they have to do. An exhibit of daily work was made by all. The program: America; Loyalty, chorus. Whistling solo, The Mocking Bird, Mrs. C. C. Clark. Dialogues: (a) Geo. Washington; (b) Sleeping Beauty, primary. Recitation, The Kaiser, Sam Pemberton. Song, Lucile Ransom, Margaret Wildridge, Katherine Young, Ethel Green, Sweet Adeline, Misses Sibyl Peetz, Mizba Pomerton and chorus. Dialogue—Scene from Uncle Tom's Cabin. Whistling—Mrs. Clark. How a Story Grows, Miss Cornelius. Song—We are going over there. Lessons, Supt. Smith. Selections by Glee club: (a) Daisies Won't Tell, diet and chorus; (b) Keep the home fires burning; (c) Star Spangled Banner.

Pearl P. Hassler, the Turner newspaper man, was in Salem Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Young are enjoying a visit from their son, who has been working in Portland.

Mrs. Waggoner entertains the ladies and their friends of the W. C. T. U. next Wednesday afternoon. This meeting is Mother's day. Mrs. Edith Ransom will move to Astoria in the near future. Clarence Forrest and Ralph Farrens are working at Astoria.

B. H. Robertson was taken to Salem Monday, to see a doctor. Appendicitis was thought to be the cause. J. E. Whitehead, Sr. received a telegram Saturday stating Bert was seriously ill with pneumonia. Monday another came saying he was considerably better but not out of danger.

John Watson and wife returned last week from Pasadena, Cal. Mr. Watson is much improved in health, but likes the Oregon best. Mrs. G. A. G. Moore entertained the Ladies Aid society last week. Miss Gums and Mrs. Wittschen were up from Salem a few days last week, renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. H. W. Smith was a Salem visitor Tuesday, the guest of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. S. Hussey. A crowd of ladies motored to Salem Tuesday evening to visit the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Simmons has gone to Portland for a few weeks. Mrs. Mildred Thiesen and Mrs. Massey are in Portland for the week end. Irvin Robertson and Henry Thies.

Your Five Hundred Muscles. The five hundred muscles in the human body depend on pure and rich blood for their health and contractile energy which is the ability to labor. If they are given impure blood they become enfeebled, the step loses its elasticity, the arm its efficiency, and there is incapacity to perform the usual amount of labor.

What a great blessing Hood's Sarsaparilla has been to the many toiling thousands whose blood it has made and kept pure and rich! This medicine cleanses the blood of all humors, inherited or acquired. It is important to be sure that you get Hood's Sarsaparilla when you ask for it. No substitute for it is like it.

Mt. Angel News

(Capital Journal Special Service) Mt. Angel, Or., Feb. 7.—A large number of young people surprised Miss Mary Tris with a party on the anniversary of her birthday, last Friday. With music and games the evening passed delightfully and a delicious lunch was served. J. J. Keber made a business trip to Dallas the beginning of this week. Laurence Stupfel has returned to Mt. Angel from his former home at Waldport. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cohn who are now living in Portland, visited old friends in Mt. Angel during the week end. Miss Minnie Beck has returned from Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ebner entertained a few of their friends with some very interesting games of 500 Sunday evening. Because of the illness of her mother Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Leo Barr and small daughter, Dorothy, went to Salem last week. Although Mrs. Smith is critically ill, the last reports are favorable. Owing to the great success of their last card party the W. C. O. F. will give another card party in the Forester hall on the evening of February 12, the day before the beginning of Lent. Mark Kemmerick of Bird View, Washington, registered at the Marion hotel last week. During his stay in Mt. Angel he visited old friends and landmarks. With a number of friends and relatives Mr. Cronkey celebrated his fiftieth birthday last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Meier (Lena Enz) left for their new home near Euphrata Washington, last week. Miss Elizabeth Keber came home for the week end.

then governor of Virginia Colony.

Thomas Jefferson was at the time a guest at Governor Page's estate, 12 miles from Williamsburg, Va. On her mother's side, Mrs. Tracy is descended from the Loomis family, which settled at Windsor, Conn., in 1639. Her great-grandfather, Benjamin Loomis, was one of the first minute men in Massachusetts. The Loomis family included many men prominent in governmental affairs and several theologians and educators, among them the late Elias Loomis, who was for 40 years professor of natural history at Yale university.

Mrs. Tracy became a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution in 1898, at Chillicothe, Mo. She was appointed soon thereafter as an organizing regent. She came to Albany in 1908, and about five years ago began the work of organizing a chapter here. Her efforts were successful and the charter of Linn chapter was issued February 3, 1914. It has become a strong chapter and has members in various parts of the county.

A few friends gathered at the home of Miss Esther Miller for a delightful dinner party Wednesday evening, given in honor of her cousin, Miss Jessie Buell. Covers were laid for eight. The table was done in old rose and silver. The evening was passed with games and music. These participating were Miss Jessie Buell, Miss Grace Hill, Blanche Hill, Miss Helen Gardner, Miss Freda Close, Miss Corn Close and Miss Esther Miller.

A distinct honor was recently conferred upon an Oregon Daughter of the American Revolution, when Mrs. Levi E. Tracy of Albany was chosen honorary regent for life of the Linn chapter, which she organized, serving as its first regent, and holding the position for four continuous years. At the last annual election, upon her refusal to again accept the regenship, she received this very complimentary recognition of her services.

It is probable no Oregon member of the Daughters of the American Revolution is more enthusiastically interested in the organization and its work than Mrs. Tracy, whose ancestors on both sides played a prominent part in the revolution. Mrs. Tracy's maiden name was Emma Page, and she is a member of the famous Page family of Virginia. She is a second cousin of Walter Hines Page, United States minister to England, and a second cousin once removed of Thomas Nelson Page, United States minister to Italy.

The Declaration of Independence was written in the home of her great-grandfather, John Page, who was
