

SOCIETY

By Carol S. Dibble

Variety of diversion was the order of the evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop last night, when about thirty guests, who were bidden to assist in opening the S. O. S. festivities of the week, passed several hours of gaiety with chess, cards and knitting, later by way of novelty, engaging in a putting contest, a form of indoor golf. Gay yellow daffodils and delicate clusters of pussy-willow, introduced a touch of early spring into the rooms.

The S. O. S. treasury was richer by eight dollars, as a result of last evening's delightful bit of entertaining, which enabled the guests to thus graciously remember the Salem soldiers.

E. T. BARNES, PROPRIETOR

Mr. and Mrs. Ashbel Bush, who are enjoying an extended tour through the eastern states, left Washington, D. C., last Monday night for New Orleans. From there, they will go to San Antonio, Texas, and then on to California, stopping at Long Beach, where they will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Clay, also visiting at Pasadena, Los Angeles and other points of interest in the southern part of the state. They will also visit at San Francisco, returning to Salem within the course of a few weeks.

While in Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Bush visited Miss Aline Thompson, who is pleasantly situated in the capital city, where she holds a position in the office of Senator McNary. The Bushes also ran across Miss Corinne Barker, the former, well known Salem girl, now engaged in theatrical work in the east. A recent number of the Theatrical Magazine displays a picture of Miss Barker as Columbia.

Valentine week is strictly "open season" for Dan Cupid, that little humorist always at large, so when he launches his drive of the bow and arrow, with an announcement of the engagement of so charming a society favorite as that of Miss Paula Linn to Charles Dundore of Portland, it is only natural that her many friends in Salem should be genuinely surprised.

The secret was divulged Saturday night at a dinner party, given in Portland by Miss Katherine Schabel, who happily combined the celebration of her own birthday and the betrothal of her friend.

Miss Linn, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Linn, reside in Salem, is a frequent visitor in Salem, where she is a welcome addition to the younger set. She is a graduate of Miss Catlin's school in Portland, where she won a host of friends during her stay in the city. She is also a University of Oregon girl and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Mr. Dundore is a Kappa Sigma fraternity man and a senior at the state university. Following his graduation in the spring, Mr. Dundore will go to Berkeley, where he will enter training for the aviation service. He is the son of J. H. Dundore of Sherman, Clay and Co., of Portland.

For the dinner party the table was adorned with a handsome basket of daffodils with fluffy bow of blue illusion. Later in the evening the young people went to the Multnomah hotel and enjoyed dancing and a late supper in the arched gardens. The wedding will not take place until the war is over.

A distinctive dinner party was the S. O. S. contribution of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben P. Boise last night at their home on Court street. The honor guests at the table were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eldridge, who leave Thursday for California. Dainty narcissus and the ever-fragrant daphney were in graceful evidence throughout the dining room.

Later the guests played New Market the high score falling to Mrs. W. H. Daney, whose privilege of contribut-

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose. Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and astringent and resinous syrups. Nothing better, but why buy it? You can easily make it yourself in five minutes.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—irritation of the membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt results.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ing the prize money to the gift box fund, was gladly taken advantage of. The guests, who opened an account in the S. O. S. treasury of $3.25 last night, were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weller, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Breyman.

Mrs. Clifford Brown and two sons, returned last evening from a week end visit spent at Portland.

Miss Marjorie Kay returned to Eugene after spending the week end in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, who recently returned from an eastern trip of several weeks. Miss Kay is attending the state university.

Mrs. A. L. Tibbetts of Portland is the guest of Mrs. Fred G. Buechel of the Court street apartments for a few days.

A story, written by George Palmer Putnam, entitled "The Sixth Man," appears in this month's number of the Ladies Home Journal. It is based upon the execution of Edith Cavell, the English nurse who was shot as a spy.

Mr. and Mrs. Putnam resided in Salem until very recently. Mr. Putnam holding the office of private secretary to the governor. The Putnams were making their home at Marshallburg, North Carolina, according to letters received by Salem friends a short time ago.

Mrs. A. J. McDonald of Eugene, who has been the house guest of Mrs. F. J. Rupert for several days at her residence on Chenekeka street, returned home today. A pretty, farewell attention was accorded Mrs. McDonald last night, when Mrs. Rupert asked in a few of her guest's friends, informally for an evening of knitting and music.

Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. W. H. Eldridge will be joint hostesses for the Thursday afternoon club, which will meet tomorrow afternoon, instead of on the customary Thursday, owing to the departure of Mrs. Eldridge for California on that day. An S. O. S. tax will be levied on the club members, who assemble as guests at the home of Mrs. Brown in the afternoon. In the evening Mrs. Clifford Brown will further carry out the S. O. S. spirit of the day, when a few friends gather at her bidding at the William Brown residence for a few hours of informal merry-making. Just how the guests, all unknowingly, will be induced to increase the growing proportions of the Company M box, is one of the surprises the hostess will reveal.

News has been received by Salem friends of the marriage of Miss Ora Constable and Richard E. Harbert, Sunday February third at Fresno, California. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Constable, who moved to Riverside, California, from Salem, about a year ago. Mrs. Harbert is a graduate of the Salem high school, and was a student for some time at the Oregon Agricultural college. Mr. Harbert, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harbert of Salem, has been located in the southern state two years, where he is in partnership with his uncle in the Harbert Motor Sales company in Fresno.

The young couple will make their home in Fresno, where the bridegroom recently received for army examination. The bride was attractively gowned in nightgale blue messaline, combined with gold messaline, and trimmed with a beaded garniture of blue and gold. Her travelling costume was taupe gray, with accessories to match.

The ceremony took place in the presence of a few friends and relatives, and was very simple, owing to the recent death of the bride's sister, Iza Constable.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Russell are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a nine pound baby boy, February eighth. Mrs. Russell was formerly Miss Elizabeth Doerfler of this city.

Mrs. San Wright was sponsor for a surprise party on the occasion of her husband's birthday last Saturday evening. Music, and games formed pleasurable pastimes for the guests. Dainty refreshments were served later.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goldson, and daughter, Anna, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Cummins and children, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Patterson and daughter, Harriett, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert White and daughters, Mariel and May, Mr. and Mrs. John Conrath, Mrs. May Myers, Miss Zella Lomax, Miss Anna Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Levy Frimby.

The recent strikes probably had nothing in common—the movement was spontaneous. The socialists opposed the strikes, admitting they surprised even them, who are still obediently a part of the government bloc.

The socialists assumed charge of the strikes and ordered the workers to return after 48 hours, the leaders saying they were not consulted by the strikers.

The fact is, Austria-Hungary is hard hit by the war. The people are suffering enormously.

The Vienna Economic Neues reported 45,000 deaths in Vienna in 1917 against 24,000 births. There were over 12,000 deaths from tuberculosis which was enormously increased on account of the poor food.

A statement was made in the Austrian parliament that half the deaths in Austria in 1917 resulted from tuberculosis. It was estimated there were 120,000 deaths from that cause in Austria last year. At Prague, in one week, deaths from consumption exceeded births.

With the hourly gain of the Bolshevik movement which may at any time link up with the recent strikers and both with the socialists, it is small wonder that Austria fails to view Hindenburg's offensive favorably.

Likewise there are reasons for terror gripping the hearts of war party members. Austria is in no position to continue an unpopular war. The Hindenburg crowd realizes the end must come soon.

Therefore the offensive must not be delayed lest Austria fall to pieces—and with her Prussia.

that the president pointed out his January 8th speech terms were not final. Senator Chamberlain deemed the speech "a most able analysis of the attitude of the German and Austrian prime ministers and a very clear statement of America's position."

Senator Underwood declared that it was a very clear exposition of the viewpoint of the American people and that it was an indication of a "possibility of peace."

"It was a splendid address and ought to have an effect in the direction of peace," declared Senator McKellar.

Senator Harding declared that "it was a fine message, best I've heard. Don't think anyone could disagree with anything he said."

"I regard the speech as an interpretation of the speech of January 8," said Senator Johnson of California. "Those who felt alarm at the possible entry of the republic upon a policy of territorial acquisition in Europe will be reassured by the message. I could not subscribe to all of the president's speech of January 8. I am delighted with most of this message and with its modification of the former speech. Without at all criticizing any speech, I think this more closely expresses America's thought and America's hope in the war and brings us much nearer peace."

Russia, so that the allies could obtain a free hand for themselves in the West. This attitude on the part of the Bolsheviks apparently is now repeated as an attempt of moral justification for themselves, for refusing further cooperation with the allies in the war.

Poles Will Protest.

Amsterdam, Feb. 12.—The Polish government will formally protest the settlement of the Ukraine frontier by the central powers at the expense of Poland, Dutch newspapers learned today.

By the separate peace pact affecting between the Ukraine republic and the central powers at Brest-Litovsk, the former country was given a large portion of territory usually regarded as belonging to Poland.

To Force Trotsky's Hand.

Berne, Feb. 12.—The central powers must try to force Trotsky to a definite peace treaty," the Frankfurter Zeitung declared in discussing Russia's withdrawal from the war.

"It cannot be foreseen what attitude the central powers will adopt," the newspaper said.

Ultimatum on Rumania.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The state department today officially announced that Germany served an ultimatum on Rumania demanding immediate peace and that the Rumanian cabinet has resigned.

For New Cabinet.

Amsterdam, Feb. 12.—Emperor Karl has decided to ask Baron Von Seydler the Austrian premier, to form a new cabinet, Vienna dispatches said today.

Oppose Gas Warfare.

Rome, Feb. 12.—The pope favors the Swiss Red Cross movement against the use of poisonous gases in warfare and probably will act officially in the matter, it was learned authoritatively here today.

"Corn-Less Day" for Feet, Every Day

Use "Get-It", the Great Corn Discovery! Makes Corns Peel Right Off! See the two fingers peeling off a corn as though it were a banana peel! And the man is smiling while he's doing it! All done painlessly, joyfully. The moment "Get-It" touches a corn or calls the growth is doomed. It takes but two seconds to apply "Get-It." The corn pain is eased at once. You can sit at your desk or walk about, dance, think, love and work with absolute ease. You can apply "Get-It" conveniently almost anywhere where you can take your shoe and stocking off for a moment or two. "Get-It" dries at once; then put your shoe and stocking on again.
