By Carol S. Dibble

Under a most attractive picture of Mrs. Millar McGilchrist (Gertrude Joell) in the Sunday Portland Journal, is the following account of the wedding of Miss Buell and Lieutenant McGilchrist, which took place Saturday in Portland:

"Miss Gertrude Joell of Eugene, was married to Lieutenant Millar McGilchrist of Salem, in St. Stephen's Cathedral at 6 o'clock last night. Rev. E. H. McCollister, formerly rector of a church attended by the bride at San Jose, Cal., read the ceremony. Relatives and close friends of the young people were present. A wedding supper was served at the Benson hotel.

"Lieutenant McGilchrist is a son of William McGilchrist of Salem. He is a graduate of the law school of the University of Oregon and has been admitted to practice in Oregon but was studying at Harvard at the time the United States entered the war. He made application for admission to the first officers' training camp at the Presidio, of San Francisco, where he was in his commission. He was formerly identified with the national guard company at Salem and saw service on the Mexican border. He is stationed at Camp Lewis.

"Mrs. McGilchrist is a daughter of J. L. Buell of Eugene. Her father is a right-of-way agent of the engineering department of the Southern Pacific company and had a part in the building of the Willamette-Pacific branch of the Southern Pacific system. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Delta Delta Delta woman's fraternity. She had until recently been teaching in the public schools at Hillsboro.

"Lieutenant McGilchrist is a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity. The bride and groom have obtained a cottage at Dupont, adjoining Camp Lewis, where they will make their home until Lieutenant McGilchrist is called away for service."

Salem members of the McGilchrist family, who went up for the wedding, including the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Jr., and their little son and the Misses Hazel and Ethel McGilchrist, returned home Saturday evening.

In keeping with the military atmosphere of the wedding, the bride was becomingly attired in a chic traveling suit of cadet blue, and wore a particularly modish spring hat.

Miss Edith Buell attended her sister as bridesmaid, and wore a smart gray costume, braided in black with a white hat. William McGilchrist, Jr., a brother of the bridegroom acted as best man.

Twenty covers were laid for the members of the wedding party, at a beautifully appointed wedding supper served in the rose room of the Benson hotel. An exceedingly handsome centerpiece of tulips, jacinths, and spruce fern combined with Oregon grape, graced the table.

Lieutenant and Mrs. McGilchrist will enjoy a ten days wedding trip at Victoria, B. C., and Vancouver, before going to their newly erected cottage at Dupont.

Mrs. E. C. Bonte of San Francisco, the godmother, the bride was a guest at the wedding.

Pelliculations are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Bolinger, Jr., of Portland upon the arrival of a son, born yesterday at the Bolinger residence 4635 Twenty-fifth street. The parents are both recent Salem residents, having moved to Portland only within the past year. Mr. Bolinger is in the employ of the Peerless Pacific wholesale printing house. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bolinger of Salem, and a brother of Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist. Mrs. Bolinger will be remembered as Miss Mildred Endicott by Salem friends. The baby will be named Henry E. Jr.

Mrs. W. I. Shade of Silverton is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John J. Roberts, for a few days.

Mrs. E. Cooke Patton will leave for Portland this evening, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. W. Regner during the week.

Mrs. George W. Gray and small daughter, Prudence, returned Saturday night from a few days stay in Portland.

Mrs. Percy Cupper, soprano, of Salem has been engaged as soloist in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in that city for the ensuing year. Mrs. Cupper occupied this position the greater part of last season. She is one of the most prominent singers in Salem and possesses a voice that is sweet in tone and sympathetic in quality and is particularly suited to the rendition of sacred music. Mrs. Cupper makes trips to Portland for the purpose of coaching with John Claire Menteith. She sang recently with great success a group of songs on a Schumann program given by one of Salem's clubs—Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Barlowen were hosts on Friday evening at a jolly St. O. S. five hundred party, given at their home on Saginaw street. Music was also a feature of the festivities, which were productive of a generous offering of $6.50 for the gift box fund. Miss Edna Ackerman assisted Mrs. Barlowen.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Folsal, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mrs. J. J. Ackerman, Miss Edna Ackerman, Mrs. Martin, George E. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hanson, Mrs. R. H. Varley, Mrs. George Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred West, Miss Edna May West, Mrs. Arnold, Lawrence Gale, Miss Bertha Gale, Miss Evelyn Stevenson, Miss Bertha Hansen and Mrs. Harry Hill.

Musicians and lovers of music are looking forward with considerable interest to the concert, to be given under

GOETHAL EXPLAINS PERELESS DISCHARGE

Had Nothing To Do With Recent Testimony Before Military Committee

Washington, Feb. 18.—Captain Arthur A. Pereless was honorably discharged from the army—but not because of his testimony before the senate military affairs committee, the war department today informed Senators McKellar and Thomas, committee members.

Both senators had inquired why Pereless was dismissed so soon after he had testified about his investigation of the base sorting plant contract with the war department for sorting woolen rags. Pereless' testimony was exceedingly damaging to those responsible for making this contract by which the government stood to lose a large sum annually.

Acting quartermaster General Goethals, in a memorandum on Pereless' dismissal, sent to Secretary Baker and by Baker's office transmitted to Thomas and McKellar, said Pereless' testimony had nothing to do with ousting him.

Goethals said Pereless, realizing he did not fit into the conservation division, asked to be transferred to the in-

W. Al Jones Announces Candidacy For Senator From Marion County

W. AL JONES.

W. Al Jones on Saturday formally announced his candidacy for state senator from Marion county. Other candidates so far in the field are A. M. La Follette, Louis Lachmund and Sam Brown. Two senators are to be elected.

Mr. Jones has served two terms in the lower house, having been elected to the 1915 session from Union and Wallowa counties, and to the 1917 session from Marion county. He served four years as a member of the state fair board and one year as secretary of the board. Another public position held by Mr. Jones was as a member of the special board of investigation appointed by the legislature in 1901 in connection with the George W. Davis school land defalcation. The other two members of the board were J. C. Hackett of Oregon City and J. C. Hudson of Newberg. The method of keeping the records in the office of the state land board at the present time is virtually the same as installed by the special board following the Davis investigation.

In the state senate of 1915 Mr. Jones served on the ways and means and the resolutions committees. His committee connections made him an important factor in keeping Oregon's taxes to a minimum.

Mr. Jones is a native of Marion county and has lived most of his life here, though having spent some years in eastern Oregon. He is a farmer and stockman. Waconda is his precinct.

active list. As it is not the department's policy to carry officers as "dead weight," Goethals wrote Pereless was honorably discharged for the good of the service.

It developed today that Charles Eismann, formerly on the supply committee of the Council of National Defense, also has been dropped from government service. Eismann, Pereless testified, had threatened to "get him" because of Pereless' investigation of the base sorting contract sponsored by Eismann. When the supply committee recently was dissolved, Secretary Baker said Eismann would be retained as an aid to General Goethals. But he has severed his connection with the war department and left Washington.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

On account of the patriotic mass meeting at the armory, vesper services at the Y. W. C. A. were postponed Sunday afternoon.

A record attendance was present last Sunday, Feb. 10, to hear J. Atwood Staunfield, missionary at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Father Staunfield gave an inspiring talk to the girls. An added feature of the afternoon meeting was a violin trio composed of Roy Miller of Dallas, Miss Viola Ash of Salem and Treval Powers of Falls City. Miss Ash and Mr. Powers are pupils of Mr. Miller, who is a professor of music at Dallas. Miss Dorothy Benoit accompanied the trio. Their work was presented with charm and grace, and the groups which they played received warm appreciation.

At the board meeting last Tuesday election of officers for the ensuing year was held; Mrs. C. A. Park, president; Mrs. F. A. Elliott, vice president; Mrs. John H. Albert, second vice president; Mrs. W. E. Kirk, recording secretary; Mrs. E. G. Shipley, corresponding secretary, and Miss A. McCollister, treasurer.

Labor Bolter

Washington, Feb. 18.—American labor believes the only argument Germany now understands is force. Labor is willing and glad to back up this argument with its heartiest work if it gets a decent place to dwell; if grievances can be adjusted by fair agencies and if all wages do not go for bare existence.

That summarizes the labor standpoint of America today as voiced by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor.

Oregon's Freshmen Too Much for Chemawa

University of Oregon, Eugene, Feb. 18.—Dean Walker's Oregon freshmen swamped the Chemawa Indians, 48 to 23 Saturday afternoon in the men's gymnasium in their second win over the Redskins of the present season.

Ed Durso, diminutive freshman forward from Silverton, was the main reason for the easy win. He threw eight field baskets and as many fouls for a total of 24 points. Chapman at guard also starred for the freshmen with five field baskets, in addition to shaking his man to three field goals. Coach Walker's fast running basket shooters had the Indians on the go the entire second half, and held them to six points while they were amassing 26 markers. Forwards Downey and Adams were Chemawa's best in finding the basket and advancing the ball.
