GERMAN COURSE

In Baghdad someone is the thought of military men generally. Oases, the Black sea, Persia, Afghanistan, India is the route she now dreams of.

Germany's talk of peace by negotiation compared to her Russian and Rumanian peace by conquest makes her promises little, say the German papers.

Every nation shall remember German terms as a "terror of terrors" says Dio Zukunft, and all the Germans as accomplices in the great deception.

Stockholm dispatches here today express belief that Germany has designs of subjugating Finland to the status of a German colony.

Other diplomatic dispatches related the formation by the invader of special "Kathonian battalions."

TORNADO IN CALIFORNIA

Marysville, Cal., Mar. 14.—A tornado early today struck the central residence district of Marysville.

The big barn of G. E. Porter, near the city, was carried six hundred yards.

A heavy downpour of hail and claps of thunder accompanied the tornado.

Military works along the German lines; the latter hovering over Paris and open towns, murdering women and children.

The British brought down seventy nine enemy planes during the first ten days in March.

As an example of the airman's daily job, one dived toward a running enemy train, derailing three cars with bombs.

The casualties resulted when one of the Zeppelins, crossing the coast, dropped a bomb on Harlingen, in addition to the five killed, nine persons were injured.

This is the second Zeppelin raid on England within 24 hours.

Paris, Mar. 14.—One American woman was killed and an American man and woman were wounded in Monday's enemy air raid over Paris.

Mrs. W. B. Phillips and Mr. Salzer were wounded.

The total casualties were 100 killed and 17 wounded.

Scaplan's Victors

London, Mar. 14.—Two British seaplanes, encountering five enemy aircraft over the southern part of the North sea Tuesday, attacked them and after half an hour's engagement destroyed one and drove another down ward into the water.

The German Version

Berlin, via London, Mar. 14.—Three airplanes, enemy squadron flying toward Freiburg, were brought down, the Berlin war office announced today.

German troops sent in Odessa in agreement with the Rumanian government occupied the town after a battle with Russian bands near Moldovanka.

Vandals are raiding government offices, stealing valuables, furniture and paintings and cutting them home or burning them on the street corners for a few rubles. Sailors are carrying off valuables of art treasures, loading them on ships and taking them to Kronstadt.

The government is so occupied with peace and the Siberian situation that it is unable to impose restraint on the looting.

WILL TAKE OVER (Continued from page one) lantia has held up the agreement. The proposal for a general agreement has laid in London for two months without action because of the German threat to close up the narrow open route to Holland by submarines if any agreement is concluded.

Passes Buck to Germany

No resentment toward the Netherlands is felt by the United States and her allies, and this is expected to be fully explained by President Wilson in a conference at the white house this afternoon with the Dutch minister.

The United States is left no choice, however, but to put the agreement into effect by her own action, in which she goes no further in the use of such shipping than the Hollanders themselves were willing to go.

In return for the necessity of taking Dutch ships, the United States and Great Britain have granted concessions to Holland freely with regard to the food supply and the return of the ships taken over at the end of the war.

Dutch shipping to the East Indian colonies will be facilitated in every way by the United States and Great Britain, so that Holland may be relieved from any fear as to the future of its colonies and their trade during the war.

This step by the two governments is regarded as inevitable if neutral nations are to be fed and it is pointed out that while it is determined to take over as much Dutch tonnage as warranted by the necessities, sufficient tonnage is left free for Holland's needs.

Labor Council Demands Federal Investigation of x Walter V. Woehlke

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 14.—Federal investigation of Walter V. Woehlke, of San Francisco, with view of interfering him for the period of the war is demanded in a resolution passed by the Seattle central labor council Wednesday night.

The resolution was submitted by E. B. Ault, who said he acted on request of William Short, president of the State Federation of Labor.

Woehlke is charged with having arrived only recently from Germany and with intention to return there to make his permanent home.

"No attempt is made by those objecting to the articles to prove I am wrong. Instead they are trying to damage the property I represent."

Woehlke was born in Hanover, Germany, in 1879, and came to America in 1898.

The western democracies have been trying for nearly four years to reverse the procedure and to change their civic governments. Not one has made a record that entitles it to criticize the slow evolution of a Slav democracy in Russia.

The working out of any great international issue in the United States has never been done in a year's time. The first year has almost invariably shown a discordant divergence that makes it easy to understand Russia's present troubles.

As a matter of fact, the time between the czar's overthrow and today's meeting of the pan-soviet congress has seen a new kind of idealism born in Russia that is exerting an increasingly profound influence both in friendly and in enemy countries.

Meanwhile, the moral issue being injected into the international situation and emphasized by President Wilson have not created a ripple here.

They are not given a thought except among the prelates and the intellectuals.

Making the world safe for democracy and the rights of small nations are not appealing issues to a nation whose German-trained army admittedly is not surprised in South America, and which has its own Abasco-Lorraine problem in the pending territorial dispute regarding the ultimate ownership of the provinces of Puno and Arica, taken from Peru in 1879.

Despite the belief in the United States to the contrary, however, Americans here are unanimous in the opinion that the coldness of Chile extends to all the belligerents in the war and should not be construed as unfriendly to the United States.

WOMEN WHO FASCINATE The art of fascination and attractive ness in women is founded on good health. Women who drag through long, weary, days, weeks and sometimes months of suffering with headaches, backache and dragging down-pain, soon wear the tell tale expression of wear and misery.

But the governor felt mean about the deal and decided to make a place for Lea, so events indicate. A fight was started to oust W. A. Jones as secretary of the fair board.

Mrs. Weathered was one of the board members who was whipped into line to vote to oust Jones and put in Lea. She believed she would thus win reappointment, but all the information that is now available is to the effect that she will not be reappointed.

In some other matters she has not blindly followed the lead of the administration forces. She has been a thorn in the side of M. L. Jones and some of the other members of the board who are closest to the governor. They do not want her reappointed.

Lea went her reappointed. And, according to report, M. L. Jones is the financial backer of the Withycombe campaign for re-election and naturally is somewhat of a power behind the throne.

The announcement of the appointment, whenever the person may be, is expected soon.

Friends of Governor Withycombe say that he is certain to be a candidate for re-election. The recent comment in this correspondence on the question of whether the governor had decided not to seek re-election caused consternation among the little coterie of advisers of the governor, and they hastened to say that the governor will be a candidate.

Work in Joint Effort the Soil of the U. S. and Canada—Co-operative Farming in Man Power Necessary to Win the Battle for Liberty

The Food Controllers of United States and Canada are asking for greater food production. Scarcely 100,000,000 bushels of wheat can be sent to the allies overseas before the crop harvest. Upon the efforts of the United States and Canada rest the burden of supply.

Every Available Tillable Acre must Contribute; Every Available Farmer and Farm Hand must Assist.

Western Canada has an enormous acreage to be seeded but man power is short, and an appeal to the United States allies is for more men for seeding operations.

Canada's Wheat Production last Year was 225,000,000 Bushels; the demand from Canada alone, for 1918, is 400,000,000 Bushels.

To secure this she must have assistance. She has the land but needs the men. The Government of the United States wants every man who can effectively help, to do farm work this year.

Western Canada's help will be required not later than April 5th. Wages to competent help, $50 a month and up, board and lodging. Those who respond to this appeal will get a warm welcome, good wages, good board, and find comfortable homes.
