Deaths Total Twenty Two Severely and Eight Slightly Wounded

Washington, March 19.—Thirty casualties were reported today by General Pershing—two killed in action, three accidental deaths, three from wounds, twelve from disease, two severely wounded and eight slightly wounded. The list follows: Killed in Action: Captain Phelps Collins. Private Frank J. Konopek. Accidental Deaths: Lieutenant George O. Middleville. Cadet Edward E. Butler. Private Martin J. Murphy. Died of Wounds: Private Alma M. Martin. Private Arthur P. Vandriel. Private Wilbur Wilkerson. Died of Disease: Sergeant William F. Carroll. Private James P. Alford. Private Charles R. Burtch. Private Herman Crosby. Private Tommie Dudley. Private Frank E. Fisher. Private Arvel Johnson. Private Darlo Montez. Private Ralph H. Peters. Private James Walter Moore. Private Emanuel Scott. Private Oliver W. Seaton. Severely Wounded: Sergeant Frank Hickman. Private Austin R. Schumacher. Henry Darling and William were assigned to homes in the state, the father not discovering them until many years after the war was over. In the year of 1880 on August 11th he wedded Elizabeth Irene Sommerville at Seio, Ohio, and at once came west, living at Salem practically all of those succeeding years. He has been associated with Wm. Cherrington under the firm name of Cherrington & St. Helen Piano Co. on Court street, for two years. He is survived by his wife and one brother (Roger) and numerous relatives. All his life handicapped by poor sight and a frail constitution he fought life's battles bravely and his friends who saw him meet grim death with a smile, know to be the bravest of men. Not wealthy in this world's goods, yet he was rich in friendships, unyielding honesty and loyal friendships. Born during the dark days of the Civil war, his father a valiant soldier, he inherited the spirit of loyalty and love for the flag and every hour preceding his untimely death, the great struggle for justice and liberty was the primary thought with him and his devotion and longing for the winning of the war his one great ambition. Funeral services will be held at Rigdon's parlors on Wednesday afternoon, March 20, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Henry Darling St. Helen Died Early Today

Henry Darling St. Helen died at 12:30 a. m. today at the Salem Hospital. He was operated on for perforation of the bowels at 7 o'clock p. m. yesterday. He was suffering from peritonitis as a result of bowel trouble and his condition was practically hopeless. His sudden death after a brief illness is a great shock to his friends who are legion. He was born at Cincinnati, Ohio, on April 11, 1860. His father, Edward St. Helen, fought throughout the Civil war, being in the battle of Shilo and Gettysburg. His mother, Christie Darling St. Helen, died when the father had returned on a brief furlough and the children—Roger,

The entertainment will consist of readings and dialogues together with instrumental and vocal selections.

The Willamette men's glee club leaves this evening for Independence where they will give a concert tonight. The club will give an entertainment Thursday evening at Canby, going from there to St. Helens on Friday night, and appearing at Astoria Saturday evening. They will return in time to take part in the Sunday evening exercises at the First Methodist church in this city.

Six young men signed up at the local army recruiting station today and left for Portland for assignment, as follows: John A. Smith, aged 18, of Eugene, who enters the quartermaster corps; and Joseph Jackson, aged 18, Gus Gorties, aged 19, Andrew White, aged 19, Edward Hayden, aged 20, and Albert Norton, aged 18, all of Chemawa, and all of whom enter the cavalry branch of service.

The committees in charge of the county fair which will open at the armory Friday, request that all articles solicited and donated be left at the armory as soon as convenient in order to give those in charge an opportunity to get the same arranged. An exception is made in the case of 'live stock,' which the committee desires the owners to retain charge of till Friday and then bring to the armory. Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Mrs. A. A. Mickel will have charge of the tickets in the raffling.

A meeting of the Belgian Relief society was held yesterday at the commercial club, and the request made of the Red Cross to help in turning clothing for the Belgians was discussed. The local chapter of the Red Cross is asked to furnish four or a half ton, and will establish headquarters at once.

Frank S. Ward, alderman from the third ward, has announced that he will be a candidate for the nomination for the office of mayor. Mr. Ward is the first candidate to announce himself and there is a possibility he will have no opposition, although there are several who are being urged to come out for the office.

A class in dressmaking will meet tonight at 7:30 at the Grant school at which a group of dressmakers will suggest and explain various ways of remodeling and making over old clothes in line with the policy of Hooverizing. If the dressmaking class proves popular it is probable a class in millinery will be started at the next meeting.

A meeting of the precinct captains and workers for the Red Cross pledge card campaign has been called for next Sunday at the Baptist church. It is considered important by Mr. Denton, who is chairman, that every worker be present. The meeting is called for 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and while it is primarily for the Red Cross workers, the general public is invited to attend.

In the account Saturday of the accident at Center and Capital streets when E. E. Aufranc was thrown from his motorcycle and injured, it was stated that Moss Irvine, driver of the delivery car which collided with Aufranc was driving a car for the Capital City Steam Laundry. The account should have stated Irvine was driving a delivery car for the Salem Steam Laundry.

Two declarations of candidacy for aldermen from the fourth ward were filed today, one by Paul V. Johnson, for reelection, and the other by Arthur H. Moore. Mr. Johnson has served the past term as chairman of the standing committee on fire and water and once his hopes of election on his past record. Mr. Moore is proprietor of the Moore bicycle and repair shop on Court street and has been a citizen and taxpayer of Salem since 1892.

J. H. Cradlebaugh, who for fifteen or more years has been on the Capital Journal staff, today announced his candidacy for the office of Justice of the peace for Salem district. While he seeks the nomination on the democratic ticket, he realizes there is no politics in the office, but as he is a democrat does not want to ask any votes under false pretenses. If he receives the democratic nomination he will be as Theodore puts it, delighted to have his republican friends stand by and vote for him.

One of the enjoyable affairs of the city in honor of St. Patrick's day was that held Saturday evening at Unity church. Elaborate decorations of green were everywhere in evidence and an excellent program was heard under the direction of Mrs. W. E. Anderson and Mrs. Roy Barton. The program of music and readings was as follows: Quartette 'Wearing of the Green,' by William McShirlan, Albert Gillo, R. W. Stewart and Mrs. E. W. Walters, who were accompanied on the piano by Miss Bernice Clark; soprano solo, Mrs. T. H. Galoway; reading 'Flanigan and Flannigan,' by Miss Blanche Howard; violin solo, 'Believe Me That If All Those Endearing Young Charms,' by Miss Mary Schoette; soprano solo, 'Irish Love Song,' by Miss Ada Miller.

John W. Dawson, living in the Hollywood district a short distance east of town, was quite badly injured yesterday forenoon when he was struck by a Southern Pacific passenger train as he was driving into town on the Silverton road. He was driving a light farm wagon and was bringing 600 pounds of beans into town to sell. The wagon was entirely wrecked and Mr. Dawson was knocked unconscious. He was brought to the Willamette sanatorium and given medical attention. His injuries consisted of bruises about the head and minor injuries over the body. He was reported to be considerably improved today and able to be up and around. Mr. Dawson is the father of W. J. Dawson, living at 1511 North Winter street. The 600 pounds of beans are said to have been pretty well scattered when the wagon was wrecked.

Scarcity of Jurors Delays Court Work. A decided scarcity of jurors interrupted the proceedings in department No. 1 of the circuit court today, and it is probable that the docket will be set back a day as a result. Owing to the fact that 10 were excused, or were not found in the county, there were but 21 left in the panel, and the case of Johnson versus Stevens this morning was tried by consent before but nine jurors, the first time this has happened in many years in Marion county. The jury in the case of Hunt versus Hill, a case involving a contract for potatoes, went out at 10 this morning, and had not reported at a late hour this afternoon. The Johnson versus Stevens suit was given to the bob tailed jury shortly after noon today, and no verdict has yet been returned. There being no jurors remaining, a recess was taken by the court. The case of Johnson versus Stevens is over the sale of a cow which the plaintiff insists was not as represented. Damages to the extent of $60 are asked. Tomorrow the court will consider the case of Collins versus the Weyl-Zackerman company, and the criminal action against Nicholas Warbas, charged with larceny.

CHAMBERLAIN AT DESK. Washington, Mar. 19.—Senator Chamberlain of Oregon returned to the senate today after an illness of several weeks during which he was operated on for appendicitis. 'It took a surgeon's knife to give me the best rest I've had in twenty four years,' said Chamberlain. The Oregon senator was kept from being lonely during his illness by reading five thousand letters from persons in every state.
