Salem women are to be highly complimented on the amazing amount of work they have accomplished in the past year with the Red Cross. Each one is eager to do her "bit" and all have been working in splendid harmony whether it be for the Red Cross, Armenians, war saving stamps or any other form of benefit. The last big task that was accomplished so successfully was the Country Fair last week at the armory. Enough can be said in praise of each one who worked so diligently for this affair and to the homes and business places who responded so graciously and generously. The American women are fast developing into true, noble women giving up, almost eagerly, the pleasures they have heretofore enjoyed to answer the call of their nation to help, which means strength and happiness to our boys who are so bravely training and fighting for our liberty and lives.

Of prime interest to many Salem people is the birthday celebration and banquet last Sunday in Portland, when Phil Metchan, Sr. and Phil Metchan, Jr., were joint hosts to many of their relatives and friends. The Red Room of the Imperial hotel, where the affair was held, was gaily decorated in many colors of the allied nations. All of Mr. Metchan's immediate family was present, besides a large number of relatives and friends from all parts of the state. Those going from Salem were Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Griffith, Mrs. Griffith is a daughter of Mr. Metchan, Sr., and daughters, Margaret and Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sutherland.

Mrs. D. J. Fry and daughter, Priscilla, leave Sunday for southern California to visit Dan, Jr., who is at Camp Fremont, Meade Park near Palo Alto, and Orris, the younger son, at San Diego, where he is in the navy. They will also spend a while with Mrs. Raymond Walsh (Jane Fry) before returning. Their stay is indeterminate.

One of the most pleasant affairs of the week was the stopping party at the People's mended institution Thursday evening, when Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith were hosts to a large number of friends. The hall room was beautifully decorated in spring beauties, daffodils and ferns. Delicious punch and wafers were served during the evening. About fifty guests were present.

H. G. St. Helens, nephew of the late H. St. Helens, is a Salem visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Anderson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Pullerton, will motor to Portland tomorrow to attend the Easter ball given by the Laurelhurst club Monday evening.

P. H. Schullerman, who has been the house guest of his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schullerman, 324 North Capitol street, returned early in the week to his home in Portland.

Mrs. Ralph Glover and daughter, Maxine, are Portland visitors for the week end.

Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Ellis were charming hosts Friday evening for a dinner party, at their residence on South Fifteenth street. The dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Ellis' mother, Mrs. M. A. Hampton, and Dr. James Lisle, member of the Willamette university faculty, who leaves next week for an eastern visit. Easter decorations predominated. The hidden guests were Mrs. M. A. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lisle, Everett and Esther Lisle, Mr. and Mrs. Wineand and Dr. James Lisle.

The Priscilla club held its regular meeting, Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Brown, president of the club. Every member was present with an additional guest, Mrs. William Greenwood of Dallas. Dainty Easter decorations and favors at each place with a huge bowl of daffodils for a center piece made the table very attractive. The next club meeting will be with Mrs. John Craig.

The Sweet Briar club was delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Isabelle Miller and Mrs. Marie Matthews on the Wallace road. During the business meeting quotations were given on "The True Service of Economy." Later, at the prettily appointed dining table, place cards for each guest were found in the form of a yellow rose holding tiny Easter eggs. During the evening an April Fool's party was planned for Monday evening, April first, at the home of Miss Nellie Taylor. Mrs. A. L. Bonn will be hostess for the next regular meeting, to be held at the residence of Mrs. M. G. Pettys.

A charmingly informal dancing party was given at Cottillon hall, Thursday evening, when the Priscilla club entertained a large number of guests. The affair was a Red Cross benefit and proved a very successful and pleasant evening.

A pleasant surprise was given Norman R. Purbrick last Wednesday evening at his home, 854 North Commercial street, by employees of the State Industrial Accident commission, where Mr. Purbrick has been employed as accountant. He is one of the Salem boys who have been called to the colors in the selective draft, and will leave for Camp Lewis Monday morning.

The evening was spent in playing various games, and refreshments were served. The feature of the evening was the presentation by Al H. Steiner, on behalf of the employees, of a soldier's comfort kit to Mr. Purbrick, at the same time saying that they wished him Godspeed and a safe return. Mr. Purbrick in turn expressed his thanks and assured all of his appreciation of their good wishes.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Al H. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Loren E. White, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Purbrick, Mrs. Winifred Denison, Mrs. O. B. Allen, the Misses L. M. Hunter, Ruth Norwood, N. Pruner, Elzavore Peppon, Lydia Lambe, Vivian Hopson, Marie Breitenstein, Margaret Steiner, Irene Allen and the Messrs. Norman B. Purbrick, Harry P. Caldwell, Carl Pope, David Steiner, Jack Alim and Andrew V. Ovall.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Endicott were hosts last evening for an informal card party. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Poisal, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bower, Mr. and Mrs. W. Laflair, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. East, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buehner, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Volk and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wood.

Cottillon hall was the scene of another gay little party last evening, when the In-Area club was hostess to a large number of guests. The hall was attractive with daffodils and ferns, where the hidden guests danced until a late hour.

Mrs. G. E. Schaefer will entertain her bridge club Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb motored to Portland yesterday.

Miss Belle Denison and Miss Daisy Duckering are week end visitors in Portland, going down to hear Joseph Sheelan, the famous tenor, with the English Grand Opera company at the Heilig theater this evening.

The Chautauque Reading Circle will give a musical entertainment from "Faust" on Tuesday evening, April ninth, at the Christian church. All friends of the Circle are cordially invited.

Word has been received in Salem that the condition of Miss Willa Barnes has changed for the better. Miss Barnes is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Barnes, former residents of Salem, but now living in Portland. Two younger members of the family, with Miss Willa, contracted measles but Miss Barnes later developed a grave case of pneumonia and small hopes were entertained for awhile for her recovery.

Miss Lydia Bell and her sister, Miss Laura Bell, are in Portland for the week end and incidentally to hear the English Grand Opera company.

Miss Alta Matten, who is home from O. A. C. for the Easter vacation, was given a pleasant surprise by her friends on Friday evening. The hours were spent in old fashioned games and contests. Of these an eating contest, in which the participants were blindfolded, and attempted to feed one another, and an obstacle relay race were features. At a late hour a dainty "lunchon" was served.

Those enjoying the party were the Misses Lucy Nichols, Dorothea Tucker, Alice Mathey, Rita Sutter, Minnie Battalio, Rose Battalio, Emmaline Brinkley, Kathleen Brinkley, Hazel Faustman and Alta Matten, Messrs. Walter Hain, Cass Nichols, Madison Stephens, Mike Battalio and Elmer Both. Mr. and Mrs. George Hain, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Matten and Mr. and Mrs. James G. Lauderback.

Go to Church Sunday

Subjects of Sermons and Where They Will Be Delivered in Salem Houses of Worship, Tomorrow

One has not to wait till Sunday comes around for God's blessing. One has to wait till the closest can be reached at evening.

Christ may be found at the well if you come there to draw. Christ may be found at the receipt of custom, where Matthew found him.

Christ may be found at the pier where the widow found him. Christ may be found on the sea, where the disciples found him when they were fishing.

He is moving with world-filling presence everywhere.
