State House News

Because of the shortage of labor, and the impossibility of securing and keeping competent help, Superintendent Steiner of the state hospital has announced that he intends employing more of the patients in farm and garden work this year. The men used will be those who are harmless and whose mental condition is such that they will be able to do the work effectively.
A statement was issued yesterday by Will H. Bennett, state superintendent of banks, showing that in the 178 state banks in Oregon there are deposits of $71,577,700, and Portland is given credit for $31,000,000 of this total. The statement was prepared by Edward W. Cookingham of Portland and will be used in fixing the quotas for each county in the coming liberty loan. The amount of the deposits of each bank are given.

Certification of the candidates for state officers to be chosen at the coming election was mailed yesterday to the county clerks of Oregon by secretary of State Elliott. Following are the officers to be filled. One senator for the term ending March 4th, 1919, one senator for the term starting March 4th, 1919, one representative in congress from each district, governor, state treasurer, justice of the supreme court, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, labor commissioner, public service commissioner and superintendent for each of two water districts.

Ralph E. Williams of Portland has filed his notice of being a candidate for republican national committeeman at the coming primary election. Mr. Williams has as his slogan, "Republican candidate for National Committeeman, Present Incumbent." In his platform he states that he stands for a renitented Republican party and will do his best to promote its welfare. He announces that he belongs to no factions, and his sole purpose will be the election of the entire ticket, state and national.

Kaiser Plotting AGAINST BELGIUM

Washington, March 30.—The kaiser has been plotting to benevolently "annex" the Flemish districts of Belgium, in a manner similar to that employed toward eastern territory, it was learned here today.
The annexation plans were contingent upon a success on the west front and the kaiser had spread his propaganda and laid all his lines for another plundering.
Returning Belgians revealed today that the kaiser's "comedy in camouflage" was to be engineered thus:
Germany combed Flemish Belgium to gather renegade Flemings, German residents of the Flemish districts and a few pro-Germans into an organization which has as its announced intention the freeing of Flemish culture and institutions from "Wallonian influence."
When the kaiser gave the word this element, an insignificant minority was to meet and solemnly call on Germany to come to the rescue of the Flemings. Germany would then announce to the world that she would take over Flemish Belgium because the people of that district had expressed their wishes through a process of "self determination."
If there were resistance from loyal Belgians, it would be put down by a new campaign of frightfulness—exactly this course Germany has pursued in practically annexing Courland and Lithuania.

County Fruit Inspector Van Trump returned today from an extensive trip over the county. Mr. Van Trump believes that the prune trees in the hills will be in bloom within a few days, unless another set back is experienced. A serious condition in Salem is noticed by Mr. Van Trump, who states that on account of the insufficiency of labor the fruit and ornamental trees in the city limits have not been sprayed this year. This is due for one thing, to the fact that there is not the necessary equipment in the city at the present time. The condition of the local trees is said to be far from good, and may result in a serious loss if not remedied soon.

County Superintendent W. M. Smith and Supervisors W. C. Hoffens and J. W. L. Smith are attending a demonstration being given at the White school near Hubbard today. During the past week, Miss Florence Beardley has been having a "farmer's week," and each study is taken up with an agricultural application. The arithmetic problems have been in farm work, the reading has been of this nature, and the songs have been of the farm. Many talks are to be made during the all-day program, and a lunch was served at noon. About 50 teachers from the county were expected.

Mooney Case Still In Hands of Court

San Diego, Cal., Mar. 30.—I cannot make a statement concerning the Mooney matter now. It is still in the hands of the supreme court and has not yet come to my office for action. Later I will have something to say about it.
This was the comment today of Governor William D. Stephens who practically admitted he had received telegraphic word from President Wilson concerning the case of Thomas J. Mooney, now under death sentence for alleged participation in the preparedness day bomb explosion in San Francisco. The president asked for executive clemency for Mooney, it is said.

Alice Marie Baker After Long Illness Passed Away Yesterday

Alice Marie Baker, a promising young Salem pianist and a popular college girl, died yesterday noon at 12:35 o'clock at the Salem hospital following an illness of about ten weeks. She was the daughter of Frank A. Baker, 260 North Eighteenth street and Mrs. Lulu B. Johnson Baker, who died in Salem June 1, 1904.
The young woman had reached her twentieth birthday eleven days ago. She was born in Salem and attended the grade schools here. She was graduated from Salem high school in the class of 1916. While in high school she was secretary of the student body during the year 1915-16. Following her graduation she attended the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college.
Also possessing a sparkling and winsome personality, it was natural that this young woman should be popular. She was a sweet singer and radiated her cheer and talent wherever she went. Before going away to college she was the pianist at the Bangalow Christian church. She played there for several years where she was also president of the Christian Endeavor society.
Besides her father, she leaves a half-brother Howard E. Baker. She also leaves many other relatives on both her mother's and father's sides. Her mother was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Johnson, Sr.
Her death followed a struggle of many weeks. Since last summer she had complained of an injury received from a fall. Nine weeks ago she was operated upon for peritonitis. Although she seemed to rally for a while, she gradually grew worse following the operation.
The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Christian church between Court and Cheneketa on Seventeenth street. Rev. Frank E. Jones will preach the sermon and burial will be in Odd Fellows cemetery.
