

How You Can Make Clothes Wear Longer

It's just because the price of everything is so high these days that Fels-Naptha is more economical than ever.

Shirts, waists, underclothes—all these articles must be made to wear longer. Make them last longer by removing the boiling and rubbing that does so much to wear out clothes before their time.

Fels-Naptha lengthens the life of your clothes, because it makes boiling and hard rubbing unnecessary. With little work by you, it cleans, even better than the most painstaking rubbing and boiling.

Try Fels-Naptha with your clothes and prove it yourself.

Accompanied by members of the family, the Rev. R. S. Gill and members of the De Molay Commandery, the body will be taken to Portland on the 11:30 Oregon Electric for interment in the Riverview cemetery.

Henry B. Thielsen was born in Marshall, Mich., March 1, 1859. He attended school at Burlington, Iowa, where at the age of 13 years he became telegraph operator and later train dispatcher for the C. B. & Q. Ry. In 1879 he came with his father to Portland and assisted in the building of the Oregon and California railway, serving as assistant chief engineer for his father in building the Roseburg division.

Later he became chief engineer and built the O. R. & N. railroad sometimes in the early '80's. In 1889 he moved to Astoria and built the Astoria and South Coast. In 1892 he retired to his farm near Rickreall and remained there until 1899 when he came to Salem.

Mr. Thielsen had always been active in Masonic circles and had occupied posts of honor from that of Master of the Rickreall lodge to the highest honors in the state. These included that of Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Oregon and president of the Past Grand Masters association of Oregon. He was originally a member of Portland Chapter No. 3, later transferring to Independence and then to the Maitland chapter of Salem. His Commandery membership was with Oregon No. 1 of Portland and later with the De Molay Commandery of Salem. He was also a member of Hudson Council No. 1, Royal and Solent Masters, and of Al Kader Temple Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of Portland.

ery issue of Post's paper, The Public. Sherman is "Nasty."

"This paper," added Sherman, "is the exponent and mouthpiece of every governmental fad and bubble."

He declared it useless to pass drastic laws to repress scurrilous journalism.

"Because these laws as well as a part of our government are administered by social settlement workers instead of statesmen."

"Why does not the senator introduce an amendment providing that no bolshevik shall have a hand in administering the law?" suggested Senator O'Pin, Dexter.

"Oh! That would break up the present administration," rejoined Sherman. President Wilson's Baltimore speech met approval everywhere in the capital.

"It was the only possible answer to the Kaiser—and to Hindenburg, who has recently been putting his finger in the political as well as the military pie," said Senator Lewis, democratic whip.

"A most momentous declaration and one which the American people will hang up to the very limit of their strength, purse and lives," said Senator Borah.

Sisson, Cal., April 8.—"As long as I live in Sisson, the American flag will never be lowered to be kissed by a dialogal citizen, but rather, will we raise the traitor to his country, up to the flag."

That was the edict of Mayor Frank Lawrence which was imposed on all "disloyalists" today after its delivery at a liberty loan meeting. At the meeting Emil Rupp was forced to salute the colors.

SOCIETY

By CAROL E. DIBBLE

Contributing no small part to the success of the third liberty loan drive in Salem, which is opening with such auspicious indications of generous returns this week, is the work of the Women's committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris. The ground covered by the women through out the country in connection with this third liberty loan, has been mostly of an educational nature, and therefore done in advance of the regular soliciting of bonds, which began today. The women's committee has devoted the entire past week to the various instructive phases allied to the drive and by their zealous efforts and unceasing energy have broken ground in many directions throughout Marion county in preparation for the sowing of actual bond loans this week.

The clerical work of the entire county was accomplished by a committee of twenty women with Mrs. W. I. Staley as chairman. The educational side of the drive was developed by a number of speakers who gave pointed talks at numerous gatherings in the vicinity. Judge Barnett spoke on behalf of the bonds before the Eastern Star, Frank Davey talked before the Lady Foresters, Mrs. William Galloway, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, gave an address to the members of the Salem lodge. Mrs. George Wood talked to the P. E. O. Sisterhood, Mrs. Rollin K. Page delivered a number of addresses on the subject of the bonds before the following audiences: Parent Teachers' association of the Grant school and the Highland school; the weekly assembly of the Salem high school; the Degree of Honor; the Woman's Relief Corps; the Ladies' Auxiliary of the U. S. W. V.; the Royal Neighbors of America. Mrs. Page will also speak this week to the Pythian Sisters on Tuesday evening and to the Lady Macabees Wednesday evening. Though the women's committee were not called upon to solicit bonds, Mrs. Page through her clear and forceful presentation of the subject, sold a number of Liberty bonds during her campaigns which covered the past two weeks.

The many friends of Mrs. William Carlisle will learn with much regret that she has moved to Portland, where she will reside temporarily, in expectation of a call to one of the French soldier's camps. Mrs. Carlisle went to Portland Saturday. Today she gave an address to the cadets of Hill Military academy on Russia.

Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris returned today from a week end trip to Eugene, where Judge Harris spoke in behalf of the third liberty loan on Saturday.

Miss Dora Andrusen has returned from a delightful sojourn of two months in southern California. She visited friends in Los Angeles and San Diego, stopping at San Francisco and Oakland, on route north.

Out of regard to Mrs. Frederick Lamport, whose father, J. P. Rogers recently passed away, the Monday Afternoon Bridge club did not hold its regular meeting today. The club will be entertained next Monday by Miss Calista Moore.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purdy, 960 Mill street, was the scene of a jolly family reunion yesterday, when the seventy sixth birthday anniversary of George W. Albert of Lansing, Iowa, a brother of Mrs. Purdy, was pleasantly celebrated, and a large gathering of relatives. In observance of the event a dinner was enjoyed by the immediate members of the family including seven brothers and sisters. They are John H. Albert, Salem; George W. Albert, Lansing, Iowa; Mrs. Elizabeth Albert Holton and Mrs. Sarah Albert Robinson of Salem, Mrs. Emma Albert Rockwell of Portland, Mrs. Anna Albert Purdy and Thomas G. Albert of Salem. In the afternoon, about thirty relatives of the family gathered at the Purdy home for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Albert of Iowa, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Purdy, will pass several weeks in Salem.

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well. My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. Mary Boyd, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal. If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years' experience is at your service.

GERMANY GRABS AND HOLDS TERRITORY

Not Only Refuses to Evacuate Territory But Seizes Some More

By Joseph Shapiro (United Press staff correspondent) Petrograd, April 6.—(Night)—A representative of the soviet commissariat declared tonight that not only is Germany not evacuating territories occupied before the signing of the Brest-Litovsk treaty, but is holding those occupied since.

Ukrainian troops have occupied Ekaterinoslav after a severe battle, the soviet forces resisting desperately.

Ekaterinoslav is 250 miles northeast of Odessa and 125 miles south and west of Charkoff.

the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Neill over the week end, returning home this afternoon.

Miss Emma Waldorf will be hostess to the members of the La Arca club tonight at her home, 556 Marion street. The evening will be passed with sewing, followed by a social hour. Miss Waldorf will be assisted by her sister, Miss Bertha Waldorf.

Mrs. Frank Miles of Portland, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Calista Moore, for the past month, returned home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. G. Haack of Portland and children, Cloese and Gordon, motored to Salem yesterday, spending the day at the guests of Mrs. Haack's mother, Mrs. Pauline Jones. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haggan and little daughter, Helen, also of Portland.

The Pringle auxiliary of the Red Cross met Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Potter. It was an all day meeting and about 24 pajamas and 23 pairs of bed socks were completed.

The auxiliary was at the end of funds and material, so each member was assessed fifty cents. A picture was taken of the club, the proceeds of which will go to the Red Cross fund. A dainty luncheon was served at noon.

Those attending the meeting were: Mesdames Quimby, William Coburn, L. W. Potter, Roy V. Ohmart, W. R. Robins, John Yates, A. C. Steingrube, J. M. Coburn, C. C. Harris, J. N. Robertson, Charles Robins, G. Schoppert, W. Vanderbilt, E. S. Coates and the Mesdames Harriet Coburn and Bulah Milligan. The junior members of the party were Evelyn Coburn, Lee Ohmart and Milton Charles Robins.
