WHY WE ARE AT WAR WITH GERMANY

By EPHRAIM DOUGLASS ADAMS Executive Head, History Department Leiland Stanford Junior University

"The object of this war is to deliver the free peoples of the world from the menace and the actual power of a vast military establishment controlled by an irresponsible government, which, having secretly planned to dominate the world, proceeded to carry out the plan without regard either to the sacred obligations of treaty or the long-established practices and long-cherished principles of international action and honor."

The three great needs constantly put forth from Washington are: (1) food conservation to aid our Allies; (2) men; (3) money. The first, the Food Administration Bureau is attempting to secure largely by voluntary efforts. The second has been placed by law on a compulsory basis in the draft. The third will be compulsory by laws increasing present taxation to the extent of about one-quarter of the annual expenditures in the war; but three-quarters must be provided not by voluntary gift, but by voluntary loans.

The ease with which the draft of men was carried through, the quiet acquiescence of America in it, when advised by America's self-chosen leaders, was a magnificent proof of the essential patriotism of our people and of our confidence that we are a truly democratic nation. We trusted our advisers because we had ourselves elected them. Now we must trust them with our money and we must be ready for sacrifices. This war can not even be begun to be won until the people of America fully realize that sacrifices of all sorts, but especially of men and money, are inevitable.

Popular opinion seems to think we have already given much. Let us be honest. What have we given? True, we are preparing to give men and machines, and are spending money in that preparation, but our spending is as yet but a drop in the bucket compared to what our Allies have been spending for three years in defense of us. For that is what they have been doing—defending the world, and so defending us. We have been lending them money, at a good rate of interest. They do not ask us to give, even now. All that they expect is that we also shall bear our burdens, as they are bearing theirs, in this war for the future of humanity and for safety.

Look at a few facts of Great Britain's effort—not at grand totals, but at facts applied to the individual. In the last British War Loan there was a total of $4,350,000,000 in cash subscriptions, which means about $100 per person—men, women, and children. (The best that Germany was able to do in her last loan was $30 per person.) To equal Britain's effort of America, after she had been three years at war, would have to subscribe $10,000,000,000 in a single loan. Through taxation, interest on loans, and higher cost of living, it is estimated that every Englishman with an annual income of $2,500 gives $750 to support the war. One reason for this high cost is that Britain began the war without properly appreciating its financial burdens. It was the "Business as Usual" cry that kept the pouring out of money at first which, if then given, might have meant a saving for England later, and especially a saving of English lives.

This war can not be won without sacrifice. Let no one think it. If Germany wins, or even makes a draw of it, our future sacrifices will be many times greater. Let no one deceive himself as to that. Right now we are pouring out our dollars to equip them, but most of all, to furnish them with the instruments of war that their lives may not be lost by being put up as man power against machinery. Many of our boys will die; but some we may save if we are ready to spend the last dollar of our resources in giving them the tools with which to make a fair fight.

Right now it is "dollars and boys." In some ways it is a question of "dollars or boys." This is no abstract generalization. It is a question for YOU to answer personally, with serious thought of what money YOU have available. Every dollar held back for mere luxury, for non-essentials during this war, means a greater chance of the loss of a boy—it may be of your boy.

If you have no boy in service, and hold back your dollars, can you look your neighbor in the face when he loses his boy? If you do hold back, where do you think you are going to stand in your neighbor's estimation when this war ends?

This is the tenth of a series of ten articles by Professor Adams.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Mary Vaughan, wife of Rev. Daniel Vaughan (deceased), was born in 1832, on May 17, in Keamsville, Canada. She died April 10, 1918 at 8 a. m. in Vancouver, Washington, at the home of her son, J. W. Vaughan. Her maiden name was Mary Brown, daughter of Daniel Brown from England; and her mother, Betty Brown, whose maiden name was Betty Bull, daughter of Rev. Abram Bull, of England. At the age of 17 years she married Rev. Daniel Vaughan, of Ontario, Canada, wed. No. 25, 1849. The next spring 1850, April the 3th, they moved to Leona, Iowa. Lived there three years. Thence to Schuyler county, Missouri. Lived there six years. From there, in 1860, they moved to Jasper county, Iowa, remaining there ten years. In all these years they were ever faithful in the gospel work. From Iowa, they moved to Oregon, in 1871, arriving in Portland April 15th. Settled near Springfield, and lived there twenty years. Moved to Eugene City in 1891. In the early days many were the friends who were made welcome in his Christian home. Many were the troubled hearts soothed and comforted by their earnest prayers. Their work is done, and well done. Seven children were born to this home, of whom only two are now living, Nancy M. Wallace, of Hubbard, Oregon and J. W. Vaughan, of Vancouver, Washington.

A Tribute.

To the memory of my mother, by her daughter, Nancy M. Wallace. Mother, today my memory wanders To the years of long ago, When in childhood days, I lingered Round your heart with love aglow. Fond the hearts, and dear the faces Of the home we loved so well. Now, to find them memory traces, Yet of them we love to tell. Many were the burdens, mother, Which for us you bore so well, Faith in Jesus, and none other, Only can the story tell. Ever faithful, true and praying, For your loved ones, held so dear. That they might be kept from straying, And to Christ, be ever near. As the years rolled on, dear mother, Oh, how often did you pray, That your Savior and Redeemer, Give you strength for each new day. When at last, the conflict over, And of death you had no fear, When the Angels came to hover, And to bear you up from here.

Grandma Kept Her Locks Dark, Glossy, and Youthful with Sage Tea and Sulphur

The old time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite desirable, as we are growing in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready to use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready to use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Livesley News

(Capital Journal Special Service) Livesley, April 10.—Mrs. Alice Coolidge, who has spent the winter in Okla-homa and Iowa, is now at home on her beautiful fruit farm, near Livesley.

Aubrey Johnson spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Johnson. The "500" club was entertained by Mrs. Geo. Higgins last Saturday evening. Mervin Fuller held high score for the men, and Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Frances Edwards being tied for ladies' high score.

Mrs. Cal Thomas recently moved to Portland to join her husband who has been working in the ship yards for some time. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Purvis, who underwent an operation in Portland recently, is reported as doing quite well.

Mrs. W. V. Johnson, chairman of the Red Cross auxiliary, has called a business meeting to be held at the school house Wednesday evening. Carpenters are busy remodeling Harry Carpenter's house on the Carpenter Bros. prune ranch near Livesley station.

The G. T. club was entertained last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Joe Bressler; dainty refreshments were served, Mrs. Cal Thomas and Gladys Bressler assisted the hostess. A contest, which is always an amusing feature of the G. T. club gatherings, was won by Mrs. Harvey Carpenter and Mrs. Townsend. A thorough canvass of the neighborhood on the new food conservation program failed to disclose a single slacker in this community.

Joe Bressler, who owns a large peach orchard in this community, says that the recent cold spell has killed practically all the peaches.
