

REMARKABLE VALUES

for you in

Bed Spreads and Sheets

These prices, and a look at the goods, will convince any one that they are certainly remarkable values.

72x72 inch Crochet Bed Spreads at 98c

82x92 inch Crochet Bed Spreads at $2.69

Then you will find other Crochet Spreads at $1.35, $1.49, $1.98, $2.25

72x92 inch Marseilles Spreads at $1.98

There are other Marseilles Spreads with cut corners at $2.98, $3.98 and $4.98

J. C. Penney Co.

Incorporated

197 BUSY STORES

All Around Town

COMING EVENTS

April 29.—Music Recital at Willamette Chapel, Walker hall, 8 p. m.

May 2.—Dedication of Champeo Memorial Building.

May 6.—Opera "Chimes of Normandy" High School auditorium, by Music Department of High School.

June 8.—Total eclipse of the sun. World's Almanac gives hour as 1:38, but new time schedule will make the hour 2:38.

Wanted—Young man to work in ice cream factory. Apply at Gray-Belle confectionery.

Desirable old stock wall paper in limited quantities. Bargain prices. Bureau's Furniture Store, 179 Commercial St.

Robert D. Graham of Denver, who has been speaking in the west before Masonic bodies, will deliver an address this evening at 8:15 at the Masonic Temple on "The Wages of a Master Mason". Mr. Graham has spoken here before and made such a favorable impression that he was induced to return and deliver another of his lectures on Masonry.

Trade your old stove on a Duplex Alcazar. at Hamilton's.

Wanted—Man to wash dishes at Gray-Belle confectionery.

Funeral services over the late Mrs. Emma Brundidge, whose death occurred in this city Monday at the age of 46 years, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Webb & Clough chapel. Rev. F. T. Porter had charge of the services. Interment was in the City View cemetery.

Cretonnes and drapes at Hamilton's.

Boy wanted to work in candy factory. Apply at the Gray-Belle confectionery.

Levi Card, son of the late Mrs. Amanda Card, is in the city for a day or two, called here by the death of his mother. Mr. Card is located at Oakland California, where he is the representative of the Baker Hamilton Pacific hardware company. He formerly lived in Salem, having been connected with local hardware firms for about twelve years.

New prices for barbering in Salem. Owing to the scarcity of barbers and their demand for higher wages the barbers of Salem are compelled to raise their price as follows: Commencing Monday morning April 29th, hair cutting 40c, shaving 20c, 5c for neck haircut and shave 60c tonic shampoo 60c, plain shampoo 35c, beard trimming 35c, hair singling 35c, massaging 50c close week days at 6:30, Saturday 10 o'clock.

The Apex Electric cleaner has the lead for a dirt getter. Sold by Hamilton.

F. A. Elliott, state forester, left last evening for Baker, Union and Willamette counties, where he will attend conference of the fire patrol associations of those counties, which will be held next week at Baker and La Grande.

Get an Apex Electric cleaner, at Hamilton's.

I was awakened the other night by the barking of a dog. I arose to ascertain the cause, and found he was barking at the blossoms on Marun's tomato plants. 211 Miller St.

Little Virginia Holt, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Holt, was removed to the Salem hospital yesterday, where she underwent an operation for pleural pneumonia. She had just recovered from an attack of pneumonia when a set-back occurred. She was reported resting easily today.

New wall papers at Hamilton's.

Let me supply your wants in window box, bedding and border plants. I have the finest of plants in wide variety.

James L. Ingrey, proprietor of the barber shop at 311 State street, is the uncle of Arthur Ball, of York, Neb., whose name recently appeared in the published list of United States marines wounded in action on the west front. The young man is the son of Mr. Ingrey's sister. The report does not state how seriously he was injured.

Trover is anxious to show you the new styles and tell you about the new prices in photographs. Opp. Bligh theater.

You will need good plants to get results in your garden. Come to Marun for the best cabbage, cauliflower, tomato, pepper, etc. 211 Miller St.

Mrs. A. L. Johnson, living at 1155 south Summer street, is a thorough believer in the efficacy of Journal want ads. Recently she advertised several rugs for sale through the classified columns of the Journal and about a week later she could have sold a hundred rugs if she had had them. She also advertised a piece of real estate and sold it the second day, after it had been listed by agents for one year.

Pictures at $1 a doz. and up, at Trover's studio, opp. Bligh theater.

New styles, new prices, in photos at Trover's Studio, Opp. Bligh theater.

Mrs. E. G. Miller, living at 1267 Marion street, whose chicken house was discovered in flames about 4 o'clock Thursday morning, stated today that there was plenty of "roast chicken" before the fire was extinguished. The fire department was called but were blocked several minutes when they reached Twelfth street by a long freight train. Mrs. Miller says that nine of her fine Plymouth Rock hens were literally roasted alive, while several fruit trees adjacent to the buildings were also ruined. No trace has been discovered as to how the flames originated.

Trover, will personally attend to all sittings through May and June. Opp. Bligh theater.

Baker Last Night and Taft Today Boost Bonds

Cleveland, Ohio, April 27.—Former President Taft was in Cleveland today to fire another Liberty loan broadside, following that of Secretary of War Baker last night.

Baker thrilled thousands of Clevelanders with an appeal from America's fighting forces to the people at home to buy bonds.

Baker was "at home" here today. He laid aside his cares and duties as secretary of war, and became again just a Clevelandian, delighted to be among friends. He will speak at two Democratic dinners tonight. Senator McCreary and Governor Cox are also slated to speak.

The Willamette stood at 3.2 feet above low water today, falling from 3.5 feet since yesterday.

Trover will be found at his studio through May and June. Opp. Bligh theater.

Albert Krefz, son of Chas. Krefz, proprietor of the Center street grocery store, returned last evening to Portland after a short visit with his parents before leaving for Camp Lewis with the Multnomah county contingent of registered men. He left Portland this morning for the cantonment.

George Burres, who formerly lived in Salem and won quite a reputation here as a candy maker, spent last evening in the city as the guest of H. O. White and family. Mr. Burres is now located at Eugene, where he is proprietor of a confectionery store.

A community service flag will be unveiled at West Salem tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock, at the West Salem school house. Judge Benson will give an address and Mrs. Hallie Parrish Dillard will sing several selections, among them being "Keep the Home Fires Burning."

Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. William Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk, Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Bates and Mrs. Walter Spaulding made up a party that drove over to Dallas last night and attended a dance put on by the Hunt orchestra.

John Liskusky was turned over to a deputy U. S. marshal from Portland at 6 o'clock this morning. He is charged with being an alien enemy. A short time ago Liskusky attempted to get a young Austrian in trouble but after investigation, the authorities discovered that Liskusky was true for a federal investigation and was placed under arrest.

The Junior Rainbow regiment is growing as the following are entitled to honorable mention, having sold more than $50 worth of War Savings Stamps. Helen Waleher, 1534 South Commercial street, Lincoln school; Eunice Harmon and Elmer C. Harmon, 1463 Fir street, Lincoln school; Ruth Moore, 1019 Leslie street, Washington school.

You can't ever tell what a change in a man's business affairs will do to him. Frank M. Newton reports that when he started in the transfer business six years ago, a daughter was born to him. Today he gave up his horse as a means of travel and began driving a truck as modern transfer men are doing, and a son was born to him. Now he is figuring what would happen should he adopt the airplane as a means of transfer.

S. H. Van Trump, county fruit inspector, reports a strange kind of pear blight in spots in the neighborhood of Shaw where he spent yesterday in fruit inspection. The pear blossoms seem wilted, Mr. Van Trump said, and have turned a reddish brown. There are several indications of the same blight in the Chemawa neighborhood. Mr. Van Trump sent specimens to the plant pathologist, H. P. Speers, of the Oregon agricultural college.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Shaw and Mrs. Harry Anderson, of Portland, have been in Salem this week attending the Sunday school convention. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw were former residents of this city having moved to Portland in 1905, where the former is connected with the U. S. customs service. Mr. Shaw stated today that he notices vast changes and improvements in Salem since he was last here five years ago.

Errol Valentine Byrnes, in the eyes of the federal authorities is regarded as a deserter from the national army. He failed to report in Salem yesterday when he was to entrain for Camp Lewis. His case is now entirely out of the hands of the local exemption board and also beyond the immediate jurisdiction of Sheriff Needham. His time expired at 3 o'clock this afternoon. It is now up to the federal authorities to locate him and deal according to law.

For those who are interested in the bridge across the Willamette, it may be said that it will be entirely paid for as soon as finished which is a lot more than can be said about the first and second bridges for which the city is still paying on its share. It will cost $250,000 when completed which is estimated and called for in the contract as August 1. The city pays nothing on this bridge except its equitable share of taxes. The last agitation for a new bridge began in July of 1914 but it was not until July of 1917 that action was finally taken. The scaffolding is now being put up for the steel work.

The body of Ed LaValley, who was electrocuted Thursday at Spokane, was received in Salem today at the Webb & Clough parlors. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Webb & Clough chapel, and interment will be in City View cemetery. Deceased was 45 years of age and was born in Michigan. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, two years of age, both of whom live in Salem, and a step-

5 CENT DELIVERY

Beginning with Monday, April 29th we will make no more free deliveries. Meats of all kinds have taken a decided jump but in order to keep them as low as possible we have adopted the "No delivery system" being used by other markets in different cities and in accordance with that recommended by the United States Government. However, for the convenience of those who may wish it we will for the present maintain one delivery car and make your delivery the same as usual for the nominal charge of 5 cents.

E. C. CROSS & SON,
"Meats of Quality and Flavor"

PERSONAL

Tom Booth was up from Portland today on a business trip.

Alex Merrifield of Aumsville was a business visitor in Salem today.

Dob Brock, H. L. Wright and Sherm Swank were among the business visitors from Aumsville in the city today.

Ben R. Robinson of Turner, was among the out of town visitors in Salem today.

Henry Earl was in the city from Turner today on business.

Low Adams was in Salem today from his home at Silverton.

William Howard of Shaw was a visitor in Salem today.

Attorney E. M. Page left this morning for Portland on a business trip.

Alba L. Card returned to Portland last night after attending the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. Amanda Card.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Wright left this morning for Albany, called there by the serious illness of the former's father, William Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bishop and son, Arthur Maloolin, arrived this afternoon from Portland for a week end visit with Mrs. Bishop's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Clough at 1129 Broadway.

Geo. N. Beck and wife of Hubbard, were visitors in Salem today.

K. T. Spaulding came in yesterday from Silverton for an over Sunday visit with his daughter, Mrs. Mae Ivie, of the Capital hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Page left this morning for Balston to spend the day with Mrs. Page's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Putnam were Salem visitors yesterday from Shaw.

Frank Masser and daughter were in the city yesterday from their home at Shaw.

Mrs. O. E. Lewis was a visitor in Salem yesterday from her home in Polk county.

Mrs. Floyd Sherwood and children, Francis and Herald, of Portland, have been spending the week with Mrs. Sherwood's mother, Mrs. L. M. Carter, living on south Winter street.

R. C. Shisler of Harrisburg is among the out of town visitors who are here attending the Sunday school convention.

J. H. Mears of Sheds, has been in the city for the past several days visiting with friends and attending the Sunday school convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smiley were visitors in Salem yesterday from their home at Independence.

Mrs. J. W. Kelley and Mrs. Ernest Roberts of Independence, were trading at the local stores yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. Mae Dorothy Brown was held at 11 o'clock this morning from the Webb & Clough chapel, deceased having died in this city Sunday at the age of 49 years. Rev. F. T. Porter had charge of the services. Burial was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

The Yankees are in it with Fritz from the drop of the hat to the drop of the hite.

Ed Wright, secretary of the public service commission, living at 245 south Cottage street, is enjoying a visit from his mother, Mrs. W. T. Wright, whose home is in Union county.

Chimes of Normandy, liberty loan fund, Serpolette, the village mischief maker in the person of Florence Jones is irresistible. Tickets reserved at high school 8:30 a. m. Monday April 29.

Liberty loan fund help it by buying a ticket to Chimes of Normandy—only 50c reserved. Get them at the music stores now. Oper May 6. Tickets reserved April 29, 8:30 a. m. at high school.

Mrs. Earl Wood left today for Tacoma, Wash., where she goes to join her husband, who is connected with a garage at that place. Mr. Wood was formerly employed in Vick Bros' garage home, leaving last Tuesday for Tacoma. Mrs. Wood was accompanied by her little daughter.

Study stenography at the Capital Business college, and prepare for one of the many places now open to those well qualified to do office work. Here calls than we can fill. A new class in shorthand next Monday. Investigate.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, graduate morticians and funeral directors, 770 Cheneketa St. Phone 724.

The Junior, the play which is to be given by the students of the public speaking department of Willamette University on the evenings of May 2nd and 3rd, is one of Edwin Bateman Morris' college comedies, and is laughter provoking throughout. It is ably directed by Professor Della Crowder Miller, assuring a successful production.

Pictures and frames, moderate prices, popular designs, good assortment. Bureau's Furniture Store, Commercial St.

Second hand furniture, rugs and gas stove, for sale, in good condition. Mrs. Chace, phone 916.

The annual statement of the Rural Credit department of the State Land Board shows the following loans in Marion county: William T. Brinkley, $1,500; John P. Mattheu, $2,000; J. M. Martin, $5,000; Willie E. Eberman, $2,000; W. H. South, $500; Emily M. Weeks, $3,000; Bertha J. Carlson, $1,000; J. F. Brentano, $5,000; W. T. Hogg, $1,000.

Wall paper bargains unusual in a number of browns, greens and reds. Bureau's Furniture Store, 179 Commercial street.

Miller tires are wrapped tread. Made with less heat than other tires, leaving the natural life in both the fabric and rubber, 99 per cent perfect. I save your rimcut and side blowout tires. Clark's Tire House, 319 N. Commercial.

A total of 6,611 residents of Salem will be entitled to vote at the primaries next month, according to the registration figures checked up at the city hall yesterday afternoon. The fourth ward was found to have the greatest number of voters, 1311 being registered in this ward. The registration figures for the various wards are as follows: first ward, 687; second ward, 1137; third ward, 416; fourth ward, 1311; fifth ward, 1170; sixth ward, 1069; seventh ward, 831.

WANTED

Used Furniture, Machinery, Bicycles, Harness, Tools, etc. I always pay the best cash price. Second-hand Goods—Bought and Sold.

Store Cot. Ferry and Liberty Sts. Farm Stock Sales a specialty. Auction Sales Every Saturday.

F. N. WOODREY,
The Auctioneer,
Phone 510 or 511

I WANT TO BUY

Your Junk and give you a square business deal. I always pay the highest cash prices.

I Want Your Sacks and Rags

I buy all kinds of used goods, 2nd hand furniture, rubber and junk. Get my prices before you sell.

The Capital Junk Co.

The Square Deal House
271 Cheneketa St. Phone 398

NOTICE!

No More Free Deliveries

Effective Monday, April 29, 1918

In conformity with the Government's general request to CONSERVE and save all unnecessary expense—thus keeping down price to consumer

WE HAVE SUSPENDED OUR FREE DELIVERY SERVICE.

We believe it only consistent that every effort be made to WIN THE WAR and conserve the manhood of our nation.

We Need Your Co-operation.

BE A PATRIOT by doing your part in carrying your purchases and make our decision successful. For such of our patrons who are not willing to do this, a FEE DELIVERY SYSTEM has been provided and purchases may be ordered sent home at a cost of 5c for each delivery.

ALSO owing to the constant steady advance in price of all grades of Livestock we are compelled to increase price of Beef at from 2c to 6c per pound, according to quality and various kinds of cuts.

HOWEVER, you may rely on our giving you the lowest possible prices at all times.

Steusloff Bros.

Court and Liberty Streets,
Salem, Oregon

PHONE 1528

DIED

ANDERSON—Saturday, April 27, 1918, at his home, 219 Court street, William Robert Anderson, at the age of 87 years.

Mr. Anderson was one of the oldest and best known pioneers. He was born in Illinois in 1831, crossed the plains in 1852 with an ox team and has lived in this vicinity ever since. He is survived by a wife and three daughters as follows: Mrs. E. O. White and Mrs. Dan Vollmer, of Salem, and Mrs. Otto Schell, of Bremerton, Wash., and one son, William Everett Anderson, of Salem. He is also survived by one brother, Geo. W. Anderson, of Gately, Oregon.

Deceased was a charter member of the Odd Fellow lodge, and also a member of the A. O. U. W.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the Webb & Clough chapel, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. Interment will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

ALLISON.—Saturday, April 27, 1918, Mrs. Mary Ester Allison, aged 64 years, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Percy M. Varney, 580 Center street.

Besides her daughter living in Salem, Mrs. Allison is survived by a husband, John H. Allison, a daughter, Mrs. Edith Brennan, living at McMinnville, and a son, Harold T. Allison, living at Hopewell. She is also survived by two brothers, one living in Iowa and one in Michigan. The family came to Oregon in 1875, settling in Yamhill county where they have made their home continuously till about a year ago when they moved to Salem and have since made their home with their daughter and her husband.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Hopewell United Brethren church, conducted by Rev. F. H. Neff. Burial will be in the Hopewell cemetery.

HIBBARD.—At her home at Willard, three miles east of Pratum, Friday, April 26, 1918, Mrs. K. L. Hibbard, at the age of 78 years.

Mrs. Hibbard was one of the old pioneers of Oregon and was the mother of Hal Hibbard who was killed in the Spanish American war, and after whom Hal Hibbard camp, composed of Spanish war veterans, was named.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the home at Willard. Burial will be in the Warren cemetery, under the auspices of the Webb & Clough.

DAWSON.—Friday, April 26, 1918, at his home, 1521 north Winter street, William J. Dawson, at the age of 40 years.

He is survived by his wife and seven children, the first two of whom are in the United States service: Ray Dawson, Ralph Dawson, Ruth, Johnnie, Robert, Helen and Theodore Dawson. His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson, died in Salem about a week ago. He is survived also by an aged father, one brother, a sister living in Indiana, and one sister, Mrs. Wm. McIlwain, of this city.

Arrangements for the funeral will be postponed awaiting word from one son who is in the government service in San Diego.

WANTED, JUNK

And All Kinds of 2nd Hand Goods.

Full Market Prices—Special Prices paid for Sacks.

Get our prices before you sell.

THE PEOPLE'S JUNK & 2ND HAND STORE

271 N. Com'l St. Phone 734

W H E Y

For Feeding Hogs

CAN BE HAD AT THE

Marion Creamery

Call or Telephone 2188

WANTED

Used Furniture, Machinery, Bicycles, Harness, Tools, etc. I always pay the best cash price. Second-hand Goods—Bought and Sold.

Store Cot. Ferry and Liberty Sts. Farm Stock Sales a specialty. Auction Sales Every Saturday.

F. N. WOODREY,
The Auctioneer,
Phone 510 or 511

I WANT TO BUY

Your Junk and give you a square business deal. I always pay the highest cash prices.

I Want Your Sacks and Rags

I buy all kinds of used goods, 2nd hand furniture, rubber and junk. Get my prices before you sell.

The Capital Junk Co.

The Square Deal House
271 Cheneketa St. Phone 398

WANTED, JUNK

And All Kinds of 2nd Hand Goods.

Full Market Prices—Special Prices paid for Sacks.

Get our prices before you sell.

THE PEOPLE'S JUNK & 2ND HAND STORE

271 N. Com'l St. Phone 734

W H E Y

For Feeding Hogs

CAN BE HAD AT THE

Marion Creamery

Call or Telephone 2188
