UNITED STATES SENATOR Charles L. McNary

Because United States Senator Charles L. McNary has made good he should be nominated to succeed himself in the republican primary, May 17th.

From the day he became senator he has loyally championed the prosecution of the war, and during his term of office has accomplished more for Oregon than any other member in congress in a like period.

Among his colleagues he is known as "the man on the job," and during the present war crisis Oregon should consider itself fortunate in having an opportunity to return him and not be compelled to send to Washington a new, untried man.

Believing that the supreme obligation he owes his country is to help win a primary wheat market, instead of returning to his state to conduct a political campaign, is at his post in Washington working for Oregon and aiding in the prosecution of the war.

Always since entering the senate he has been a friend of our soldiers and sailors and has introduced legislation giving them preferential homestead rights and repeatedly championed their cause when their welfare was in jeopardy.

Championing the cause of the Oregon farmers, Senator McNary procured from a primary wheat market, saving thereby several million dollars to the wheatgrowers of the northwest.

Realizing the present food control law fails to fix prices for many commodities, Senator McNary has introduced, and is laboring for the passage of a bill, striking at profiteering and fixing prices on the necessities of life.

Senator McNary has procured: Government contracts for the first time in the state's history for Oregon products, such as prunes, dehydrated potatoes and vegetables in large quantities.

Large government contracts for army clothing, shipbuilding yards, and lumbering industry. (Paid adv.)

GERMAN EFFORTS FAIL

By Henry Wood
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

With the French Armies in the Field. May 1.—Although Germany has engaged two and a half million men in the present offensive to date, conservative calculations show she is still capable of mounting this offensive effort.

The allies, however, with their new unity of command and superiority in fresh reserves, coupled with the inability of the Germans again to effect a surprise, hold the trump card.

The fatal consumption of German effectiveness is indicated by the fact that while the enemy began March 21 with half a million men in the front line, they have been obliged since to engage five times that number.

The allies have identified on the west front 206 divisions (2,472,000 men), out of the Germans entire total of 242, including those on other fronts. To date the Germans have engaged 140 separate divisions in the present battles—many two or three times—making a total of 180 divisions engaged. This leaves sixty six unengaged, of which ten are land-storm and landwehr, incapable of offensive work.

This prodigal use of effectiveness together with General Foch's conservative use of allied reserves, gives the latter an unengaged, fresh divisions than the Germans.

Artillery Fire In Picardy

London, May 2.—German artillery was active this morning in the Villers-Bretonneux sector, in Picardy, and in the neighborhood of Meris, in Flanders, Field Marshal Haig reported.

Last night there was considerable enemy cannonading in the sector connecting the Flanders and Picardy battle fronts.

"The enemy's artillery showed considerable activity early this morning in the Villers-Bretonneux sector and in the neighborhood of Meris," the report said.

"In the Arras, Lens and St. Venant sectors, there was considerable artillery activity last night. No infantry actions were reported."

Battle Front Is Quiet

London, May 2.—The western battle front continued comparatively quiet yesterday, only the usual artillery activity and local encounters being reported in overnight official statements.

Field Marshal Haig reported enemy bombardment of the back area near Bethune and French positions in the region of Lechre.

The French war office said there was lively cannonading north of Montdidier.

Despite the allied statements that there were no infantry combats of importance, the German war office said that several French assaults near Fraumont were repulsed. "Successful reconnoissances" on both sides of the Somme were claimed.

Haig said the British took 5,241 German prisoners during April.

Finns Taken Prisoner

Copenhagen, May 2.—The Germans took 11,000 prisoners in Helsinki, according to dispatches today from the Finnish capital, and 5,000 more in Viborg, including the red guard premier.

Viborg was bombarded for eleven hours and partially destroyed.

The Finnish civil and parliamentary bodies agreed to a restoration of the monarchy but the young Finns demand a continuation of the republic.

Fields of Marcel finally raised $100 early today and he was released from duress.

Marcel came to Portland about 18 months ago. He organized a class of two hundred women and a few men, stenographers and clerks who worked during the day became ballet dancers at night, wearing abbreviated clothing consisting of very little from the hips up. They furnished their own costumes. Marcel himself wore a diaper and sandals.

His arrest followed quickly upon his local triumph. Last night he staged a big exhibition entitled Cleopatra at a local theatre. While still panting from his exercises he was arrested.

The ten women who interceded unavailingly for him with the police were said to be local society women.

New Madge Kennedy Hit, "Our Little Wife", Here

Goldwyn Star Has Gay Role in Avery Hopwood's Story of Laughter and Thrills at Liberty Theater

Madge Kennedy, Goldwyn star, who has had such remarkable success in motion picture adaptations of Broadway stage plays, will follow her appearance in "Baby Mine" and "Nearby Married" with "Our Little Wife" at the Liberty theater beginning today.

Miss Kennedy, in the space of a few months, has become one of the greatest screen favorites in America. Her eyes, her smile, her sunny manner have captivated the nation, and she already may boast of a tremendous following everywhere.

In "Our Little Wife" Miss Kennedy finds another part that fits her peculiar capabilities like a glove. The heroine of the story is the same innocent, demure little girl that, our portrays so well, provoking alternate laughter and tears by her amusing and pathetic changes of appeal.

The production introduces a new author to the Goldwyn constellation, but one already famous in the world of the speaking theater. Avery Hopwood, also wrote "Fair and Warmer," and was co-author of "Seven Days."
