Eola News Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Eola, May 4.—B. I. Ferguson is helping his two sons, Roy and Ray, in their hay yard work, near Wacanda. Enoch Mitty of Riddleton, Wash., is visiting at the home of her grand parents.

Our school will close the seventeenth of May.

Capt. Phillip Patterson and his brother, Lee, visited their parents here, Saturday and Sunday, going Monday to Portland for a short visit. Capt. Patterson is off duty on a ten day furlough.

Edward Antrien is carrying one of his arms in a sling. He fell from a horse and broke one of the bones in his arm and bruised his nose quite badly. Mrs. Holmes gave first aid. Later he was taken to Salem.

Mrs. Luena of Salem is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Brunk.

The Red Cross helpers here met Thursday afternoon and made bandages and gun wipers. Thirteen were present.

The children of Eola had lots of fun May day evening hanging May baskets.

ROBBERY NEAR GRANTS PASS

Grants Pass, Or., May 4.—Sheriff George Lewis admitted today that there was little chance to apprehend the two robbers who held up Robert Boswell and his son, and escaped with three gold bars worth $6000.

The Boswells live alone on one of the richest claims in Oregon. They were molting down the panings of a few days when two masked men ordered their hands up, bound them to a tree and then searched the place.

The sheriff got a late start on the case because of the difficulties in reaching the claim.

Donald News

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Donald, Or., May 4.—A beautiful day, large crowd and good program, was the order of the day at the Champog celebration. The boat "Pamona" from Portland was late in reaching Champog but after the large crowd reached the beautiful memorial building the program began, Judge D'Arcy presiding. The dedicatory address by E. Governor Geor, was enjoyed also the patriotic response by Gov. Withycombe. We were honored by the presence also of Ex-Governor Moore of Washington. Prof. Meeneey and many other people prominent in the "Oregon Country". The music by "The Pioneer Quartet" was really enjoyed.

Grettle Eppers and Clarence Davies are wrestling with the measles this week. It is generally supposed they have been well weathered through the school, and many more cases will follow. Fortunately they are of the mild type, so are not particularly dreaded.

Cecil Lander and Florence A. Connor were married in Salem on Thursday.

Mrs. Lander, mother of the groom accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and their children, Mrs. J. L. Reibeck and Mrs. M. W. Johnson attended the dedication at Champog May 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moore and sons, Clarence and William, with Madames Quinn and Sixsmith motored to Portland for the day, Sunday.

Mr. H. N. Smith, of Donald vicinity was a business visitor to Portland Saturday last.

H. N. Smith of Donald shipped out a carload of cordwood to Portland on Tuesday. Mr. Smith has several hundred cords to ship out.

Misses Doty and Grottle were guests at the Gribble home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Yorgen and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnson motored to Canby Sunday afternoon.

During the summer the Donald Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m. in a building of 2 p. m. as heretofore.

Misses Doty, Grottle and Lamb, Donald teachers, with a number of their pupils attended the clearing of the contest "Who Will Win" at Woodburn, Saturday.

Mr. Hal De Sart making the trip over on his bicycle.

Mr. Fox representing the Fleischner & Meyer Wholesale house of Portland was interviewing the Donald merchants on Thursday.

Mrs. B. S. Quinn was a guest of her mother, Mrs. Mathoit near Butteville on Saturday.

Mr. Ralph Radu of East Butteville was a Donald shopper on Monday.

Mr. Ralph Grimm and Dr. Weaver of Hubbard were in Donald Monday evening examining candidates for the Woodmen of the World lodge, soon to be organized at this place.

Mrs. O. O. Cone and sons attended the Red Cross social at Butteville on Saturday evening, reporting a successful social both socially and financially.

Emil Aufrane and family and Mrs. Louisa and baby of Salem were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Aufrane of Donald on Sunday.

The Donald Order of Eastern Star had as their guest on Friday evening, Mrs. Luena A. Meendenhal, of Portland, worthy grand maqron. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening spent. This will be the last meeting until after their charter is received in June.

Albert Smith of the marines, stationed at Mare Island Cal., has a thirty days furlough and is spending it with his grandmother, Mrs. Julia Mathoit near Butteville.

Mrs. Jess Johnson and cousin of Portland, visited in Aurora over the week end, with Mrs. Johnston's mother and sister, Mrs. Candleron and Mrs. Snyder.

Mr. Geo. W. Weeks another candidate was "doing" Donald in his political interests this week.

DIED AT SILVERTON

Wm. Bates, aged 85 years, a resident of this community for many years passed away Sunday at the home of his brother-in-law, A. Leiken at

FRANK D. SHEA DIED SUNDAY

Frank D. Shea died at the Portland sanitarium Sunday morning, after an illness covering several months. He went to the sanitarium the first of the year in the hope that a rest and treatment afforded there would build up his system. Mr. Shea came to this city in February, 1917, to take a responsible position with the Silver Falls Lumber company and continued his employment until he left for the treatment.

Deceased was born in Winona, Minnesota, July 8, 1873, and is survived by a wife and young son, also three brothers who live in Saginaw, Michigan.

Funeral services were held Tuesday conducted by Rev. E. M. Smith and burial made in the Green Mountain cemetery.—Appeal.

KLEIN BROS. GET HIGH HOLSTEIN AVERAGE

Summary of the Oregon Cow Testing association for the month of February shows that Klein brothers of Silverton received the highest average for their herd of Holsteins in Marion county. There were 197 cows on test, Klein Bros. from six cows received 855 pounds of milk which averaged 34.45 pounds butter fat. The boys have an excellent herd of cattle in which they take much pride.—Silverton Appeal.
