SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DIBBLE

Social interest is now being centered in the party of a patriotic nature, at which the Daughters of the Ameriean Revolution will entertain May 24. The Sons of the American Revolution and their wives will be the guests of and their wives will be the guests of honor for the occasion. The men's or 'ganization, though mundering about thirty residents of the city, is not so well known as that of the Salem 'Daughters,' Mrs E. S. Tillinghast has offered the spacious accommodations at the state deaf school for the affair, which will combine the regular afternoon meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution and a picuic supper. Dancing will follow in the evening, when a number of outside guests will be bidden.

Mr. and Mrs. Laban Steeves were week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves, coming down from Port-land to attend the slay Day exercises at Willamette university.

Mrs. Walter Gray of Portland was a recent guest of Miss Calista Moore at the Moore residence on Oak street.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kemano went to Portland yesterday for an indefi-nite stay. Mrs. Kemano will visit her sister, Mrs. C. N. Willard.

Mrs. O. A. Olson was hostess at a pretty five hundred party Friday afternoon at her home on Oak street, when she entertained informally with three tables of cards. Mrs. Walter Smith captured the high score, which was awarded in the form of a lovely
