SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DIBBLE

An event of interest tomorrow will be the "thrift stamp tea" to be given at the Y. W. C. A. rooms by St. Agnes Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The members of the guild have chosen this way of doing their share towards increasing the funds for a new church, which must be completed by 1923, the time at which the thrift stamps mature. Assisting during the tea hours, from four to six, will be Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Robert Gill, Miss Ethel Rupert, Miss Eliza Nolan, Miss Florence Cleveland will preside as hostess. A thrift stamp will be taken at the door as the visitor's passport of admission.

A short musical program will be a feature of the afternoon. Miss Emily Griffin will also give a solo dance. All members and friends of the church are cordially invited.

Mrs. Chumney Bishop is planning to leave Friday for Palo Alto, California, where she will join her mother, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, for a few weeks visit with Lieutenant Carl Gabrielson, a brother of Mrs. Bishop. Lieutenant Gabrielson is stationed at Camp Fremont and expects to be ordered to France within a short time.

Mrs. Gabrielson has been south about ten days, and is enjoying a variety of pleasures. She is visiting with her son's friends, who, true to the California code of hospitality, are letting her no beauty spot in the orchard decked Santa Clara valley or picturesque nook around Stanford university, pass unseen, where motoring, above and beyond all else, is the visitor's delight. Mrs. Bishop will be accompanied to Palo Alto by her small son, Charles Kay.

Mrs. Sophronia Jessup of Boise, Idaho, arrived in Salem yesterday for an extended visit with Salem friends. Entertaining Mrs. Jessup at the outset of her stay is Mrs. Frederick Stewart, whose house guest she will be for several weeks. Mrs. Jessup is a visitor, much welcomed in Salem, and especial pleasure is attached to her present sojourn in the city as it has been a year or more since she has made a stay of any length in Salem.

Mrs. E. M. Burke of San Francisco, who has been the guest of her son and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Maxwell Burke, the past week, left yesterday for Portland, going on to Seattle tonight, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Calhoun. Mrs. Burke will also spend a few days with her son, Captain Burke, at Camp Lewis, who expects to leave for France shortly. She will return to Salem before her departure home.

The following members of the Salem Woman's club were elected to office at the final meeting of the year held Saturday in the Commercial club auditorium:

President, Mrs. John H. Albert; vice president, Mrs. Zudoe Riggs; recording secretary, Miss Mattie Betty; financial secretary, Mrs. Roy Burton; treasurer, Mrs. James Elvin. Mrs. George Pennoe was chosen as a director.

The report of the retiring president, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, was read and other reports by officers and committees were given. Club meetings will be resumed next September.

Mrs. James Day and Miss Marian Roberts of Black Rock are spending a few days in Salem visiting friends. They will return home the latter part of the week.

Five nurses will receive diplomas at the graduating exercises of the Salem Hospital Training school for nurses, to be held this evening at the First Presbyterian church. The class roll numbers Miss Jennie Lucile Pearce, Miss Esther Louise Brightman, Miss Ruth Evelyn Kyle, Miss Laura Louise Miller and Miss Ottile Caroline Montag.

WOMAN WORKS 15 HOURS A DAY

Marvelous Story of Woman's Change from Weakness to Strength by Taking Druggist's Advice.

Peru, Ind.—"I suffered from a displacement with backache and dragging down pains so badly that at times I could not be on my feet and it did not seem as though I could stand it. I tried different remedies without any benefit and several doctors told me nothing but an operation would do me any good. My druggist told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it with the result that I am now well and strong. I get up in the morning at four o'clock, do my housework, then go to factory and work all day, come home and get supper and feel good. I don't know how many of my friends I have told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. ANNA METERIANO, 88 West 10th St., Peru, Ind.

Women who suffer from any such ailments should not fail to try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

tempered with musical and literary numbers. Vocal selections were rendered by Miss Grace Fawc, Miss Frances Ward, and Miss Leonia Peterson which were greatly enjoyed. Miss Eva Roberts was heard with much delight in a piano solo.

Readings were given by Mrs. G. E. Ross and Miss Leonia Estes each of whom graciously responded to an encore.

The surprise of the afternoon came when Mrs. G. P. Holt was called upon for a reading. After a few introductory words regarding the place Mrs. Reasoner had filled in the church and the regret all felt at her leaving, she read a testimonial of appreciation which had been beautifully engrossed and bound in leather upon which Mrs. Reasoner's name had been stamped in gold letters. The book also contained blank leaves on which the guests wrote their names. This was presented to Mrs. Reasoner who responded briefly expressing her surprise and thanks.

Refreshments were served the latter part of the afternoon, the hostesses being assisted in serving by the Misses Mary Barriek, Leonia Estes, Eva Roberts and Lucy Holt.

Miss Clover D. Miller of Silverton was a recent guest of Mrs. Roma C. Hunter at her home on South High street. Miss Miller, who is an English instructor in the Silverton high school came up to attend the dance recital given by the pupils of Mrs. Ralph White last week. Miss Dorothy Hubbs of Silverton was also the guest of Miss Mayle Hunter for the recital. Other visitors at the Hunter residence were Mr. and Mrs. William Bert Powell of Portland, who motored to Salem for the week end.

Miss Nancy Skaffe was a visitor in Portland over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stiff motored to Portland Monday to attend a Laurelhurst club dance, returning home yesterday.

Mrs. Clifford Farmer is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. G. Hawk of Portland. Mrs. Farmer will accompany her sister and a party of friends on a motor trip to Seattle, before her return to Salem.

W. AL. JONES

Republican, Candidate for Nomination for State Senator

W. Al. Jones has been a citizen of Oregon for forty years, having been born and raised in Marion County. Attended the public schools of Mission Bottom, graduating therefrom at seventeen years of age. Attended and graduated from the Portland Business College. I live on a farm two miles west of Wacanda Station, Gervais Rural Route No. 2, with my wife and two children, and have followed farming and stockraising all of my life, with the exception of two years, part of which time I was Secretary of the Oregon State Fair Board.

Four years of my life was spent in Wallowa County, where I operated a large farm, and was elected for a third district (Union and Wallowa Counties) as a member of the House of Representatives of the 1915 session by a good majority. I was also elected as a member of the same body from Marion County in the 1917 session by a large majority. I now desire to be elected as one of the two Senators to represent Marion County, believing my legislative experience of the past fully qualifies me for the honor I seek. I will appreciate your support.

Wool Dress Goods

This should be of interest to every woman and impel her to choose at least one more dress before these Woolens become a mere memory.

Real Wool Goods are almost impossible to get from the mills to say nothing of the slim assortment. Formerly, the choosing of colors, patterns and qualities was mostly a matter of taste—now the selections from the mills have simmered down to less than one-tenth their former assortments. Furthermore the mills are operating on nearly 100 per cent advance in prices.

Now we are calling your attention to the GOOD OLD VALUES that can not "come back" when sold out. At a not far distant time you'll think of these splendid Tailor Serges, Suits Dress Serges in black, navy and other colors. Also Novelty Stripes and Plaids in excellent variety. Then there are Gabardines, Poplins, Whip-Cords, Chiffon Broadcloths, Velours, Woven Jerseys and Shepard Checks—Not a finer line in Oregon at present day prices.
