It is the third time back for C. G. Nichols, who formerly owned a grocery store on North Commercial street.

Several years ago Mr. Nichols came to the Willamette valley, rather liked the country, but decided to return to his home at Mitchell, S. D. Then he felt a longing for the country that is always green and he returned, engaging in the grocery business. About a year ago he sold his business interests here and once more went back to Mitch here and once more went back to Mitch
