

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By CAROL S. DIEBLE

DISTINCTIVE elegance and simplicity of detail were happily combined in the patriotic luncheon given by Mrs. A. N. Bush at her residence on North Capitol street Wednesday, in farewell compliment to Mrs. Anna Rogers Fish, who is leaving Salem the latter part of the month for Boise, Idaho.

The trio of red, white and blue was effectively maintained in a handsome centerpiece of rich, red tulips, white snapdragons and the deep blue cornflowers. An artistic arrangement of crystallized grapes in the delicate pastel shades, placed at either end of the table and supplemented by other dainty confections, added a pretty touch of novelty to the complete harmony of table decoration.

The patriotic motif was most successfully developed in the varied menu, which conformed throughout to the prescribed edicts laid down by Hoover. Chic, little satin petalled bouillottes, unfolding in a gay bloom of red, white and blue afforded exquisite favors for the guests.

The occasion was an especially pleasurable one, assembling as it did, a most congenial group of the honor guests' friends, who enjoying a common bond of versatile interests, shared a welcome opportunity of renewing such acquaintanceship.

Covers were arranged for Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. William E. Kirk, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. C. A. Park, Mrs. H. J. Talbot, Mrs. Alice Dodd, Mrs. George H. Alden and Miss Edith Hazard.

Salem society is falling into line with the trend of social life in other metropolitan communities and taking an early cue from the first May hints of approaching summer, is retreating to the Idaho country club golf links as the ideal field for vacation activities in the sphere of socialdom. Though numerous impromptu parties have been formed throughout the spring Sundays among golf devotees, the marked exodus to the links will formally begin Sunday, May 26, when the club will hold open house all day.

As a fore runner of this "open house" hospitality to be extended the friends of the club by the members, an informal dance will be held Thursday night at the club house, when a special program and a regatta of spring decoration will inaugurate a series of these delightful parties to be given at frequent intervals throughout the summer.

The entertainment committee directing the arrangements for the dance next week includes Mrs. A. O. Locke, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, F. W. Stensloff, Curtis Cross, C. B. Webb.

Mrs. Frank M. Jordan of Seattle will arrive in Salem tomorrow morning for a week's stay as the guest of Mrs. Henry W. Meyers at her residence on North Summer street. Mrs. Jordan is a frequent Salem visitor, and her arrival in the city is always heralded with much delight by her Salem friends who invariably entertain at numerous informal affairs in her honor.

Accompanying Mrs. Channey Bishop and little son, Charles Kay, who left yesterday for Palo Alto, California, was Mrs. Percy Young of Albany, a frequent Salem visitor. Mrs. Young will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Isabel Young, who is attending Stanford University and will remain south until the close of college, when Miss Young and her mother will return north together. Mrs. Bishop will visit in Palo Alto for several weeks.

Mrs. Ralph Glover was a charming hostess for the Monday Bridge club this week, at her home, 1694 Court street, the gathering assuming pleasurable significance for the members, being in the nature of a farewell compliment to Mrs. George Watson, a popular club member, who left Salem to make her home in New York city, the past week. A lovely arrangement of narcissus and white lilies greeted the guests in the drawing rooms.

Additionally bidden for the afternoon were: Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Merin Harding, Mrs. John Brophy and Mrs. Henry Corrover. The club will be entertained next week by Mrs. Frederick Laupport.

A pretty event of this afternoon was the gala children's party, at which Mrs. Ralph White entertained the pupils of her juvenile dancing class, who recently participated in the brilliant May Dance recital staged by Mrs. White at the opera house.

The merry assemblage of sixty little people gathered at Cotillion hall for an hour or two of dancing, later going to the Rose room of the Spa, where dainty refreshments were served the throng of small belles and beaux.

Assisting Mrs. White were: Miss Lucile DeWitt, Miss Frances Ward, Miss Maycyle Hunter and Miss Margaret White.

With the social calendar bearing full weight of patriotic entertainments these days, it would seem that only miraculous inspiration on the part of the committees in charge could produce any marked diversity or innovation of program, but the general anti-fascist sentiment, entering upon the function to be given by the Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution the last of the month, points towards an event of considerable interest and regalement. Mrs. E. S. Tilghman has offered the spacious accommodations of the Mute school for the occasion, which will comprise the regular meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the afternoon, followed by a picnic supper, at which the husbands of the "Daughters" and the Sons of the American Revolution and their wives will be the guests of honor.

The evening hours are to be devoted to a jitsy dance and musical program, which will be open to the public. The orchestra will play for the dance numbers. A moving picture show is also to be included as one of the novel attractions. The object of the affair is primarily a patriotic one, in view of which, Judge Walter McCannant will give an address on a subject of a patriotic nature.

The committee supervising the arrangements numbers Mrs. J. G. Holtz, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Miss Edith Benedict, Mrs. George M. Post, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Russell Catha, Miss Nell Thielen, Mrs. C. G. Shipley.

Mrs. W. S. Mott was the inspiration of a lovely surprise party Thursday, when the members of the Priscilla club gathered at her residence, 600 North Commercial street, for an afternoon of knitting and Red Cross needlework. Mrs. Mott who has been ill for a number of weeks was the recipient of several baskets of flowers and goodies.

Those joining in the festivities were Mrs. D. J. Fry, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. F. W. Stensloff, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. A. T. Brown, Mrs. John Craig, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mrs. S. S. East.

The benefit program given Tuesday evening for the Eastern Star Red Cross auxiliary by Mrs. Blanche Howard, assisted by Miss Ruth Bedford and Miss Venita McKinney, was a very artistic and satisfactory affair. The decorations of the stage were lovely and breathed the charm of spring. Mrs. Howard's selections were varied and rendered with a taste and dignity that delighted her hearers. Miss Bedford's piano solos and her dainty musical settings to the Riley poems were given with a grace and integrity that would add credit to a seasoned professional. Miss McKinney's piano numbers were interpreted with much fire and spirit. The program was as follows:

"My Eyes Have Seen His Coming" Col. Cradiebaugh
"Three Little Men of the Sea" E. E. Baker
Mrs. Howard
Piano—Romance, op. 43, No. 1. Alfred Granfeldt
Miss McKinney
Reading on baseball—
(a) The Game J. W. Foley
(b) Durlan's Home Walk Arthur Guiterman
(c) Baseball in de Park Arthur Guiterman
Mrs. Howard
Readings with musical background—
(a) That Old Sweetheart of Mine Riley
(b) Out to Old Aunt Mary's Riley
(c) Life's Lessons Riley
Mrs. Howard
Miss Bedford at piano
Piano group—
(a) Elegy Nolle

(b) Il Busignabo Nevina
Miss Bedford
Dialect readings—
(a) Scotch, 'A' About It Anon
(b) Negro, 'Lil' Brown Baby Duabbar Gilliam
(c) Irish, Finnegan to Flannigan
(d) Italian, Greata Gama Bassball T. A. Daley
Mrs. Howard
Monologue, How Ruby Played Bagby Mrs. Howard
Piano, The Pompadour Fan Cadman
Miss Bedford
Duologue, Told Over an Ice Anon
Mrs. Howard
If Rudyard Kipling
Mrs. Howard

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Alden were luncheon hosts Wednesday for a party of Portland friends, who were enroute to Eugene for a short visit. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. Joshua Stanfield, Mrs. P. D. Hazeltine and Mrs. B. Shipley.

Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mott returned to Fort Columbia, Washington, this morning, after a week's stay in Salem as the guests of Dr. Mott's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Mott. Dr. Mott is a member of the medical corps, stationed at Fort Columbia. Dr. and Mrs. Will Mott of Stevenson, Washington, were also guests at the Mott home earlier in the week.

The incoming officers of the student body association of Willamette University were the guests of honor at an enjoyable gathering of college students, sponsored by Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney Monday night, at her residence on State street. Professor and Mrs. G. E. Ebsen were bidden as chaperones for the evening, Mrs. Ebsen assisting Mrs. Doney at the serving hour. The new officers thus complimented were: Harold Nichols, president; Miss Leila Johnson, vice president; Miss Helen Rose, secretary; Robert Story, treasurer; Homer Tasker, editor of the Collegian.

Mrs. Walter Denton presented her piano pupils in a series of exceptionally enjoyable and artistic recitals last week at her residence on North Twelfth street. Mildred Brunk and Charlotte Horning appeared Friday afternoon. Friday night's program was given by Donald Allison and Elbert Lachele, assisted by Ethelwyne Kelly, Jennelle Vandervort and Florence Elgin gave a program on Monday night, Ethelwyne Kelly also assisting them.

Mildred Brunk and Charlotte Horning proved themselves interesting and musically in a program of MacDowell, Sibelius, Nevin, Cadman and others, the young ladies, won the appreciation of their guests and received much encouragement and commendation. A lively diversity was lent the program by the entertaining readings of Miss Ethelwyne Kelly, a talented little Salem reader.

Following is the program:
Piano duet Engelmann
Donald Allison, Elbert Lachele
Mrs. Howard
Piano—Romance, op. 43, No. 1. Alfred Granfeldt
Miss McKinney
Reading on baseball—
(a) The Game J. W. Foley
(b) Durlan's Home Walk Arthur Guiterman
(c) Baseball in de Park Arthur Guiterman
Mrs. Howard
Readings with musical background—
(a) That Old Sweetheart of Mine Riley
(b) Out to Old Aunt Mary's Riley
(c) Life's Lessons Riley
Mrs. Howard
Miss Bedford at piano
Piano group—
(a) Elegy Nolle

Here is the program:
Marche des Tambours Sidney Smith
Florence Elgin
Rose of Virginia Bischoff
Twilight Primi
Jennelle Vandervort
Song of the Nightingale Filipovsky
Florence Elgin
The Lark's Morning Song Koelling
The Swallow's Message Seybold
Jennelle Vandervort
Venetian Love Song Nevina
Caprice Hueter
Arabian Night Mildenberg
Recitation Ethelwyne Kelly
Russian Romance Smith
Jennelle Vandervort
Tarantelle, op. 77 Vollet
Florence Elgin
A May Morning Denza
Jennelle Vandervort

Little Julia Johnson was merrily assisted in the celebration of her third birthday yesterday, when her mother, Mrs. Paul Johnson, invited in a number of small folk for an afternoon of birthday frolic at the Johnson home on South High street. Masses of snow ball bloom graced the living room, while cunning little May baskets adorned the small refreshment tables in the dining room.

The juvenile guests numbered: Mildred Shields, Virginia, Evelyn Shields, Adeline Shields, Helen Claire Schmidt, Roberta Mills, Ila Mills and Raife Neill.

The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Aid society of the Englewood United Brethren church held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Thompson at Salem Heights:

Mrs. Frank H. Neff, president; Mrs. Carrie M. Chase, vice president; Mrs. Cetoia C. Pascoe, secretary; Mrs. Effie Paestman, treasurer. The short business session wherein it developed that the ladies had raised the amount for the pledge of $10 to be paid in before conference meets, was followed by a social hour.

Mrs. Thompson's baby daughter, Fay Louise, was the recipient of a lovely gift shower from the friends present.

A pleasing program was given, including a reading by Mrs. Pascoe; a vocal selection, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," by Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Paestman, Mrs. K. Rowe, and Miss Neff; Mrs. Guy Pitch accompanist; recitation, "Breaking it Gently," by Mrs. Elbert Thompson; piano number, Mrs. K. Rowe; duet, "Il Trovatore," by Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Rowe; musical numbers, "Japanese Wedding March," by Mrs. Fuestman; dialogue, "A Doleful Visit to a Sick Friend," by Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Neff.

A refreshment hour was enjoyed by the guests, who numbered: Mrs. C. M. Chase, Mrs. M. Rowe, Mrs. E. Naffziger, Mrs. S. B. Hale, Mrs. E. A. Richmond, Mrs. E. Fuestman, Mrs. F. H. Neff, Mrs. G. F. Phelps, Mrs. E. H. Hoxie, Mrs. S. Custer, Mrs. Engdahl, Miss A. Hale, Miss D. Neff, Mrs. M. Rowe, Mrs. K. Rowe, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Kath-

MRS. ANNA ROGERS FISH
Who, departure to Boise, Idaho, this month was made the occasion of a vote of appreciation and regret by the members of the Salem Woman's club at their last meeting, in behalf of her club activities.

The Troubadour Reinecke
Donald Allison
Valse Krogmann
Sparklets Miles
Whispering Pines Petrie
Summer Breezes Bischoff
Donald Allison
Blue Bells of Scotland Richards
Listen to the Mocking Bird Hoffman
The Murmuring River Webb
Ebert Lachele
Valse Brilliance Leybach
Piano duet Donald Allison
Donald Allison and Elbert Lachele gave a most pleasurable evening to their many friends. These young boys are most promising, and deserve great credit for their splendid efforts. Each number was given a fine interpretation. Donald Allison gave an ear test by request; this young boy possessing the gift of what is termed by musicians absolute pitch.

Jennelle Vandervort and Florence Elgin were delightful entertainers in an excellent program. These young ladies also deserve credit for their good work, rendering each number with splendid and finished interpretation. Jennelle Vandervort was most pleasing in a vocal selection a "May Morning," singing for an encore "Sunshine" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. She is studying voice with Mrs. J. S. Pinnell.

Following the program:
Marche des Tambours Sidney Smith
Florence Elgin
Rose of Virginia Bischoff
Twilight Primi
Jennelle Vandervort
Song of the Nightingale Filipovsky
Florence Elgin
The Lark's Morning Song Koelling
The Swallow's Message Seybold
Jennelle Vandervort
Venetian Love Song Nevina
Caprice Hueter
Arabian Night Mildenberg
Recitation Ethelwyne Kelly
Russian Romance Smith
Jennelle Vandervort
Tarantelle, op. 77 Vollet
Florence Elgin
A May Morning Denza
Jennelle Vandervort

Those present were: the Misses Vera Kezar, Jennie Thompson, Beatrice Bishop, Florence Pape, Thelma Owen, Ella Beecroft, Geraldine and Margaret Collins, Lois Thompson, Mildred West, Pearl and Opal Hill, and Messrs. Donald Ringle, Byrd Tucker, Clair Tucker, William Frazier, Austin Frazier, Perry Pickett, Leonard Porter, Harold Sociolofsky, Aubrey Trawick, Earl Beecroft and Dwight Hill.

Mrs. J. T. Kinney of 1304 North Church street left Thursday evening for Vahparaiso, Indiana, having received word of the serious illness of her father. Mrs. Kinney will be joined at Portland by two sisters and a brother, and also by a sister at Salt Lake.

A rousing meeting of the Salem Rebeck lodge, number 1, will be held Monday evening at eight o'clock. A special program will be given and all members of the city are urged to attend.

State Institutions.
Services at the institutions Sunday will be held as follows: 2:30 p. m. Chemsara Indian school, by G. F. Holt; 3 p. m. Girl's Training School, by R. N. Avison; 3:15 p. m. Tuberculosis Hospital, by A. Wells.

ARTILLERY FIRE
(Continued from page one)

of Paul were shot down probably by hostile anti-aircraft guns.

AMERICANS DECORATED.
By Fred S. Ferguson
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

With the Americans in Peardy, May 17—the bravery of the Americans in Peardy already has been proven by more than thirty croix de guerres conferred to date.

Major Rasmussen of Portland, Oregon

Information Bureau of the Woolen Mill Store

We are in the greatest of all Wars. Either we are going to lick Germany so thoroughly that she can never disturb the peace of the world. Or she is going to lick us to where we have nothing to say; and the sooner we all realize this simple fact, and each and every one of us make it a personal matter, and do our share and a little more, the sooner we will know the final result.

Are you reading this space every day?

SALEM
WOOLEN MILLS STORE

THIRTY NINE NAMES

(Continued from page one)

Nurse Lucy N. Fletcher, Concord, N. H.
Sergeant Dan M. Storleg, Menominee, Wis.
Privates Ralph A. Jansou, Houston, Texas.
John Peete, Holly Grove, La.
Died of wounds:
Privates Charles W. Dubouchet, Paris, France.
Marvin W. Smith, Keshkong, Mo.
Giuseppe Vinci, Fairhaven, Vt.
Wounded severely:
Privates Edward C. Carter, Chicago, Ill.
Philip Frost, Bradford, Vt.
Homer H. McAnally, Cincinnati, Ia.
Harry L. Miller, Hopkins, Minn.
Lemont R. Ruffing, Paterson, N. J.
Wounded slightly:
Privates Roy C. Boone, Alameda, Cal.
James Johnson, Reynolds Station, Ky.
Rodney C. McCallum, Stockton, Cal.
James G. Pipes, North Venice, Ill.
Joe Schroeder, Chicago.
Raymond Williams, Edinburg, Ind.
Wounded:
Private Boyd M. Gillispie, Indianapolis.

Missing in action:
Lieutenant Sherman Denore, Chicago.
Sergeant Joseph P. Nolan, Hartford, Conn.
Corporal Joseph Sabatini, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Privates Lester R. Clark, New Haven, Conn.
George E. Colver, New Haven, Conn.
Druesto Denarrino, Hartford, Conn.
Herbert V. Johnson, New Haven, Conn.
John T. McCartin, New Haven, Conn.
Albert L. Mason, Friendship, N. Y.
Roy R. Mason, Gainesville, Fla.
John J. Milan, South Boston, Mass.
Austin M. Ready, Jersey City, N. J.
Prisoners (not previously reported missing):
First Lieutenant Abraham J. Gordca, Newark, N. J.
Private Paul Holder, Hastings, Neb.

With The Canadians.

Ottawa, Ont., May 18.—The following Americans are mentioned in today's Canadian casualty list:
Killed in action: S. C. Hanson, Briarcliff, Minn.
Wounded: R. B. Fitzgerald, Seattle, Wash.
J. F. McGee, Brandy, Neb.

who was killed May 5, was awarded a posthumous decoration. The citation which was forwarded to his family, says that despite a heavy bombardment he attempted to save important papers.
Major R. B. Paddock of the signal corps and twenty two members of his battalion, were decorated because of bravery during a bombardment and gas attack, May 3. Paddock, although wounded, remained in an exposed position under heavy fire, maintaining communication with other units throughout the night. The members of Paddock's command who remained with him and who also received the war cross were:
Sergeant R. C. Phillips, Corporals E. J. Mondan, J. E. Daly, F. P. Rice, R. J. Byrne, C. E. Chase, Privates J. O. Robertson, W. Thompson, A. F. Miller, M. R. Muller, L. E. T. Judkins, E. W. Harbor, B. H. Welby, B. Nudd, R. H. Reese, E. H. Lunsborough, S. L. Carlson, C. B. Harrop, K. E. Gabert, C. P. Dralbeck, H. M. McKay, E. S. Werderfer. Others who received the croix de guerre, were:
Color Sergeant T. J. Fink, Sergeant T. J. Phillips and Musician E. W. Estabrook, their citation reading that although wounded by flying debris they assisted during a violent bombardment in rescuing comrades from the fallen timbers of a wrecked house.
Corporal T. A. Carroll, although wounded, fought off an enemy patrol.
Private L. Leythas, with a companion, encountered three German patrolers. They killed one and wounded another. Leythas's companion was killed whereupon he bayoneted the third German. He attempted to bring his companion's body back but was forced to desist because of hostile fire.
Oscar Griffith, an ambulance driver, remained with a number of wounded under heavy fire until all were killed.

Devout observation by the editor of the Polk County Post: "As one stands on the banks of the beautiful Willamette river and meditates, he first thinks 'how thankful that he lives near it.'"

D. H. MOSHER
High Class Ladies' Tailoring
474 Court Street

save that Shovelful of Coal a day
for Uncle Sam

True Economy

The question of Clothes should not be HOW CHEAP but HOW GOOD? With the condition the woolen markets, even staple patterns of suitings almost entirely off the market, and the Government taking over the wool supply—woolen goods will be almost impossible to get. My large stock of all-wool materials is at your disposal. Order now for future needs.

D. H. MOSHER
Tailor to Men and Women.
474 Court Street
Salem, Oregon

Society Women

A number of the most noted Beauties of Society have obtained their pure soft pearls white appearance thru the constant use of

Gouraud's
Oriental Cream

Send 10c for Trial Size
FERD. T. HOPKINS & SON, New York

Edison's Favorite Invention

Edison's Diamond Disc Phonograph

THE ONLY MACHINE THAT CORRECTLY REPRODUCES THE HUMAN VOICE.

SOLD BY

Geo. C. Will

THE MUSIC AND SEWING MACHINE DEALER.

432 State Street
Salem, Oregon