

You can be the one to send him a pouch of Real GRAVELLY Chewing Plug

It pays to know the facts before you spend your money.

You will be sending your friend more tobacco comfort and satisfaction in one pouch of Real Gravelly Plug than in half a dozen plugs of ordinary tobacco.

Give any man a chew of Real Gravelly Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best!

Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravelly, because a small chew of it lasts a long while.

If you smoke a pipe, slice Gravelly with your knife and add a little to your smoking tobacco. It will give flavor—improve your smoke.

SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELLY

Dealers all around here carry it in 10c pouches. A 3c stamp will put it into his hands in any Training Camp or Section of the U. S. A. Even "over there" a 3c stamp will take it to him.

Your dealer will supply envelope and give you official directions how to address it.

The lazy summer weather continues. Only in some spots does trouble boil occasionally.

Between the Somme and Arras, German artillery seems to have slightly increased its fire. The allied front lines have been considerably pounded on these sectors.

The battle fields are dusty, the shells kicking up dust clouds instead of mud, which has been the case for some time.

Summer cast a drowsy spell over northern France but in the blazing sunshine the war machine is abuzz.

O'BRIEN LEADING IN STATE TOURNEY

Trap Shooters Make Good Scores In Annual Contest On In Portland

Making seven straights in the ten 15-bird events of the first day's regular program of the annual state championship shoot, now in progress on the Everding Park traps of the Portland Gun Club, P. H. O'Brien, of Butte, Mont., former state champion was high man with a total of 147 out of 150 targets.

Frank Van Atta of Portland finished third with a total of 144. Frank Templeton of Portland and his brother, Dr. C. L. Templeton of Seattle, tied for fourth place with scores of 143. J. L. Morrison of Portland and Elmer Nickerson of Corvallis scored 141 and 140 scores were hung up by F. Newman of McCoy, Mark Siddall of Astoria, C. G. Dodele of Albany and Lou Rayburn of La Grande.

Frank Riehl, the veteran Tacoma professional, was high among the powder and shell sellers with the remarkable score of 148 out of 150. He dropped one target in the fourth event and one target in the seventh event. Hugh Posten of San Francisco was second with 146 and C. D. Plank of Portland, third, with 145. Gus Peret of Yoncalla, Or., finished fourth with 140.

O'Brien missed a target in each of the first, second and eighth events, while Tryeh missed one in the first two in the second and one in the ninth.

High In Doubles

Charley Leith of Woodburn, Or., won the first day's shoot in the state doubles championship event for the O. D. Thornton trophy, shattering 24 straight targets, which is exceptionally wonderful shooting.

The next best score in this event was 22, F. M. Troeh, H. E. Posten, C. J. Schilling and Gus Peret, the last three named being professionals, hung up this total.

After the completion of the regular program, a special handicap event was staged, the proceeds of this event going to the Red Cross fund. Twenty-nine shooters participated in the event and five tied for high score. R. E. Posten winning the shootoff by smashing 25 straight from the 22-yard line.

Some of the shooters were handicapped during the progress of the 150-bird race by the wind and rain.

Wednesday the state championship event will be staged and it is expected that over 75 shooters will participate in the event.

At the annual meeting of the Oregon State Trapshooters' association Monday night in the Imperial hotel, E. M. Keitel, vice president of the association, was unanimously chosen president for the ensuing year.

Albert Bowker, of Hesperia, Or., was chosen vice president and D. C. Bowman of Pendleton was elected secretary-treasurer to succeed W. G. Ballack of Albany. James W. Seavey of Portland is the retiring president.

Pendleton Gets Shot

The old board of directors, composed of C. F. Cathy, Portland; Mark Siddall, Astoria; Charles Leith, Woodburn; P. A. Young, Albany; Charles Brown, Astoria and Horace Tillman of Pendleton was re-elected.

Pendleton was awarded the 1919 state association championship trophy, the "Letter-Buck" city's bid being $750. It is planned to stage the tourney during the early part of May. Astoria delegates were on hand with a bid, but they did not present it after the Eastern Oregon town representatives put up their proposition. Astoria plans to stage a 200-bird registered target event July 1.

Vote Of Thanks Given

H. R. Everding, John G. Cleuson and W. C. Bistrol were given a vote of thanks for their donation to the state shoot and a vote of thanks was also given W. G. Ballack, the retiring secretary.

BOAT WENT TO DRAW

Seattle, Wash., May 22.—Mickey King, Seattle's middleweight idol, and Marjory Farrell, the "second Mike Gibbons" of New York, went four rounds to a draw last night at the arena in the fastest, fiercest and most scientific bout ever seen in Seattle. From the first tap of the bell until the last second the two Seattle battlers, the champion and King the challenger, struggled toe to toe without stopping the fraction of a second. To have given either man the call would have been an injustice, Mike Collins, Fred Fulton's manager was in King's corner.

To Join Cleveland

Los Angeles, Cal., May 22.—To help strengthen the Cleveland club, Chet Thomas, former Red Sox catcher, left today for the middle west. Thomas has been working in the movies here, but in anticipation of a return to the game, he has kept in practice, so he is all ready to get in the lineup.

Benjamin and Anderson

Los Angeles, Cal., May 22.—Joe Benjamin and Harry Anderson battled an exciting draw as the main event at Vernon last night. Denny Weston won from Kid Layman, Battling Frankie lost to Teddie Titus, Tommie Richards took a decision from Roy Rainier and Joe Nietto met up with a good walloping from Kid Mendes in the semi-wind up.

HOFF STILL LEADS WITH ONE COUNTY NOT YET REPORTED

Williams Has Lead of Over Three Hundred for Utility Commissioner

Portland, Or., May 22.—O. P. Hoff of Salem held the narrow lead of 47 votes over Thomas F. Ryan of Clackamas county this afternoon in the count of primary votes for the republican nomination for state treasurer.

For commissioner of public service Fred A. Williams of Josephine county led Frank J. Miller of Linn by 325 votes.

Charles A. Johns apparently was nominated for justice of the supreme court. His lead over John S. Cole was 1375. Kelly has dropped to third place.

These returns were complete from all counties but one.

PRATUM FARMER ATTEMPTS TO BRIBE SHERIFF NEEDHAM

Offered Member of Draft Board $50 If He Would Defer Boy's Draft Call

L. P. Laidon, a farmer living near Pratum got in trouble this morning without much strenuous effort. It seems his son is called on the draft and the father being anxious to have the time extended in which his son could answer, called on Sheriff Needham this morning, who is a member of the draft board, and stated his desire. The sheriff told him to come back about 1 o'clock when the balance of the board was present and he could talk it over with them. This was agreed to but Laidon remarked he would like to have a little talk with Needham privately. "Go ahead," said the sheriff.

"You see I need my boy on the farm to help me for awhile, so I won't have to hire a man and if you can arrange to help me I will help you," said Laidon.

"How do you mean, about helping me?" asked Needham.

"Well it is this way, you say about what you think it is worth and I will try and make it all right."

"You mean, you will give me $50 if I will get your boy free?" "Yes, and if that is not enough I will make it more."

"Do you realize what you are doing?" asked the sheriff.

"No," was the reply, "I guess I do not."

Needham took the paper with the $50 marked on it, and took Laidon before District Attorney Gehlbahr where he admitted having offered the sheriff the $50, as stated.
