Stirring Address of Doctor Holt at Memorial Services Yesterday

Asserting that we all now see that 17e FOR RENT-One 6 room and one 5 the government has been lax in permitting foreigners to hold to their own language and customs while living in this country, the Rev. Dr. G. F. Hott was loudly applauded Sunday morning at the Memorial services in the First Baptist church when he declared that if foreigners do not like our ways and customs, they should be forced to re-turn to the country from which they

"We see now that for people from other countries to come and settle here of the countries of their own and to continue the customs and languages of these countries is all wrong," continued Dr. Holt. "Hereafter there shall be but one language and one custom in our country. Many loreigners coming our country. Many loreigners coming there are destroying the sacredness of our Sundays.
