Polk County Quickly Raises Red Cross Quota (Capital Journal Special Service.)

(Dallas, Ore., May 27--Polk county was one of the first counties in the state to announce that its quotas of the Second Red Cross drive had been subscribed. The city of Dallas went "over the top" the first day of the drive with a subscription of more than $3,500. Each day new reports have come in from the different districts throughout the county telling that the quota has been subscribed in each place. A large sign board placed on the court house lawn let the inhabitants of the city know just how the drive was progressing. Among the donors to the fund this week was the Dallas Fire Department, the boys of the organization subscribing their pay for attending the fires of the past two weeks to the Red Cross.

Polk Sheriff Attends War Conference. Sheriff John W. Orr of this county has been in Portland this week attending the war conference of the state officials. Every officer in the state from Governor Withycombe down who have anything to do with the workings of the war machinery were in attendance at the conference. Mr. Orr is chairman of the Polk county board of exemption and went as a representative of that body.

Prominent Perrydale Woman Passes. Miss Fannie Key, a Polk county native daughter residing at Perrydale, passed away at Astoria Monday evening while enroute from California to her home in this county. Miss Key had spent the winter in California in the hopes that it would benefit her health she having been an invalid for a number of years. Miss Key is survived by two brothers, D. L. Key of Salem and H. G. Key of Perrydale, and one sister, Mrs. George Meyer of this city. The funeral was held Wednesday in the Portland crematorium.

Dallas Boy In Signal Service. Elmer Matheny, who went to Fort McDowell, California, several weeks ago with a party of drafted men for the artillery branch of the service, writes relatives and friends in this city that he has been transferred to the signal service and is now stationed at Camp Fremont.

Angry Bull Attacks Farmer. Frank Clark, a farmer living on the Boise farm west of this city, was attacked by a vicious Jersey bull the first of the week and badly injured. The animal had to be shot before Clark could be rescued by other parties. A physician has been in attendance upon the injured man this week, and reports that he is resting easily and will probably recover.

Thomas E. Campbell, foreman of the Southern Pacific round-house at Timber, visited with relatives and friends in Dallas this week.

Hubbard High Graduates Class of Five Friday Hubbard school patrons expressed themselves highly pleased last Friday evening at the close of the second graduating exercises of Hubbard High school. The class numbered eight and was composed of three girls and five boys, as follows: Minerva Hershberger, Clark Will, Ursula Q. Wolfer, Harley A. Dimick, Ray Hostetler, Nora Zelner, Raymond Misher, Winnie Franer. Class Flower of Pink Caranation and the Class Color of Blue and Gold from now in the history of the Hubbard school will be associated with an enviable record of achievement. The general averages of the class being high enough in most instances to free the students of the class from taking their final exams. In one or two subjects two members of the class took their finals bringing their averages up to a good mark.

The stage was nicely decorated for the occasion. The program of the evening consisted of a trio by Miss Richmond, Miss Simms and Miss Billeter; a fair exercise by several little girls; a solo by Miss Richmond.

The address by Dean D. W. Morton of the Department of Commerce of the University of Oregon was full of encouragement to young men and women to develop their brain power instead of too much development of the physical to the exclusion of the mental.--Enterprise.

HUBBARD NEWS. Miss Margaret Jackson of Lexington came last Friday to be the guest at the Jackson-Coleman home. Miss Jackson taught school at Lexington the past term.

Prune Industry of Polk County Grows

An incomplete survey of the prune acreage in Polk county, representing 251 growers, shows that there are 61 growers with from one-half to 3-acre tracts; 81 with 5 acres; 47 with from 10 to 19 acres; 14 with from 15 to 20 acres; 27 with from 20 to 30 acres, and 21 with from 30 to 120 acres. The twenty-one who have from 21 to 120 acres are as follows: Isaac Dyck Estate, 50 acres; D. and Emma Dunn, 39 acres; Ella St. Pierre, 31 acres; Oscar Fry, 27 acres; A. B. Gibson, 20 acres; J. N. Keeney, 120 acres; O. E. Borden, 30 acres; Bolman & Staats, 30 acres; W. Frank Crawford 35 acres; Virgil Gigson, 30 acres; Otto Hansen, 35 acres; D. D. Peters, 40 acres; A. D. Miller, 37 acres; J. C. Schultz, 20 acres; A. W. Fink, 35 acres; Henry Voth, 32 acres; J. T. Guthrie, 30 acres; Hugh Smith, 44 acres; W. H. Hinton 36 acres; A. H. Guttery, 34 acres; U. S. Loughary, 40 acres.

This is a total of 3,320 acres of Italian prune orchards in the county, according to information furnished by Mrs. Winnie Bradin, secretary of the Polk Commercial club, through whose efforts this partial survey has been made, the age and acreage being as follows: 217 acres one year old; two years old, 82; three years old, 331; four years old, 561; five years old, 412; over five years old, 1637. This does not include the orchards of Messrs. Kirkpatrick 25 acres; E. L. Chapman, 60 acres; H. L. Crider, 100 acres; Wood & Ellis, 60 acres; Kimball, 125 acres; C. L. Crider 60 acres; the Monmouth orchards, 75 acres, and others.

An effort is being made to get a complete survey of the fruit area of the county, and while this is only a start in that direction, it gives some idea of the extent of the industry in this ballistics. The work will be completed next season, when from that time on it is proposed to keep accurate the number of acres devoted to this industry. Aside from the 251 growers of prunes shown by the report, there are 180 persons raising other fruits of various kinds, and these too will be gathered from time to time until the record is complete in every detail.--Observer.

MAIL CARRIER APPLICANTS Take Examination Today Examinations were held Saturday at the Capital Business college by the civil service commission for those who are ambitious to become rural mail carriers on other route 3 south of the city, route 1 in Polk county or the rural route out of Turner. SILVERTON BARBER HELD. Fred Schillinger who was called to Portland several days ago to interview the United States district attorney is still being held in that city by the government authorities. Schillinger and a man named Foster, employed by the Interturban Telephone company, and the latter's wife were reported to the district attorney as the persons who distributed the "Pastor Russell" literature suppressed by the government. Schillinger confessed having been a party to the transaction and is held in Portland pending further investigation.

Foster fell from a telephone post the day following distribution of the literature, and subsequently left town with his wife. They will also be required to appear before the district attorney. T. Schillinger has been employed in T. B. Schockley's barber shop for more than a year. He is extremely religious. He said when asked why he circulated the forbidden literature that he was working for God.--Tribune.

Man of the Hour by Senior High Class

"The Man of the Hour" will be presented by the senior class of the Salem high school on Wednesday evening of this week at the high school auditorium. The plot is said to be thrilling which winds up and tangles up in a wonderful fashion, giving the amateur high school actors a fine opportunity to display their special talents.

The part of "Man of the Hour" is played by John Tucker, who recently won first place in a oratorical contest. His opponents in the political game are Harlan Hunt, Floyd Stegman and Lloyd Waltz. Young Waltz recently won a declamatory contest.

The former policeman will be played by Carl Booth, Aubrey Welch and Claude Darley take parts adding humor to the situation. Leslie Springer, who was one of the men in the Cherrian minstrelsy has a dramatic role in the play.

The proceeds of the play are to be used in paying the expense incurred in issuing the Cherrian Annual, edited by the senior class.

The graduates of the senior class this year number 148 and with so many to choose from, the class leaders feel that the entertainment next Wednesday evening will establish a high record for dramatic ability.

EATON MAY BE NOMINATED Eugene, Or., May 25--Allen Eaton defeated candidate for the republican nomination is possibly one of the three nominees of the Democratic party in Lane county for the state legislature. There were no regular candidates before the democratic primary, and Eaton's name was written on the ballot 42 times, a larger number of votes than received by H. L. McKee, of Florence and T. O. Busell, of Eugene, in a similar manner.

There is some question as to whether Eaton can accept in view of the state law requiring candidates to file declarations that they will not accept the nomination or endorsement of any other party than in which they are registered.

The Gresham Outlook complains that a good many of the canned editorials received by the newspapers these days spoil as soon as the can is opened, yet some of the newspapers continue to use them.
