The Friends church of Highland in North Salem, the Friends church of South Salem and the Friends church of Rosedale will unite in a Memorial day program to be held at the church in South Salem, May 30.

The special services will begin at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon with music especially prepared for the occasion. Addresses will be delivered by the pastors of the three churches and a report of the civilian work done by the Friends church in France will be read by the Rev. C. D. Hadley, pastor of the Friends church at Rosedale.

Reports will also be read of the work being done by the three churches. Following the afternoon's program, the remainder of the afternoon will be given to a social hour by the young people of the churches.

On the evening, the three churches will continue their program which will include an address by Secretary Fox of the General Board of the Friends church of Oregon. The evening will close with a session of prayer.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY ROASTS DR ROBERTS

Painted As "Serpent Who Caused Insane Grace Lusk to Kill His Wife"

Wauchesa, Wis., May 29.—Calling Dr. David Roberts, a "serpent" who caused "insane" Grace Lusk to kill his wife, Attorney J. James Clancy finished the defense argument in the murder trial this afternoon.

The defense confidently hopes for a verdict of not guilty because insane. The jury may bring in its decision late tonight. Prosecutor Corrigan planned to conclude final argument and Judge Lueck was to instruct the jury by six o'clock.

Dr. Roberts was saved the bitter attack of Clancy because he absented himself from the court room.

"This bird of fine feathers," said Miss Lusk's attorney, "who carried a diamond ring the size of a cent, talked of his love for children and the coldness of his home life. That was Roberts' way of getting around an innocent girl. She came to Wauchesa pure and undefiled, but soon crossed the path of this serpent."

Taking up the insanity plea, Clancy declared she was a victim of hereditary paranoia. He pictured her as "an auburn haired, bashful girl," who attracted statewide attention for her brilliancy in her teaching. "Would such a person be apt to destroy human life unless there was some good reason?" he asked.

Throughout Clancy's plea that she was insane, Miss Lusk sat calm, despite the certainty that a verdict of not guilty because of insanity would mean her detention in a mad house. The defense is believed to be planning a fight like Harry Thaw made after he was declared not guilty because insane. Miss Lusk's attorneys are expected to try to free her from an asylum if the jury's verdict places her there.

Judge Lueck, following Prosecutor Corrigan's address, instructed the jury that one of five verdicts was possible. The five are:

Not guilty because insane, not guilty guilty of murder in the first degree, guilty of murder in the second degree, guilty of manslaughter in the third degree.

State House News

Attorney General Brown is confined to his home with an attack of pneumonia. He had been complaining for a day or two of feeling badly and Tuesday and today was unable to be at his office.

The German language will be stricken from the high schools of the state entirely as a course of study. This action was taken yesterday by the state board of education, comprised of Governor Withycombe, Secretary O'Leary and Superintendent Churchhill. Its place courses will be included in French and Spanish. Those who are taking the course this year will be allowed to complete it to secure their credits. German is now taught in four year courses. It will be optional with the schools as to whether they place a four year course in French or Spanish, or whether they give two years' French and two years' Spanish. All schools of the state except those in Portland are affected by the order, and German already has been removed from the courses there.

Session Opens Strong In Wall Street Today

New York, May 29.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

The session opened strong. There was a momentary setback at the end of the first fifteen minutes. A renewed advance carried prices steadily forward one to nearly three points.

The steel group made a good showing. Exceptionally strong spots among the industrials were distillers securities, American Linsed, Central Leather, Utah Copper, Marine preferred Baldwin Locomotive and Studebaker.

Covering operations were apparently finished in mid-afternoon and prices reced-d close to the Tuesday closing level. Trading throughout was on a smaller scale in both stocks and bonds than for a week or more back. Liberty loan bonds were heavy. Both the second 4's and the 4 1/2's were at new low figures, the former at 94 and the latter at 97.10.

TOMORROW WE SHALL BE CLOSED

Decoration Day

It is both fitting and proper that tomorrow be given over to the memory of those who have died for the Freedom we enjoy; and to those brave hearts now rallying to the defense of Old Glory and to make the "World fit to live in," May the day be dedicated.

Mooney Death Sentence Will Not Be Signed

San Francisco, May 29.—The death sentence pronounced yesterday on Thomas J. Mooney will not be signed by Superior Judge Griffin until the supreme court has had an opportunity to act on the defense's writ of probable cause.

This was decided today following a conference between the judge, defense attorneys and prosecuting attorneys. The decision acts as a temporary stay of the death sentence, under which Mooney was to be hanged within 90 days.

The writ of probable cause is in appeal from Judge Griffin's decision that he has no authority to grant a new trial on the defense's allegation of fraud on the part of prosecution.

LATE WAR BULLETINS

London, May 29.—The transport Lenox Castle was torpedoed and sunk Sunday, the admiralty announced tonight, with a loss of 161 lives.

The Lenox Castle was a British transport with a net weight of 5381

What Every Dyspeptic Wants to Know

If you are a dyspeptic, if food soured, and ferments after eating causing such terrible pain that you are afraid to eat; the great question continually before you is: "How can I prevent it? How can I get relief?"

The answer is easy. Take a teaspoonful of pure Bi-nesta in half a glass of hot water right after eating or whenever pain is felt. This will prevent or relieve indigestion troubles quicker and more positively than anything else and best of all is absolutely harmless. Go to any good druggist today and get a package of Bi-nesta, either powder or tablet form and forget you ever had stomach trouble. Every package contains a binding guarantee of satisfaction or money back; and your druggist, a man you personally know, stands back of that guarantee.
