ROUSING RED CROSS RALLY AT MACLEAY

Net Receipts of Dance and Entertainment Over Two Hundred Dollars

Macleay, Or., June 5.—With the weather man doing "his bit" toward the Red Cross, the rally held at Macleay Saturday was an unquestioned success. From the hour of 11 a. m. when things started until early Sunday morning when they ended, the hall was thronged with merry-makers. That they came well prepared for the pleadings of those who had things to sell was amply shown, for when, after the dance, a reckoning was made, the crowd had left in the hands of the treasurer $235.21. With the necessary expenses deducted it is believed the days net returns will go above $200.

With a houseful of intensely patriotic Americans, the morning's program opened with that grand song "America." Thence followed a varied, yet wholeheartedly patriotic program of songs, recitations and addresses. Miss Alta Martin gave a reading; the Misses Elvessa Bartels and Grace Gillis sang a duet and Claude Chamberlain gave a recitation.

Then it was the great privilege of all to hear Rev. Robert S. Gill, of Salem give a stirring address on the subject of Red Cross work. He struck the key note of the American's duty in the war when he said, in closing, that "Now is the time for everyone to guard his ex-patriation, his actions and his speech. Now is the time to work wholeheartedly for the war, and the war alone. We must hasten the day when the boys come back and—For God's sake, hurry!"

Cheers greeted Mr. Gill, who was considered one of the best drawing cards of the day. After the address, Miss Dorothy Chamberlain gave a reading, followed by a song by Miss Jean Mackenzie. The morning program was then closed by a violin and piano duet, with Master Robert Ramsden handling the bow, and his sister, Helen, at the piano.

Dinner, to most people one of the most important events on the program, was served by the women of Macleay auxiliary, and such a dinner—chicken, mashed potatoes, baked beans, salad, cottage cheese and cake tempted the palates of nearly one hundred and fifty.

When all had been served, the afternoon program was taken up, opening with a violin quartet, composed of Messrs. Robert Ramsden, Ross Harris, Oswald Seaverson and Walter Flemming. Miss Helen Ramsden acted as accompanist. The boys were pupils of Miss Joy Turner, and were much appreciated.

Mrs. Tallie Parish Durdall, of Salem whose songs delighted Salem for several years, sang. She was encored. At this juncture, Mrs. Clara H. Waldo, of Portland, was introduced. With a first hand knowledge of Germany from several visits there, Mrs. Waldo told her audience the why and wherefore of America's part in the war, and especially of the American mother's part. From the things which she has seen in Germany, Mrs. Waldo has drawn the conclusion that much bitter fighting must come yet before Prussianism is overcome, yet there is no doubt as to the conquerors.

Little Miss Jeanette Sykes, of Salem delighted the audience with the "June Bug" dance, and she responded to vigorous cheering with the "Highland Fling."

One of the comedy hits of the day was the next offering, Harry Martin, in character costume and a century old musket and bayonet, sang "Long Boy" in a way which kept the audience in gales of laughter. Following was another song, "For the Flag and Uncle Sam," sung by Walter Brigher.

R. A. McFadden, who was on duty on the Mexican border with the 3rd Oregon was introduced and sang "Over There." As an encore, he read a short poem, written by a member of the Guard, which was much enjoyed.

Two recitations, one by Albert Garrett and the other by Wilbur Miller followed, and August Huestein, Salem's postmaster was then introduced. A strong patriotic appeal for the individual support of all to the nation was his theme, and he brought out point after point in a clear way. At the close Thelma and Hazel Martin, as Uncle Sam and Columbia, sang, "The Star Spangled Banner," which ended the day's program.

An auction sale was immediately begun a young lamb being sold to Elton Mackenzie for $7.50. He also bought a rooster for the sum of $1.50. A quilt box of candy and a tea tray were raffled off, the lucky ones being Mrs. H. G. King, Charles Ramsden and Mrs. F. R. Robinson respectively.

The dance, which was held in the evening, was one of the largest of the year, and at the same time one of the best. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. C. Jekensburg presided over the punch and ice cream, the former being donated by them.

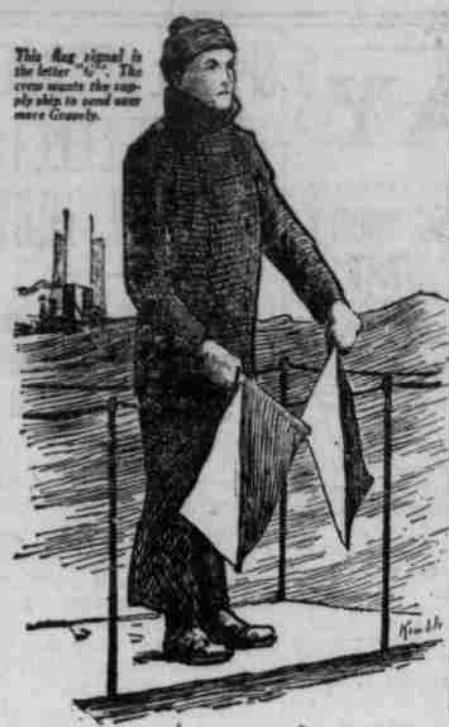

While the shortage of labor will but slightly affect the strawberry harvest this year, Onie Martin is still on the lookout for a few pickers. Work in the berries will begin about June 10. The crop is reported large and of good quality.

Jack Patton is wearing a bigger smile, if possible, than usual, for now he is grandfather. A son, Ernest P. Patton was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Patton who live east of Macleay.

While driving toward Macleay from his home Saturday, Jesse Martin collided with a Ford, driven by Harlan Hunt, damaging both machines. No one was injured.

Sam Glover, of Tacoma, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. O. Taylor. He arrived last week.

The death of a hen brought to the minds of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Goodell the fact that they had been married eleven years. The hen was one of a

Marion News Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service)

Marion, June 5.—Marion school closes with appropriate exercises.

Last Friday, May 31st, the closing day of the Marion school, was a busy one for both pupils and teachers. Spelling tests and a ciphering match took up the time until noon. After lunch all the pupils and many visitors gathered in Miss Moritz's room and greatly enjoyed a program given by the primary pupils. While the primary pupils were being treated to ice cream by their teacher, the others gathered on the campus and had some lively field sports.

The winners in the various races are as follows: Wheelbarrow race—Archie Rankin, and Lionel Colgan.

Sack race—Lionel Colgan and Clifford Enaley.

Then the two sack race winners ran which resulted in a victory for Clifford Enaley.

Three-legged race—Orval Colgan and Wayne Barber.

100-yard dash—Hugh Mason, of Jefferson.

Crab races—Ralph Hensen and Archie Rankin.

50-yard dash—Hugh Mason.

Boys' race—Harold Colgan.

Potato race—Kenneth Loretz.

The girl's race was a tie between Lucile Kophart and Glenn Russell. When the winners ran again, Lucile won by a very small margin.

Backward races—Kenneth Loretz, and Orval Colgan.

Men's race—Mr. Enaley.

It was expected that the Stayton school team would be present to play the Marion school boys at base ball, but as they failed to appear, the men played the boys a lively game which caused much merriment. This closed the sports for the afternoon, but in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Hoag gave their pupils a bon fire wienie roast which capped the climax for fun. Many of the pupils stated that they never had such a good time before in all their lives.

The following pupils have not been absent or tardy the past year: Glenn Russell, Irene Cecil and William Dakan and Wayne Barber.

During the last month of school a special contest in spelling was carried on in the intermediate room to discover who was the champion speller in each grade. The result gave the following pupils first place: 4th grade, Kenneth Loretz; 5th grade, Ralph Bouck; 6th grade, Lionel Colgan.

We are all glad that our school board has retained our teachers for another year. The writer happens to know that several better positions (financially) have been offered them, but they decided to remain here. They say this seems like home and they enjoy it.

Since school is out the children have turned their attention to strawberry picking, which is in full swing here now. The crop is good, though not quite so large as the growers wished. However, the fruit is bringing such a good price that they all wear a smile anyway.

J. Sauger Fox of Portland, field secretary for the Friends church in Oregon, was in Marion on Sunday afternoon till Tuesday morning in the interests of the work. He preached Sunday evening and Monday held a special business meeting with the members in the evening, which resulted in the organization of a "Storehouse League."

Rev. L. C. Russell met with a painful accident last Saturday. While riding his bicycle on the road near Mr. Borick's place, the handlebars broke in two, throwing him to the ground and badly lacerating one limb and bruising the other. He is able to "hobble" around, but avoids walking any more than necessary.

Mr. J. C. Wilson and family spent two weeks and visiting friends in Salem. Mr. Enos Pressnell was in the Capital City on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Russell and children have been visiting relatives and friends here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Castleman left setting of eggs received by them as a wedding present. During her life, the hen was a steady layer.

Miss Gladys Perkins, erstwhile school teacher at Macleay during the winter, was a visitor here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Garrett was called to The Dalles last week by the death of her father Mr. Kruger. She will remain there for a short visit.

Cloverdale Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service)

Cloverdale, Or., June 5.—Mrs. Moore and wife of Salem spent Decoration Day here with his sister, Mrs. H. Fleetwood.

Mrs. Ruth Rosebaugh of Salem spent the week end at the Fliflet home.

Mrs. Ida Lyle and little daughter, of Idaho arrived here the 29th. of May to visit for a while with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wipper.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis and Mrs. Knuke were Saturday visitors on Tuesday.

Mrs. Blaco, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Weatherill motored to Salem on Wednesday.

Miss Emma Schifferer, a teacher of Starvon, spent Decoration Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Schifferer.

Mr. Olin Hadley left here Wednesday on his way to France, from here he went to Newburg to visit a few days.

His brother Ivan joined him there Thursday evening, and the two go to Camp Lewis to visit a brother, there, and other relatives in Tacoma. Then Olin will join his company en route for France.

Dr. Glen Moore and wife and child spent several days visiting here with the latter's mother, Mrs. J. D. Craig.

Miss Ethel Craig who is attending school in Salem spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Craig.

Miss Arnold, principal of Cloverdale school, has had a seizure with the Liberty measles.

Miss Mabel Graybill returned home from the Business College in Salem, on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Fliflet motored to Silverton today to visit friends there.

North Howell Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service)

North Howell, June 5.—Mrs. Ruth Jefferson entertained the birthday club at her spacious home, May 31. A very delightful time was had by all present, the hostess served a delicious "Hoover" luncheon. Each member contributes 10 cents at every meeting which is given to the local Red Cross auxiliary.

Mrs. McClard of Portland is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Anna Manning.

Quite a number from here attended the Memorial services at Pioneer Cemetery, May 30, Rev. Hall, pastor of the M. E. church, of this place gave the address, and Mrs. Vinton our soloist gave that beautiful selection, "When God Parts Out the Light."

Isaac Stevens was in Portland this week attending the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Foster.

A number of young folks motored to Macleay to the dance Saturday evening. Still more went to Woodburn to bid our soldier boys good-bye.

The next meeting of the Red Cross will be at the home of Mrs. Admison let all the ladies plan to attend and be sure and bring thimble, needle and scissors.

Livesley News

(Capital Journal Special Service)

Livesley, Or., June 5.—Mrs. A. Scudder and children and Mrs. H. I. Blum of Portland have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Davenport.

W. V. Johnson and C. D. Quay, solicitors for the recent Red Cross drive in this community were well pleased with the hearty response of the people visited. About $150 was the amount subscribed.

Aubrey Johnson who has been attending the dental college in Portland is at home for the summer.

The last meeting of the G. T. club was held at the home of Mrs. H. B. Carpenter. Mrs. Mabel Higgins captured the prize. Many club members were absent on the account of the shortage of farm help. Daisty refreshments were served. Mrs. Ruth Bressler and Miss Gladys Bressler will entertain the club members Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Bressler.

The bazaar recently given by the Livesley Red Cross auxiliary was well patronized, netting the neat sum of $50. The auxiliary wishes to thank Mr. F.

Thielson, for the use of the building so kindly donated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Young and daughters, Misses Vivian and Vida of Moscow, Idaho, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Johnson Monday.

Clarence Martin and Frank Brooks who were called in Uncle Sam's last selected draft, left for Fort McDowell last Saturday.

Stewart Will Come to Legislature Next Year

Among those in attendance on the state grange is the ubiquitous Jim Stewart of Posed, Wheeler county. To a Capital Journal reporter he said he came down partly to attend the grange and partly to pick out his seat in the legislative halls, as the meeting of the grange would give him a chance to look the hall over. He said last year or rather at the last session of the legislature he was a "rookie" and had to stay outside the railing when the lawmakers were in session but this year he will sit with them as a full fledged member. He attributed his defeat two years ago and his success this year to the fact that his opponent was Clay C. Clark in both contests. "Two years ago," said he, "I made a whole lot of speeches and put up a vigorous campaign, but in spite of it, or because of it, I was beaten by a small majority. This year I tried an experiment. My opponent made a vigorous campaign and I stayed at home. The result was I beat him nearly two to one."

The speaking of the candidates may have been the cause of the widely divergent results, but at the same time it is noted that two years ago Jim ran as an independent and this year as a republican. He represents Sherman, Wheeler and Gilliam counties.

Taxi Drivers Pay, Case Is Dismissed

(Capital Journal Special Service)

The case against J. A. Beck and James A. Kaphahn charged with operating an automobile for hire without complying with the city ordinance requiring a license, were today dismissed in the city court upon both parties paying the annual license of 15. The case against Mr. Zinn is set for tomorrow and it will be up to him to make a showing that he is not operating an automobile for hire in the city.

So far this year, six taxi and automobile drivers have taken out a license as required by the city ordinance and are legally entitled to do business in the city. They are: J. A. Beck, James A. Kaphahn, Paul Anderson, J. B. Underwood, the Marion hotel and W. F. Prime. All others accepting money for automobile services in the city are violating the city ordinance and according to City Attorney Macy action will be taken against them as soon as evidence can be secured.

NEW GERMAN PEACE TERMS

Amsterdam, June 5. Chancellor Hertling probably will address the German reichstag shortly, talking generally the peace terms Germany is now willing to accept, a Berlin dispatch stated today.

PLENTY OF FARM LOAN MONEY

Washington, June 5.—The federal farm loan board today stepped the sale of farm loan bonds. Sixty million dollars have been raised through bond sales since May 23. It is expected no more will be offered until late in the year.

FOR WOMEN WHO WORRY

Worry and "the blues" are usually linked together, and in many cases are due to some functional derangement which if not corrected may lead to more serious ailments. More outdoor life, sleep, water drinking and a few weeks' treatment with that good old fashioned root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, will revitalize and strengthen the system and work wonders for any woman. If you are prone to worry and "the blues" try it.

Now, to hold them at the Marne—again.
