- PURPOSE OF ATTACK
By Henry Wood
(United Press staff correspondent)
- With the French Armies on the Marne, June 8--The allied attack in the region of Neuilly La Poterie, in which the American marines played so spectacular a role was for the purpose of reducing a steep salient which the Germans had driven into our line south of the Clignan river.
- The combined French and American line has been advanced until it now includes Vinly north of the Clignan river; Neuilly-La-Poterie; the heights southeast of Hauteveves (two miles northeast of Vinly); Torcy and Belouan.
- Reports of the fighting received at French headquarters in this region are replete with feats of Americans. One American lieutenant, after leaping from his lines killed an entire German machine gun crew and brought back the gun. An American ambulance driver, after attending wounded in the open until heavy fire forced him to seek shelter, brought back four wounded men with him.
- Americans are Praised
London, June 8--"One of the most encouraging things is the superb valor and trained skill with which the Americans have participated in the struggle and defeated the foe," declared Premier Lloyd-George in speaking at a dinner of the Printers' Pension association last night.
- "It is most encouraging because they are coming steadily in a great flow. We are depending upon them."
- "When in France recently I met a statesman who had just returned from the front. He said he was full of admiration for the Americans and that their fighting was most encouraging.
- "We are passing through anxious times and the crisis is not passed, but with a stout heart we'll pull through."
- Emphasizing the moral issue of the

"Russian Dancer" Pleads Moral Unfitness for War

Portland, Or., June 8.--Ivan De Marcel, the "Russian Dancer," self-styled, who recently conducted a dancing class here for girls and matrons, has written a letter to a draft board claiming exemption from army service on the ground of moral unfitness.

After reading the letter the draft board admits the moral unfitness with However, a technically may force Marcel into the army, where he will out question.

allies will be feeding out of the Kaiser's hand.

They may be depressed tomorrow--and every British, French and American soldier out here says "you can kick but they will!" But today, they dream of annexing Chicago.

Of such men are the armies which Hindenburg is still nursing and doping prior to hurling them into the fourth phase of the offensive.

struggle, the premier said:
"If the allies do not succeed it will be a sorry world to live in. The fate of the world, the destiny of men, the lives of future generations, will be fashioned by the failure or triumph of our cause."

Wounding of Gibbons
With the American Armies in France June 8.--The circumstances of the wounding of Floyd Gibbons, correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, were related today by one of the officers who accompanied him.

They were on their way to visit an American machine gun emplacement Thursday evening. As they were crossing a small open space in Buasieres wood, a hidden boche machine gun opened fire. Gibbons and the officers dropped in the grass and lay quietly for a while.

Presently some decided to jump up and run. This apparently included Gibbons and one of the officers. Five minutes later they heard Gibbons say: "I believe I'm hit." They asked him where and he replied: "In the eye."

These decided to lie quietly in the grass until dark. When the crawling out Gibbons was helped to an ambulance, in which he was taken to a Paris hospital.

Gibbons lost the sight of one eye. He also has a slight wound in the arm.

The egg canning season is at hand.

We should worry. It takes 500 bees to weigh a pound.
