SCOTT'S EMULSION

may mean weak lungs and need more thorough treatment than mere syrups, physicals or stimulants.

corrects chest colds by giving strength to the blood and warmth to the body, while it is famous with physicians for relieving hard coughs and soothing the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes.

RUSSIAN BOLSHEVIKS

taking no official part in these plots, but is splendidly informed of the new reactionary regime at the proper moment.

It is still impossible to foretell immediate developments, but it is certain the brief respite is nearing its end, however much the bolsheviks seek to lengthen it. The bolsheviks themselves admit:

"We are already a corpse, but there is no one to bury us."

The bolshevik regime, due to methods of violence similar to the old czarism in an effort to preserve itself, is universally hated. The proletariat are leaving the bolshevik emprise.

All factory workers in Petrograd have organized. Their conference demand a re-united, democratic front, abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk treaty and formation of a nationalist, socialist Russia, in order to restore industry, inaugurate social reforms and end civil war.

The bolsheviks planned to dissolve the conference, but got cold feet. The conference is planning a general strike unless the bolsheviks yield.

There is no doubt that the Russian revolution is facing its final battle, in the counter revolution and German intrigue. This will decide the fate of democracy in Russia. Forces at the disposal of the soviets are too weak to meet the situation. Both the proletariat and the peasantry are deserting the bolsheviks; they finally realizing the terrible consequences of the Brest-Litovsk peace.

There is complete disorganization of Russia's financial and economic life in most districts, the bolsheviks remaining in power only because of their hired bayonets.

It is as clear as daylight they will be unable to solve the colossal economic problems.

Only the combined democratic elements will be able to organize a real army to end the disorganization of the whole of Russia. It is not yet too late to accomplish this, through a united democratic government, but the bolsheviks prefer to swallow daily ultimatums from Germany.

The bolshevik press also has surrendered, and is concentrating its attack on the members of the Right and the Mensheviks, knowing the peasantry and workmen are flocking to the latter.

Petrograd and Moscow are now quiet. The former is virtually starving, the population getting about an eighth of a pound of bread a day.

Soon, however, something will burst. The workmen themselves are preparing to overthrow the bolsheviks to save the republic before the growing counter revolution restores the monarchy.

Several Salem Men Become Mystic Shriners

One hundred and seventy two candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the Shrine last Saturday by Al Kader Temple of Portland. The ceremonial was staged in the afternoon in the Eleventh Street Playhouse.

Al members of the Mystic Shrine are recruited from the ranks of the 32d degree Masons or Knights Templar. The Shrine is thus open only to the highest Masons and it is said to be an oasis of pleasure in the desert of hard work of the Masonic order.

Among those who were given the Shrine degree and are now entitled to wear the fez were seven from Salem: Frederick T. Lampert, 32; William Henry Lerchen, 32; Edward Rosten, 32; Meade C. Pettys, K. T.; David W. Ayre 32; Fred G. Buchtel, 32; Clyde J. Boyce and Noyon carried the Germans forward to a maximum depth of about three miles in the center, while the wings, as in their previous drives, were held with unimportant gains, it was indicated by the night official reports.

The greatest penetration was made at Besons-Sur-Matz and Mareuil-La-Motte where the Germans obtained a foothold, the French war office said. On the west, the enemy reached Rubescourt, Le Pretoy and Mortemer. On the right they reached Belval, Cannectancourt and Ville.

Referring to this attack, the German war office announced that "west of the Oise we have captured the height of Gury and adjoining enemy lines." Gury is two miles north of Mareuil-La-Motte and represents an advance of only a mile.

Regarding the American successes northwest of Chateau-Thierry, Berlin said:

"Americans who attempted again to attack northwest of Chateau-Thierry were driven back beyond their positions of departure with heavy losses and prisoners were taken."

The German staff apparently is obstinately convinced that the Oise valley offers the most likely opportunity for advancing toward Paris.

The present attack was for the purpose of linking up the Montdidier salient created by the Germans in their March offensive with Chateau-Thierry salient, advanced through the past three weeks' created.

Sunday attack, launched by General Von Huber, followed the same tactics which characterized the boches' preceding offensive efforts. They made an initial gain through a surprise attack. German infantrymen leaped to the assault in successive waves.

Despite the Huns' efforts at secrecy and their use of gas, French artillery was able to maintain a counter preparation throughout the enemy bombardment.

The desperate efforts with which the Germans launched their new assault is indicative of their realization of the absolute necessity of ending the war before America's full strength is intervened.

Owing to an extremely heavy concentration, the French were able to inflict terrific losses on the Germans from the moment the attack began.

Raid Is Reported. London, June 10.—A hostile attack in the Aveluy wood last evening was repulsed, Field Marshal Haig reported today.

NEWLY REGISTERED MEN WILL GET QUESTIONNAIRE

Must Give Full Information For Purposes of Classification by Board

The young men, 123 in number, who registered in Marion county, June 5, will soon be mailed a questionnaire on which each is to note just what he is doing, who are dependent upon his labor for support, whether married or not, what claims he has, if any, for exemption or deferred classification, and in fact answer a hundred questions or more by which the local exemption board can arrive at a right conclusion as to which class he is entitled to.

The classifications are five in number and under each class are divisions numbered by letters. The great majority of classifications are in either class 1 or class 4. The five classes are as follows:

Class 1. Single man without dependent relatives.

Class 2. Married man who has failed to support family.

Class 3. Married man dependent on wife for support.

Class 4. Married man with or without children not usefully engaged and family supported by income independent of his labor.

Class 5. Unskilled farm laborer.

Class 6. Unskilled industrial laborer.

Registrants who fail to return questionnaire or who do not claim any deferred classification.

Class 1. Single man without dependent relatives.

Class 2. Married man where the wife or children are not dependent upon him for support. Also a married man whose wife or children are not mainly dependent upon him for support and where the wife is able to make her own living. This class also includes men who are necessary for skilled work on the farm or a man who is a skilled industrial laborer.

Class 3. Man whose wife or children (not his own) but towards whom he stands in the relation of parent. Man with dependent helpless brothers or sisters. Man with dependent aged or infirm parents. County or municipal officer. Trained fireman or policeman with at least three years experience. Custom house clerk, necessary employe in mail service, worker in a U. S. army or arsenal, necessary assistant of industrial or agricultural enterprise.

Class 4. Man whose wife or children are mainly dependent on his labor for support. Marines actually employed in sea service of citizen or merchant of the United States. Necessary sole manager of agricultural or industrial enterprise.

Class 5. Officers—legislative, executive or judicial of the United States or of state territory or District of Columbia. Regular or duly ordained minister of religion. Student who on May 18, 1917, was preparing for the ministry in a recognized school. Alien enemy. Resident alien (not an enemy) who claims exemption. Those physically or morally unfit for military service. Licensed pilot actually employed in the pursuit of his vocation. Members of well organized religious sect whose creed forbids its members to participate in war of any kind and whose religious convictions are against participating in war.

In many cases those who claim to be opposed to war are put to work of some kind. Exemption boards everywhere are looking with disfavor on any man who attempts to avoid his duty on religious grounds. In returning the questionnaire to the local board, the registrant must answer the question as to whether he claims exemption or deferred classification or he may sign a waiver of all claim for exemption.

If the registrant, except an alien enemy, fails to return the questionnaire on the date required, he shall be deemed to have waived all claim for deferred classification and shall be classified in class 1.

NEW STAR RUSHING EASTWARD DISCOVERY ECLIPSE OBSERVERS

Newcomer Creates More Interest Than Study of Eclipse Among Scientists

Baker, Or., June 10.—Interest in the eclipse of the sun was eclipsed today by the discovery of a new star, said by scientists to be rushing full speed in the general direction of the earth.

The newcomer's brilliancy surpasses Venus, a heavenly body of the first magnitude. This discovery is declared to be of much more importance than the eclipse itself.

That the visitor's approach to the earth may cause strange phenomena such as storms, or the detection of new gasses, is admitted by the many noted scientists who were drawn into the northwest by the eclipse of the sun.

Telegrams received today from various observatories stated that the star had been seen from various points in the United States. Astronomers here say it is doubtful whether the orb is permanent. It may be formed of gasses.

This is the third star of this type reported in 300 years. Its intense brilliancy and mysterious character mark it. Astronomers believe it may have approached the earth twenty thousand years ago. Its rapidly increasing brightness indicate that it may have joined the solar system.

The seven leading observatories of the nation have been notified and are observing the stranger.

In the sky it is placed at 18.45 right ascension, declination plus one degree.

The star was discovered by Dr. George H. Peters and W. M. Conrad of the government party of astronomers here at 1:30 Sunday morning.

G. W. Peters, government photographer, said today examination showed all ten pictures taken of the corona during the sun's eclipse were perfect. Spectroscopic pictures taken also were successful.
