SOCIETY By CAROL S. DIEBLE

The engagement of Miss Lois M. Ashby to Henry C. Richter, member of the third officers' training corps at American Lake, was announced last Saturday evening at a delightful party given by Miss N. Alma Ashby, a cousin of the bride-elect, at her home, 210 South Nineteenth street.

The announcement of the betrothal was made known to the guests at the refreshment hour, the table being centered with a collection of little silk bags, each of which on opening disclosed a tiny lucky log bearing the attached names of the young couple. The wedding will take place the latter part of the month.

Before going to American Lake, Mr. Richter was engaged in Y. M. C. A. work at Vancouver, Washington.

The hours were merrily whiled away with music, a mock wedding and readings by Mrs. Blanche Howard. Masses of luxuriant roses lent lovely decoration to the rooms. Miss Gertrude Ashby assisted the hostess in serving.

Those present were: Mrs. Blanche Howard, Mrs. Jay King, Mrs. Guy Newgent, Mrs. Fritz Vance, Mrs. Edward Craven, Mrs. O. J. Wilson, Miss Doris Richter, Miss Ruth Van Patton, Miss Mildred Maple, Miss Blanche Cory, Miss Pearl Eyr, Miss Flora Eyr, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stovall, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ashby.

Miss Bertha Moores of Portland was the guest of her brother, A. N. Moores, yesterday. Miss Moores came down to attend the commencement exercises at Willamette university.

Mrs. William P. Brown and Mrs. W. H. Eldridge are passing the day in Portland.

Mrs. Henry J. Bean will be the guest of her daughter, Miss Grace Bean of Portland, for the week end.

Mrs. O. P. Coshov of Roseburg, who has been visiting in Salem the past week, is enjoying a short stay in Portland. She will return to Salem tomorrow remaining a few days longer as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Knasoo Pickens, and Mrs. Thomas Kay, before going back to Roseburg.

Little Miss Marcella Gill is a guest at the home of Mrs. P. L. Purvine for a few days. The visitor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gill of the Portland Seed company.

Mrs. Asahel Bush will return this evening from a short stay at Portland.

Mrs. J. C. McKinney of 1394 North Church street has returned home after a month's visit with her parents at Valparaiso, Indiana.

Miss Daisy Duckering left this morning for her home at Everett, Washington. Miss Duckering, who had supervision of the penmanship in the Salem schools, does not expect to return to Salem.

Miss Charlotte Tobbins and her sister, Miss Elizabeth Tobbins, juniors at Willamette university, returned to their home at Portland yesterday for the summer.

Mrs. Grace Eoff will visit her son Asel Eoff, in Portland over the week end, going down tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Adams and son, Donald, of Weiser, Idaho, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace of Spokane, Washington, were Salem visitors this week, having come to attend the graduation of Wallace Adams, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Adams, from Willamette university. They were pleasantly entertained during their stay by Mrs. T. S. Golden at her home, 1395 Saginaw street. The party left Salem yesterday. Wallace Adams returned to Idaho with his parents.

its treasurer, testifying in the trial of himself and other followers of the late "Pastor" Russell for alleged violation of the espionage act.

Although he had testified that he and associates conducted the organization without compensation, except for an allowance of $15 a month for expenses, Van Amurgh said that a check for $2500 payable to his account was the gift of a wealthy member of the association.

Fred H. Rodison, another defendant identified several letters he had written to followers of Russell urging them "as consecrated Christians" to resist conscription.

that after the war those who have battled abroad will be impatient of the old campaign slogans of both parties and will demand in the leaders definite ideas that will give the working man a definite place in the sun. This also has been Ford's industrial policy for some years. His appearance in the senate, therefore, is looked upon by some here as forecasting perhaps the foundation for a new alignment in politics.

Slacker Von Tirpitz of Hood River, Claims Relationship to Admiral

Portland, Or., June 13.—Charles Tirpitz, aged 21, who failed to register June 5, declared today he was a distant relative of Admiral Von Tirpitz, grand admiral of the German navy and father of ruthlessness.

Young Tirpitz said he would be glad to enter the army, but did not explain why he did not register. His father, who brought the boy from Canada at the age of four years, is an American citizen, although he is at present in the Oregon penitentiary.

(Inquiry at the prison discloses the fact that Ernest von Tirpitz is doing time at the prison under sentence of "20 years to life," for rape. He was sent to the prison from Hood River county July 5, 1917, and admits the boy arrested at Hood River is his son, but indignantly denies being any relation to Admiral von Tirpitz (the father of German submarine ruthlessness.)

OUTFITTERS TO WOMEN, MISSES AND CHILDREN

Anniversary of American Arrival in France Observed

Paris, June 14.—On the anniversary of the arrival of American troops in France, President Poincare today dispatched a message to President Wilson expressing his admiration at the "magnificent American effort" and extending his congratulations.

"The troops of the allies are living in the most difficult hours of the war," the message said. "The rapid formation of new American units is sure to restore the balance. Then the allies will take decisive revenge and found the peace principles you have laid down, making certain the reign of right and liberty among nations."

Poincare also wired General Pershing congratulating him upon the admirable fighting qualities displayed by the American troops and wishing him continued success.

NOTABLE DECREASE.

Paris, June 14.—"A notable decrease," in the number of submarine sinkings in the western and central regions and the English channel has been evident since the blocking of Zeebrugge and Ostend harbors, it was semi-officially announced today.
