

Take "wear" out of washday

Mere washing doesn't wear out clothes. It's the boiling and hard rubbing that weakens and wears them out before their time.

Use Fels-Naptha soap. It's thrifty economy. Boiling and hard rubbing are unnecessary. You save the clothes, you save time, you save yourself.

Wash the Fels-Naptha way for a month and prove it!

machine gun fire. Our losses were light and we took eight prisoners. Both artilleries maintained a terrific barrage during the attack. American patrols raiding in the Toul sector report enemy trenches are occupied by an unusually large number of troops, contrary to the recent policy of withdrawing into the support trenches each night. The Germans also are using a large number of observation balloons.

second American-trained ace. Rickenbacher, who formerly was a famous auto race driver declares that aviation is safe compared to motor racing. The first announcement that American troops are in the line within German territory, made Saturday night, located them "south" of the famous hill of Hartmannsweilerkopf, which is 22 miles north of the Swiss frontier. Taylor's dispatch today locates them more definitely as "east of Belfort". This would place them about seven miles within German territory and eight miles north of the Swiss border. The important German city of Altkirch apparently is about four miles east of them.

DEFEAT TWO GERMAN ATTACKS

By owell Mellett (United Press Staff Correspondent) With the Americans on the Marne June 17—American forces holding Belleau wood beat off two German attacks within two hours yesterday morning. They inflicted heavy losses on the enemy, but got off without a scratch. The attacks followed a fruitless assault about 10:30 Saturday night. A barrage announced a resumption of the effort about two o'clock yesterday morning. The boches showed up at the edge of the wood on schedule, but were driven off by a withering rifle and machine gun fire. The barrage failed to claim a victim and the enemy infantry did not get close enough to do any damage. The attempt was repeated at 4

SOCIETY

By CAROL S. DIEBLE

Lieutenant Earl C. Fiegel arrived in Salem this morning from Camp Fremont, California, on a ten day's furlough. During his stay, Lieutenant Fiegel will claim Miss Barbara Steiner, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, as his bride, the engagement of the young couple having been announced recently at a pretty tea given by an aunt of the bride-elect, Mrs. Milton Meyers. The exact date of the wedding is as yet not definitely decided, pending the arrival of Lieutenant Fiegel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fiegel of Portland, who are expected home the latter part of the week from an eastern trip. Following their marriage, the young couple will leave for Palo Alto, California, where they will make their home until Lieutenant Fiegel is ordered elsewhere.

The wedding of Miss Inez Adele Cramer and Dr. W. H. Byrd was solemnized Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, at the home of Dr. Byrd's mother, Mrs. L. Byrd, on Union street. The service was read by Rev. W. C. Kanter. Following a short motor trip to American Lake, Dr. and Mrs. Byrd will make their home at the handsome Byrd residence on Court street.

Roses, larkspur and delphinium combined with ferns formed exceedingly pretty decorations for the occasion. Mrs. Byrd, who has been principal of the educational department of the state school for the Peble Minded, came to Salem last fall from La Peer, Michigan. She is a woman of high attainments and much personal charm, and during her short residence in the city has won a large number of friends.

Mrs. Chauncey Bishop and youngest son, Charles Kay, returned last night from a delightful sojourn of several weeks at Palo Alto, California. Robert Bishop did not return with his mother and brother, but will remain in California with his grandmother, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, for a longer visit with the latter's son, Lieutenant Carl Gabrielson, who is stationed at Camp Fremont.

Alumni day at the University of Oregon Saturday noted the return of a large gathering of alumni from all over the state, many Salem people actively participating in the numerous events of the occasion.

The alumni dinner was held at noon in the men's gymnasium, with the members of the faculty and senior class special guests. Walter Winslow of Salem, as president of the Alumni association, acted as toastmaster. Resolutions were given by James Sheeny, '18; "Our Adopted Brethren," Frederick H. Thompson, M. D.; "University Service," Charles H. Fisher of Salem, a member of the board of regents; "Loyalty," K. K. Kubli of Portland of the class of '03; "Echoes from France," Colonel John Leeder; "Oregon's Contribution to Democracy," President P. L. Campbell.

In the evening the alumni reception and ball took place with a large attendance of out of town guests. In the receiving line were President and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Winslow of Salem, Judge and Mrs. R. S. Bean of Portland, Mrs. Ellen McCormack, Mrs. Edna Datson, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Kubli, Judge and Mrs. L. T. Harris of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier.

Relinquishing her role of June graduate, only to immediately assume that of June bride, Miss Louise Benson was quietly married to Richard H. Robertson of Portland, late Saturday afternoon, at the residence of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Henry L. Benson, 945 Summer street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard N. Avison before a few intimate friends and relatives.

Extremely pretty decorations marked the event, though characterized by tasteful simplicity. The bride was lovely in a beautiful white embroidered, satin gown. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and sweet peas. Several vocal numbers were given by Mr. and Mrs. George Hotchkiss Street. Following the wedding a collation was served to twenty guests.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Hotchkiss Street, Mrs. M. E. Dagggett, Mrs. Elizabeth Crisler, Miss Islette Hendrex and Miss Helen Forrest of Portland, and Mrs. N. C. Briggs, Jr., of Hollister, California.

The bridal couple left on the evening train for Portland, where they will make their home at the Cecilia apartments, 714 Glisan street. Mr. Robertson is quite prominent in musical circles in Portland where he is connected with the U. S. forestry service. He formerly resided in Washington, D. C.

F. X. Arens, the well known voice specialist and conductor of the People's Symphony concerts, New York, who is to give his third annual vocal course at Portland in September, at 800 Belmont street, writes friends that at the last meeting of the Arens club two Oregonians won honors: Miss Margery Hausman and Tom Ordemann. Miss Hausman sang the scene and gavotte from "Manon" (Massenet) with great brilliancy of voice and style and Mr. Ordemann, bass baritone, sang three numbers, "Call Me No More," "Rolling Down to Rio" and a duet with Mrs. Taggart, a beautiful contralto, who hails from Toledo, O. Mr. Ordemann's singing was rich and gorgeous.

A party of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. F. Skipton on Center street recently, in honor of Miss Eva Goodspeed, who will shortly leave for California. Miss Goodspeed is well known in art circles here and has many friends who regret very much her leaving the city. Several affairs are being planned for her entertainment before her departure.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Juanita Christinger. A feature of the evening was the reading by Miss Chapel of the beautiful poem "Your Flag and My Flag." A large flag was draped over a picture

Goldecamp (posthumous) attempted to rescue Sergeant Swingle March 29, his patrol leader who was lying wounded within sight of his lines. While engaged in this work he came under hostile machine gun fire and was killed. "Private Leslie M. Lane, on the night of April 4 and 5 was carrying rations to the men in the front trench-

Former British Consul General Commits Suicide

San Francisco, June 17.—Percy Bayliss, until three months ago consul general for Great Britain in Russia, ended his life here today in his apartment by inhaling gas. Bayliss had recently been in a local hospital recovering from a nervous breakdown after his flight from Russia. Early today Bayliss went into the bedroom occupied by his two sons, George, aged 7 and Leonard, age 6, and told the boys to go in with their mother, Mrs. Alga Bayliss, and their sister, Eugenia, age 9, in an adjoining room. An hour later Mrs. Bayliss went into the boy's bedroom and found her husband dead. The gas had been turned on and the windows closed tight. Four months ago the Bayliss family fled from Moscow when the consulate was ordered closed. Wandering mobs robbed them, and they were practically penniless when they reached San Francisco. Bayliss was broken in health, and remained here, the local British consul caring for him.

Berger, Pro-German, Still Rules Socialist Party

Milwaukee, Wis., June 17.—The socialist party in Wisconsin is on record today as favoring "an early, general, lasting and democratic peace, without forced annexations or punitive indemnities and with the right of all nationalities to determine their own destiny." This attitude was embodied in a plank of the party's state platform adopted in convention here, yesterday. Emil Spidel, former socialist mayor

Rain Falls In Portland; Only Local Shower

Portland, Or., June 17.—The section immediately about Portland was refreshed by a steady drizzle today, but the rain was not general and crops sorely needing rain were not aided. Tillamook reported rain there this morning. It was not raining at Gresham, Estacada, Eugene or Salem. There was a light rain at Tacoma, Wash., early today, but this stopped before nine o'clock. There was no rain in Seattle district.
