Germans Would Go Back to Trench Fighting

By Fred S. Ferguson, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

With the Americans on the Marne, June 19.—The Germans on the Chateau-Thierry front, "fed up" with the style of fighting dished up to them by the Americans, are trying to force our men to accept a reversion to trench warfare.

This sector has undergone a vast change in the last few days. Not only have the positions become stabilized, but the beaches are digging elaborate shelter trenches.

The beaches are stretching wire for their new trenches as though they had no immediate intention to push on. They are being strengthened daily by reinforcements.

Our troops, however, are taking up stabilized warfare with the same avidity they displayed in open fighting.

The recent arrival of German heavy artillery on this front was heralded by bombardment of areas ten kilometers (six and a third miles) in the rear of the American positions. At the same time the Americans pounded German rear areas shelling a wood where enemy reserves were mobilizing, guessing their gun positions and spraying shrapnel over roads where supplies and men were being transported.

DOCTOR CHANGED NAME

Oakland, Cal., June 19.—Dr. Leila Belle Butcher today dropped the "L" from her name and made it "Baecher" with the permission of the superior court.

She told the court "Butcher" was too bloody a name for a doctor and she lost patients as a result.

FAVORS RAISING LIMIT

Believe British Ship Victim of Submarine

An Atlantic Port, June 19.—That a British ship may have fallen victim to submarine operating off the American coast was the belief here today, following arrival of a United Fruit liner which had an exciting voyage from Havana. Passengers aboard the liner said the ship received calls for help from the British craft Sunday, which said a submarine was using its guns. The liner had been ordered in to port, however, and could not turn back.

AMERICAN FEDERATION PLEDGES LOYALTY ANEW

Message Dispatched Today To President Wilson From St. Paul

St. Paul, Minn., June 19.—American union labor today sent to President Wilson, through Secretary of Labor Wilson, a message of loyalty and confidence.

"Tell the president we send him a message of good will, hope and courage. Tell him we dare not fail. We must and will win this war," Samuel Gompers told the labor secretary on the floor of the American Federation convention here.

Secretary Wilson was given an ovation when he appeared before the union men to discuss labor's part in the war. "Our Bill Wilson" was his introduction.

How the protection of labor played a part in the declaration of state of war was told by Wilson.

"We decided to protect the seamen," Wilson said in telling some of the reasons why the president and his advisers refused to abide by Germany's ultimatum closing the seas to traffic.

"President Wilson's sentiments then were and are now, that from the men on the bridge to the stoker, these men are entitled to the protection of the government. There were citizens who claimed our citizens should not travel on the high seas, failing to recall that our seamen had a right to continue earning their living in their accustomed ways."

"Our institutions are at stake and we unionists justly adopted the right course—to support the government and provide means of supporting our boys at the front," Wilson continued, discussing the war.

"Most of us have been through strikes when conditions were worse than they are now. As in a strike, we are facing poorer conditions now that they may be better after the war."

A resolution adopted today calls upon immigrants to become naturalized citizens at once.

The case of Thomas Mooney, convicted for complicity in the San Francisco bomb plot, probably will be discussed tomorrow.

Detroit today asked for the 1919 convention.

German Newspapers Criticize Kaiser's Views

Washington, June 19.—German papers, especially the liberal and democratic organs, are taking violent exception to Kaiser Wilhelm's recent speech made at General Headquarters, in commemoration of his thirty years of rule over the German empire, cable dispatches today stated.

Charging that the kaiser had "purposely hidden from the people at the beginning, the real aims of the war," the Frankfurter Zeitung declared that "the kaiser has made war and is continuing it for the sole purpose of enforcing German supremacy upon the world."

Y. M. C. A. Girls Sign To Help Harvest Corn

The 25 girls who have signed cards at the Y. M. C. A. wherein they agreed to do their patriotic duty in helping save the fruit crops will be given an opportunity to make good. And not only the girls who have signed the cards but others who would like to join in the good work will be given a chance to work.

At the Y. W. C. A. Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock a meeting will be held to make the final arrangements for the camp which is to be at the cherry orchard of Mr. Miller, five miles south of Salem. At this meeting it is expected that plans will be made for a Friday morning start.

The party of girls to Mr. Miller's orchard will be chaperoned by Mrs. William Fleming, one of the Salem high school teachers. Miss Florence Cleveland, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. who is assisting in the work, announces that all who would like to be included in this party, should report at the Thursday afternoon meeting.

The cherry picking in the orchards of Mr. Miller will be under ideal conditions. He has an unoccupied house on his place and all that the girls will be asked to bring will be some articles of bedding and table utensils. Transportation will be given the party leaving Friday morning.

HAMS ARE REJECTED UNFIT FOR EATING

Meat Furnished by Chicago Concern Was Not Up to Specifications

New York, June 19.—How 300,000 pounds of hams were rejected reprocessed and all but 14 per cent again rejected by the United States navy, was told today by Captain Charles S. Williams during the investigation into the alleged sale of meat unfit for human consumption.

Captain Williams, paymaster in charge of the receiving station at the Brooklyn navy yard, was the first witness called when the federal trade hearing was resumed before Examiner Edward P. Patterson.

He told of issuing a commanding order on Wilson & Company of Chicago for 300,000 pounds of ham after all bids received from meat packers were found to be exorbitant. When these hams were received during the months of April, May and June last year, he testified, they did not meet with navy specifications.

He testified these hams were returned to the packers and were reprocessed and a second inspection asked which he refused, but was overruled at Washington. A second inspection, piece by piece, was then made in Chicago, according to his testimony and 34 per cent was accepted over his protest. The hams accepted were ordered shipped to the Great Lakes and Newport News Trading station, he said. After the second weekly shipment of 10,000 pounds was received at Great Lakes, he testified, he received word from the receiving officer that all other shipments were being refused on advice of the physician in charge.

Aside from the hams rejected, Captain Williams testified that other hams accepted under a four-months keeping guarantee were found unfit for use.

WORK IS PROVIDED FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Parties Will Be Sent Out To Berry Farms Next Saturday and Monday

Boys and girls who are willing to do some real patriotic work in the way of helping to save the cherry and loganberry crop will now be given a chance to join one of the several parties soon to leave, according to the Rev. H. N. Aldrich who has charge of the work for young folks. His headquarters are on State street with the Labor bureau, opposite The Spa.

If the boy or girl has not already signed up for work, now is the chance as Mr. Aldrich announces that the following parties will soon begin real work Saturday 30 boys and girls will leave for Chapman's ranch two miles west of Miller's ranch, five miles south of Salem. A party of 25 will go to Miller's ranch, five miles south of Salem. A camp of 50 will go to Robert's ranch on the Pratum road Saturday and a camp of 30 boys and girls to the ranches of Mr. Murdock and Mr. Harris next Monday.

If the boy or girl cannot make arrangements to join one of these parties, Mr. Aldrich announces that others are being formed and that each will be properly chaperoned. All that is required of the worker is that each take along his or her bedding and personal effects. There will be free transportation. All that is necessary to do is to report to the Labor Bureau on State street and sign up.
