A German spy may have been living in Canada and even taken out naturalization papers there before coming to this country, yet he is regarded as an alien by this government. The question came to Postmaster August Hucklestein wherein William Pstak claimed that he was not an alien, having taken out papers as a citizen while living in Canada. Taking up the matter with the U. S. marshal of this district, Mr. Hucklestein received the following letter: "This government does not recognize Canadian naturalization and under our laws Mr. Pstak is a German alien and it will be necessary for him to register as such and also his wife and children who were not born in this country."

Lieutenant Walker Gets Severe Sentence

Tacoma, Wash., June 19.—The first case of a commissioned officer at Camp Lewis being sentenced to prison is that of Stanley F. Walker of Los Angeles, second lieutenant in the 361st infantry who it is announced today must serve ten years in the federal prison on order of President Wilson. Walker was charged with both desertion and issuing worthless checks.

The findings of the local court-martial brought in a verdict of 25 years imprisonment, but President Wilson upon reviewing the case, reduced the sentence and ordered that Lieutenant Walker be confined at the disciplinary barracks, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

It was brought out that Walker also deserted from the United States navy under another name six years ago.

Joseph A. Martin, engineer for the Salem Water Company, today received word of the death of his sister, June 18, at Oxford Mills, Canada. This is the same date that Mr. Martin's son died at a naval hospital near Boston.

The first band concert of the season given by the Cherrian band last evening in Wilson park was well attended and the crowd was most appreciative, calling for repeated encores. The next concert will be Friday evening of this week. The present arrangements call for a concert Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week, unless otherwise announced.

J. T. Jones, marshal of Jefferson who sustained a fractured skull Monday while arresting speeders at Turner, is at the Deaconess hospital. This afternoon his condition was reported favorable. While stepping from a car at Turner Monday to arrest speeders who had passed at through Jefferson, Mr. Jones was thrown backward, sustaining serious injuries on the back of the head.

George J. Paulus, for eight years deputy sheriff, has cast his lot with the navy and today enlisted in the radio service. He will leave tomorrow for Mare Island near San Francisco to enter a training and study for the service a period of 32 weeks. While serving as deputy sheriff, Mr. Paulus has been associated with Sheriff Harry Minto William Eeck and the present sheriff W. L. Needham.

Besides answering questions regarding service in the navy and preparing and accepting recruits, J. E. Adams, naval recruiting officer has had added to his duties that of inspecting the large posters in Salem and neighboring towns. Today he received an order to inspect all the naval posters in Salem and then proceed to Dallas, Missouri, St. Bernton, Hubbard, Aurora and Lebanon to note if the navy advertising is properly posted.

The Meyers department store has sold its shoe department to George Greenfield & Company of Portland and the stock is being boxed and shipped today. The stock was disposed of as the store has lost several of its shoe salesmen during the past few months and it has been almost impossible to secure experienced men to handle this line of the business. After the shoe stock has been removed, the store will undergo a general remodeling.

Two more men of draft age are wanted by the local exemption board who will volunteer for service for work in the mechanical line and who are willing to go to San Francisco to take special instructions. The call was for six men from this district for this special service and so far but four have volunteered. The time limit for volunteering is June 21, and two young men with a leaning for mechanical work will be accepted up to that date. If the quota of six do not volunteer, the board will draft two men. Those who have volunteered are Milo Rasmussen, 318 Miller street; Henry M. Boedinger, Liberty and Perry streets; Fred Leisi, 2708 Lee street and William J. Holmes of Portland. The training for this special service will be given the young men at the government's expense.

Every citizen in Marion county will receive a paper giving full information regarding War Savings Stamps and what the government expects of every one during the campaign to begin next Monday, closing Friday evening June 28. From the office of W. M. Smith, chairman of the executive committee, 14 mail sacks of these papers were sent out today by the rural carriers. In Salem the first mass meeting will be held Sunday afternoon June 23, with the active campaign to be put on Monday and Tuesday. In the country, a few calls will be made in each district early next week with a meeting of the directors of each district Thursday evening June 27, and a mass meeting of the district in the school house on the evening of Friday, June 28. At no meeting will money be accepted as the campaign will be put on by means of pledges.

Stock Market Dull In Wall Street Today

New York, June 19.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

Today's stock market was an even duller affair than yesterday's and much the same conditions governed operations, which were of a professional hue, vivid in its intensity.

A good undertone to prices ruled, but net changes were slight.

One of the exceptions was royal Dutch. A vigorous advance in American Locomotive again suggested pool activities in that quarter. General Motors achieved a gain of more than two points. Marine preferred suffered a severe sharp reaction.

Prices eased off in the last hour. Excesses of a point or more were common. Steel went below 103 and Marine preferred dropped back to 102 1/2 as compared to the day's high at 104 3/4. Baldwin also receded two points from the top.

PROHIBIT RUBBER IMPORTS

Washington, June 19.—Importation of manufactured rubber articles is prohibited after June 23, the war trade board announced today.

State House News

The Public Service commission has asked Director McAdoo to add fuel wood to the list of materials excepted from the $15 car minimum. It is pointed out that many of the cars hold but 14 cords, and that the arbitrary $15 minimum car charge adds more than one dollar to the cost of every cord of wood hauled, and that no matter how short the haul. From points where the charge for hauling wood is now less than a dollar a cord the addition of the minimum car charge more than doubles the rate, and works a hardship on the whole coast. The fuel of the coast should be placed on at least as good terms as to freight as that of the east, and yet without any minimum car charge or the additional 25 per cent raise, the coast is paying a higher rate than the east is made to pay with all the increases.

The Public Service commission received wires from the railroad companies last night telling of two accidents. A freight train struck Harry Fulk of Sherwood last night near that point, and two light engines struck an auto at a crossing near Medford, injuring Peter Stream, Mrs. E. L. Hurd and Mrs. Henry Lord, all of Hoquiam, Washington.

Articles of incorporation were filed today as follows:

Western Ship Supply company of Portland, capital stock $10,000 and object to engage in the wholesale and retail ship supply business, to operate mills and ship lace plants, etc.

Sierra Metals company of Grants Pass, capital $100,000 and object to search for ores and mines, operate mines and smelt, mill and concentrate ores.

Medford is aroused as to the necessity of irrigation and the making of crops reasonably certain. Two new irrigation districts have been organized recently in that section. One known as the Talent district contains 10,000 acres and the Medford district 40,000.

Besides these the private company known as Rogue River Valley Canal Company has been furnishing water to some sections, but its system is not yet completed. Letters from that section to State Engineer Lewis state that crops are dying from lack of moisture, and this is what is making the people of that section determined to get irrigation systems inaugurated.

SUBMARINE SUNK

New York, June 19.—Destruction of one submarine by depth bombs and a fight with another was described in a letter from a soldier published here today.

The destroyed submarine appeared in the middle of a fleet of troop transports, it was said. The submarine was sunk after she had submerged and the transports moved on.

Success In Prison

San Francisco, June 19.—Twilight baseball was pronounced a success in San Francisco today by Coast League officials. Twenty-five hundred and fifty fans, by actual count, attended yesterday's game, they announced.

Elvin Herr of Howell Prairie recently purchased from Mrs. Hazel Von Eyth, 100 acres of what is known as the A. G. Newsome farm on Howell Prairie for a consideration of $15,000. The farm is improved and will be taken by Mr. Herr for a home about October 1. The transfer was handled by W. H. Grabenhorst & Co.

Ernest P. Powell and George I. Hanson enlisted yesterday in the navy as second class seamen and left at once for Bremerton. Today Roland B. Reinhardt enlisted for the radio service and Charles Wesley Lauder of Salem, rural route 3, as second class seaman. Those enlisting for seaman service are sent to Bremerton for first instructions and equipment, while those going into the radio service are sent to Mare Island for instruction.

A report coming from Newport shows that the owners of stove wood along the coast are not averse to a little profiteering. A party who a few days ago went to Newport to spend the summer was almost tempted to return to Salem when the question came up of buying the usual 16-inch fir wood for household uses. The price asked was $4 a rick, or $12 a cord. One year ago, the owners of wood were glad to get $2.50 a rick, or $7.50 a cord. In the one year's time the price has managed to do the airplane act, sliding from $7.50 to $12 a cord.

The initiative petition for an Emergency War Fund Bill to be submitted to the voters at the fall election has already received 1500 signatures and 20 petitions are still out for signatures. The bill can legally go on the ballot this fall when it has received 2000 signatures. It calls for a tax of one mill to raise a war fund, to be used in the establishment of hospitals, special training schools for injured soldiers and for any other purposes that may be deemed advisable for the relief and comfort of returning soldiers.

Invitations are being issued by the Rev. Robert S. Gill, acting manager of the Salem Commercial club, notifying the members that the annual election of officers will be held Friday evening of this week. Besides the business of the evening, which will include a review of the work done by the club the past year, there will be served a buffet luncheon and cigars. The address of the evening will be delivered by W. F. Woodard of the Woodward-Clarke Company, druggists of Portland.

The aphs have done considerable damage to the oat crop, and perhaps to the wheat. On top of this the long drought has made a short crop of all kind of cereals a certainty in this section. However, there will be a large planting of potatoes, as the late crop is not generally put in until the latter part of June. The plan is to get them planted and up, during the dry season, they growing and maturing after the fall rains begin. As to digging them that is done any time as they are wanted during the winter, though the main crop is gathered in November or early December.

According to information at the Home Service Section of the Red Cross, the home folks need not worry if they have not received the insurance papers of soldiers now in the service. As soon as this insurance was taken out, the government made its record. In the first applications the blanks provided no space in which it was to be stated to whom the papers should be sent, and while the government is supposed to send the papers to the beneficiary, it has not been done to any extent to those living in Salem. However, a few insurance papers have been received and the indications are that others will gradually be sent to the beneficiary. In the insurance blanks recently printed, space is given wherein it is named to whom the papers shall be sent.

Austrians Make Failure of Grand Offensive

By J. W. T. Mason, (United Press War Expert.)
New York, June 19.—The Austro-Hungarians have not yet learned from Von Hindenburg the secret of his great initial impetus in attack and the offensive in Italy must consequently, for the present, be regarded as a failure.

After four days of effort, the Austro-Hungarians have not secured a single major objective. Hindenburg's new system of attack requires for its success an immediate progression of gains, which culminate by the fourth day at least in an extensive bend in the opposing lines. No such result has been attained by the Austro-Hungarians.

A change in tactics is necessary if Emperor Karl still hopes to gain a success which can be exploited at home.

Four Men Indicted For Attempt to Defraud

Washington, June 19.—Four men were indicted today by the grand jury, charging attempt to defraud the government of $187,000 through manipulation of a voucher.

The man indicted are: Clyde C. Waltman, navy department clerk.

Charles E. Waltman, lumber dealer, Victor, Va.

Private B. W. Peake, Camp Meigs.

D. Melvin Mowry, a signal corps stenographer.

to the advantage of his German overlords.

The combat has reached the old condition of slight advances at great loss of life resulting in eventual deadlock.

American Aiators Fight On Italian Front

Washington, June 19.—The first cadre of American aviators and pilots trained in Italian aviation fields started today toward the Italian front, accompanied by Congressman Laguardia and will go immediately into action. A Rome dispatch to the Italian embassy today stated:

"This first contingent is composed entirely of volunteers representing the finest specimens of Americans," the cable added.

"This morning they were received by Chiusa, commissioner of aeronautics, Assistant Secretary of State Gallenga and by numerous civil and military authorities. After many evidences of solidarity given by the United States this contribution of airmen to our fighting forces constitutes a fresh proof of the invaluable support of America, the significance of which is deeply appreciated by the Italian nation."

Commercial Club's Annual Meeting Friday

The following letter was mailed today by the Rev. R. S. Gill, acting manager of the Commercial club, to the club members notifying them of the annual meeting Friday evening of this week:

Dear Sir: Friday, June 21st is Joy Night at the Commercial club.

The club keeps open house that evening for its members and their friends. Nothing elaborate in the way of program just a feast to enjoy the soothing weed, the companionship of friends and associates and partake of a little something in the way of a buffet lunch con, served so that everyone helps him, self, a lunch by the people, of the people, and for the people.

W. F. Woodward, of the Woodward-Clarke Co., of Portland will be the club's guest and will make one of his spicy and pointed talks.

There's a little business to transact of course. You'll hear what the club has been doing. You will have the officers for the ensuing year to elect.

Come along. Bring a friend. And don't forget the date, Friday June 21st, 8 p. m.

Court House News

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Ward C. Russell and Nellie Dean Patterson, both of Gervais.

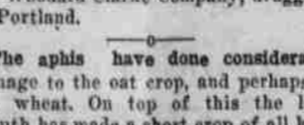

Before Judge Kelly this afternoon the suit of Mary I. Mercer against the Germania Fire Insurance company is being tried. It is an action brought to collect on a fire insurance premium.

TIRPITZ HAS SMALLPOX

Portland, Or., June 19.—The county jail was quarantined today when it was discovered that Charles Tirpitz, who claims to be a distant relative of the German admiral of that name, had the small pox.

Tirpitz was removed to the isolation hospital.

Tirpitz was pallid for ten days for neglecting to register on June 5. When he recovers from the small pox he will enter the army.
