FIRST WAR BABY

1918, and as his father is in the service in France, he was promptly named after his father. At birth his weight was 10c pounds and at the age of one month, the weight is 12 1/2 pounds. He lives with his mother, formerly Miss Velma West, at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Rowland, 1391 Waller street.

When it comes to immediate relatives the baby is fixed about like this: Father in France, mother in Salem; four grand parents in Salem; one great grand father and two great grand mothers; one uncle; three aunts; eleven great aunts and four great uncles; one great great grandmother; five great aunts and one great uncle.

The grand parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Rowland and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. West, all of Salem. The great grand parents are Mr. E. M. Rowland of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. E. West of 2315 Maple avenue, Salem, Oregon. His great great grandmother is Mrs. E. M. Collins of Wayne, Neb.

In the way of uncles the war baby is not faring so well as he has but one, E. Reed Rowland of this city. The aunts number three the Misses Beatrice, Mildred and Claudine West of North Salem. However, with the 11 great aunts and four great uncles and the five great great aunts, the chances are that the only passing around the first war baby will experience will be among his numerous relatives.

MAY EXCHANGE PRISONERS
Washington, June 20.—Germany's answer to the American state department's proposal for a conference on prisoners at Berno has not been very satisfactory, it was learned today. Further inquiry is being made, however, and it is possible the conference ultimately will be arranged.

Incidentally, it became known the conference would consider not only treatment of prisoners, but also exchange of them.

A merchant relates the following: "For years I could not sleep without turning every hour. Whatever I ate caused gas and sourness. Also had stomach catarrh. Because Adler-ika flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. J. C. Perry.

THE GREAT CHANGE OF LINES SHOE SALE AT

IS STILL GOING

All Old Lines will be COMPLETELY

CLOSED OUT

Selby's, Hanan's, Sachs, Utz and Dunnes and others must go. Our new lines have already begun to come and we MUST CLEAR OUT our shelves.

In spite of the fact that the labor shortage in the factories is advancing the cost of shoes by leaps and bounds, in some instances as much as 30 per cent in two weeks, we are going to close these lines out at practically cost, and in many instances way below last year's costs. You cannot, in justice to yourself, miss this opportunity, which will soon be gone, and shoes will not be so low again for many years.

Come in and we will prove our statements.
